PRIVATE PAPERS HELD INVIOLATE

Court Rules Documents of This Kind May Not Be Seized

Private books and papers should be as secure against unreasonable search and seizure as a home, Superior Judge McComb declared in refusing the request of George Williams to bring the private records of Clara Reich, defendant in a suit, into court.

Judge McComb said that unless it could be shown that the evidence contained in private documents materially affected the litigants in a case, such documents could not be seized and taken into court.

MRS. JAYNES TAKES TURN FOR WORSE

Her Story of Being Shot by Intruder Corroborated as She Suffers

Corroboration of the story told police by Mrs. Frank Jaynes, wife of Patrolman Jaynes, that she was shot by a man who entered her home at 456 West Thirty-second Drive on the pretext of being a telephone repair man, was obtained yesterday, according to Detective Lieutenant Burch, from Miss Ruth Monroe, a friend of the supposed "revenge-plot victim."

It was Miss Monroe, according to Burch, who was talking to Mrs. Jaynes over the telephone when the assailant demanded entrance at the latter's home. Miss Monroe stated that she heard Mrs. Jaynes speak to the man and ask him if he were in a hurry, and also overheard his reply to "take your time, and all as long as you want to."

Mrs. Jaynes's condition took a turn for the worse at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital yesterday, according to Police Surgeon Hoyer, a slight cold adding to the suffering from the bullet wound in the right shoulder.

While the husband, Officer Frank Jones was preparing to have his wife removed to the Methodist Hospital, squads of detectives from the University division were investigating several different theories which it is expected, will lead to the identification of Mrs. Jaynes's assailant. A "fanatic" who is seeking to torture Mr. and Mrs. Jaynes because of the slaying of August Lehrer by Officer Jaynes last month. Previous to the shooting Saturday night subsequent to the killing of Lehrman, Mrs. Jaynes reported half a dozen occurrences in which her home was broken into, furniture mutilated and threatening notes left in the doorways.

BANK TAXING BILL VOTED

State's Senators Give Approval

Issue Faced by Involved Situation on Reaching House Committee

Hope for Agreement Voiced, to Allow of Assembly Action Today

BY C. A. JONES
"Times" Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—The 4 per cent tax on income of banks and corporations passed the Senate late this afternoon with 21 votes, but immediately faced a involved situation when it was taken up tonight before the Revenue and Taxation Committee of the Assembly.

The committee met hope was voiced that an agreement would be reached on the bill to be presented on the floor of the Assembly for final action tomorrow morning. Speed is necessary, as the bill must be passed and signed by the Governor by next Monday in order to become effective for this year's taxes.

Possible plans are in order for immediate action in the Senate on the bill providing a low tax on banks, the companion measure to which was adopted today.

LITTLE'S CONTENTION

Assemblyman Little, who today passed a resolution calling on the governor to advise the Legislature of the full report of the State Board of Equalization, was attempting to have the committee report favorably on the Revenue and Taxation measure. Mr. Little contends that the completed report is available and has been perused by certain persons. The report is cursory, he calls for radical changes in the State taxation structure by the taxation of utilities back into political divisions, and also favors a State-wide income tax on individuals and corporations.

Mr. Little declares that the Assembly should have the benefit of knowing what proposals this report contains before the bank and corporation tax bill is finally passed.

COMPROMISE PROSPECT

A favorable effect will be made, it is stated, to amend the bill in the Senate today to provide that the Board of Equalization have full control of the administration of the tax, instead of setting up a new administrative office. This amendment was not submitted in the Senate, but in the event it is adopted by the Assembly it will go back for submission to the upper house.

The Senate passed the bill 33 to 1. The lone opponent was Senator Breed of Oakland. The measure received a majority of two-thirds on the provisions of the bill exempting from the manner as set forth in the constitutional amendment adopted at the election in November.

The bill reduces the constitutionally provided offset for personal property locally from 60 to 75 per cent, and grants a 10 per cent offset on real estate taxes paid.

DRY STORM FURY FAILS

Deficiency Bill Passes House

Coolidge Recommendations on Extra Prohibition Fund Included

Measure's Start for Senate Marked by Warning of Squalls Ahead

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—The second deficiency bill weathered the prohibition storm in the House today and was sent to the Senate with the Presidential recommendations safely embodied in the $194,500,000 supply measure.

Immediately after the House, by a vote of 239 to 125, had placed its mark of approval on the bill, the signal was given that it would face a period of rough weather in the Senate similar to that encountered in the House.

Senator Harris, Democrat, Georgia, served notice that when the measure is taken up in the Senate he again will offer the $24,000,000 prohibition amendment that led to the death in conference of the first deficiency bill. The second measure carries most of the items that were incorporated in that bill.

TWICE REJECTED

The $24,000,000 proposal twice was rejected by the House, once when the amendment was offered on the floor Saturday and again today when that body refused by a roll call vote to send the bill back to the Appropriations Committee to incorporate the huge amount in the measure.

As the legislation goes to the Senate it carries the $2,727,000 recommendation for prohibition that was transmitted to Congress last week by President Coolidge. This fund would be distributed among the Department of Justice, Customs Bureau, Prohibition Bureau and Civil Service Commission to carry on their activities relating to enforcement of the dry laws.

CORDON OF PROTECTION

An impenetrable cordon of Republican votes protected the Presidential recommendations from the time the measure was taken up in the House. Although the southern Democrats stood firmly behind the larger figure throughout the struggle, they lost the support of most of the New York and other eastern Democrats, who threw their strength to the Republicans to defeat the proposal.

There were half a dozen amendments to increase the amount before the House finished with the bill. Most of these were offered by Democrats but one, to provide $300,000,000 for enforcement, was proposed by Representative LaGuardia, a New York Republican, who ranged himself alongside the Democrats.

INQUIRY PROVISION

Among its various items the measure includes an amendment sponsored by Representative Cramton, Republican, Michigan, to provide $250,000 for an investigation of the operations of the prohibition law. The sum would enable President-elect Hoover to carry out

Bill for New California Judge Passes and Goes for President's O.K.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—An additional judge for the Ninth Judicial Circuit, which embraces California, was provided by a bill which went to the President for signature today.

The creation of this additional judgeship will make possible the appointment of Secretary of the Navy Wilbur to a Federal judgeship as a step leading to his eventual appointment to the Supreme Court, according to rumors in official circles here.

The bill was introduced in the House and passed. When it went to the Senate an amendment was added requiring that the appointment to the senior circuit judgeship for this district shall be passed on by Congress when a vacancy occurs. This amendment was agreed to by the House today and the bill was sent to the President for signature.

QUEEN MARY BUYS CHEAP SHOP GOODS

Creates Sensation as She Patronizes Store Similar to 5 and 10-Cent Places

BOGNOR (Eng.) Feb. 25. (AP)—Queen Mary created quite a sensation today on a shopping tour by paying a visit to an English version of a "5-and-10-cent" store and making several six-penny (12 cents) purchases.

When Her Majesty arrived the surprised customers present immediately departed so as to give her an opportunity to inspect the premises undisturbed. She was shown around by the manager and chatted with the girls behind the counter.

Her Majesty showed especial interest in some three-penny and six-penny "pearl" necklaces and smiled when the manager pointed out their "gold" clasps.

The saleslgirls remained in the shop for an hour after closing time discussing what the Queen bought and what she was wearing.

While the marshal was able to take some nourishment this morning it was learned he spent a restless night. His temperature rose to 100 and his pulse to 92.

LINDBERGH TALKS WEDDING

Not to Reporters, But With Fiancee, and Promises to Tell All About Plans When They Decide

CUERNAVACA (Mex.) Feb. 25. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Miss Anne S. Morrow, secluded in this somnolent mountain resort, are formulating their wedding plans and in a few days may make announcement of the time and place.

The Associated Press is in a position to state authoritatively that there will not be a surprise wedding, as has been rumored, but that after the principals have decided, which they have not done as yet, the information as to where and when will be given out.

The affianced couple are together here for the first time since their engagement was announced the 12th inst. Today Lindbergh drove an Embassy automobile in which they explored alone the beautiful country in the vicinity.

DREAM UNDISTURBED

There is little to break in on their seclusion here. No newspaper is published in Cuernavaca. The residence of Ambassador Morrow has no telephone. Although the town is only a two hours' ride by automobile from the capital its life is so tranquil and undisturbed that in few other places of the earth could the young couple be so far removed from curious crowds and intruders.

Besides their automobile ride, Lindbergh and Miss Morrow took short walks around the town and sat talking together in the courtyard of the Morrow home, the high surrounding walls of which are hidden by masses of multicolored flowers.

Ambassador Morrow returned to the capital this morning to attend his duties, but Mrs. Morrow and her daughter Elisabeth remained with Anne and Lindbergh. They expect to stay here for several more days.

Newspaper reporters who had encountered only a wall of silence in their efforts to interview Col. Lindbergh yesterday evening on his arrival at Mexico City after his flight from Eagle Pass, Tex., took up the trail again today. Several of them were driving here when they met on the highway the automobile in which the Ambassador was returning to Mexico City.

EDGE WINS ON SURVEY FOR CANALS

Senate Passes Measure for Work and Coolidge Forwards Estimate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Within a few minutes after the Senate had adopted today the resolution of Senator Edge, Republican, New Jersey, authorizing a survey of a Nicaraguan canal, President Coolidge forwarded to the Senate a supplemental estimate of $150,000 for the survey.

The appropriation, the same as that propoled in the Edge resolution, was transmitted for inclusion in the second deficiency appropriation bill passed today by the House.

The Edge resolution still must be considered by the House, but apparently the President and the Budget Bureau were acting in anticipation of House approval.

The $150,000 estimate was a substitute for the similar estimate submitted last session by the President. The new estimate would provide for a survey of a Nicaraguan canal route connecting the Atlantic and Pacific and for a survey for enlarging the Panama Canal. Both proposals are provided by the Edge resolution.

After several days of opposition from Senator Dill, Democrat, Washington, the Nicaraguan resolution went through today without even a roll call.

Senator Edge said the survey is necessary because the Panama Canal is rapidly reaching its maximum capacity and another canal is needed.

FENN BILL GETS KICK

Senators Play Football

Filibustering Tactics of Night Session Viewed as Real Menace

Census for 1930 Threatened by Foes in Fight on Reapportionment

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Meeting tonight in special session under agreement to discuss the House reapportionment bill for three hours, the Senate spent two hours and twenty minutes in empty parliamentary wrangling and adjourned at 10:20 p.m. without even giving the legislation serious consideration.

It was Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, leader in the fight to obtain Senate approval of the reapportionment bill already passed by the House, who finally acknowledged the futility of the situation and moved adjournment. For more than two hours he attempted to combat the tactics of filibustering Senators from Southern States which would lose seats in the House if the bill were enacted, but he saw his efforts were fruitless and conceded defeat.

ROUT PREVENTED

Although there was no idea a vote on the legislation would come tonight, proponents of reapportionment had hoped at least for dignified discussion. Instead of getting it they found themselves up against a running fire of motions of one variety and another designed to place the Senate in a snarl and force an adjournment or recess until tomorrow. It was to save something out of the fire and prevent a complete rout that Vandenberg at last took it upon himself to move adjournment.

There is no provision for the reapportionment bill to come up again and after tonight it was apparent to all that the constitutional mandate for a reallocation of House seats after each census is to be met by further delay on the part of Congress. The House has passed the Penn measure, shifting House seats according to the population of the various States, but the Senate has it faced in a filibuster which threatens to kill also for this Congress the bill authorizing the taking of the 1930 census.

POLLS FAVORABLE

The only hope for reapportionment, it appears, is that administration leaders will deem it imperative that the census bill be enacted this session and reapportionment can be offered as an amendment. If this could be done a vote on reapportionment would not be prevented and if it were brought to a vote it would pass, judging from recent polls. However, so determined are the Senators fighting the Penn bill, it was evident tonight that the census bill also must be sacrificed. This will seriously cripple plans, already well under way, for taking next year's population count.

PERILS GOVERNMENT

The census bill, it is now believed, will go over to the special session early in the Hoover administration and then possibly face inaction so that no census taking at all will be possible in 1930. This would be a revolutionary delinquency on the part of Congress, but no more so than its failure for the past eight years to enact a reapportionment measure. If one is ordered by the Constitution so is the other, and if Congress can ignore its duty in one particular it can in another.

The situation is one that genuinely worries friends of constitutional governments, whether from States that win or lose under reapportionment.

Under the reapportionment bill which is being strangled California would stand to gain six Congressmen, boosting the number of its House members from eleven to seventeen. This would be the largest gain of any State, Michigan coming next with four.

STORMS SWEEP SOUTH WITH DEATH IN WAKE

Twenty-three Lives Lost and Many Persons Injured, While Damage to Property Runs High

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Feb. 25. (AP)—Storms that swept through several sections of the South late today took a toll estimated tonight at twenty-three lives, and more than two score persons were injured.

The bodies of fifteen persons had been removed tonight from the wreckage of the business section of the village of Duncan, Miss., and of the forty or more injured there it was feared that several may die.

A mother and daughter were killed and the father seriously injured by a tornado that struck the little community of Van, Ark. Their two-story dwelling collapsed.

Two persons were killed and several were injured by a heavy windstorm that swept a small area in Quitman county, Mississippi; in the vicinity of Marks.

All available physicians and Red Cross workers and ambulances were rushed to Duncan from near-by towns, and a company of National Guardsmen was ordered in proceed there by Gov. Bilbo.

The property damage at all the sections hit was reported to be heavy.

Apparently the storms were a part of a general disturbance through the lower and middle South, following that which took four lives early today in Northeast Texas.

FIFTEEN PERISH IN MISSISSIPPI TOWN

DUNCAN (Miss.) Feb. 25. (AP)—A heavy windstorm swept through this village this afternoon, killed at least fifteen persons, and left the business section in ruins. Estimates of the injured range as high as 100.

Six Chinese were killed in the collapse of a store, and the other victims met death in the collapse of buildings. Two blocks of the business district, about fifteen dwellings and four cotton gins were razed. Only four or five business houses are left standing.

The known dead are: Joe Spencer, Cal Bracey, Annie Mack, 7 years of age, Katie Mack, and an unidentified man, all white; Henry Joe, Herman Joe, and Joe Fong, Chinese; Boston Scott and Thomias Scott, negroes, and an unidentified negro woman, a Chinese woman and three Chinese children.

The injured include: W. T. Holden; Mrs. Briggs Mack; Mrs Katie Mack and two Mack children; F. R. Johnson; Mrs. Ed Harris, Mrs. W. H. Nettles; H. C. Cade; J. H. Preston and several Chinese.

Ducan has a population of about 450.

The storm came about 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Searching parties continued tonight to comb the debris for other victims.

At Alligator, Miss., six miles north of Duncan, Mrs. N. P. Oswalt and baby and Mrs. Rollins Oswalt and two children were injured in the collapse of their homes.

TRAIL OF DEATH ALSO LEFT IN TEXAS

DALLAS (Tex.) Feb. 25. (AP)—Wind, rain and hail hurtled down on Northeast Texas today, leaving behind four dead and six seriously injured. Property loss is estimated at more than $250,000.

Shortly after Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Jones had been killed at Cooper, sixty miles northeast of Dallas, when their home collapsed, two negroes Alfred Gibson and his wife, were battered to death as the wind wrecked their house at Grand Prairie, thirteen miles west of Dallas.

At Cooper three persons, Troy Young, 21 years of age; Mrs. Wakefield, a tourist, and Mrs. William Duncan, 60, were injured seriously. William D. Duncan, husband of Mrs. Duncan, was badly lacerated. Three others, Mr. and Mrs. John Trigg and their daughter, Leona, 18, were injured at Grand Prairie. Mrs. Trigg and her daughter may die.

Joe Clark, who was milking a cow in a barn at Cooper, saw his house torn from its foundation, and his daughter, who was running to him, tossed through the door into the barn. The girl was not hurt.

POLICE RUIN BALLYHOO

Dempsey Shot Called Bunk

"Attack of 5 a.m." Reported by Press Agent at 10, Says Statement

Details on Gunman Set Forth in Mimeographed Sheet Don't Check Up

MIAMI (Fla.) Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—The police department of this city this afternoon flatly refused to be a party to the Sharkey-Stribling ballyhoo hostilities in which it was reported that Jack Dempsey was shot at by an early-morning prowler.

Through Lieut. L. H. Partin, the police issued the following statement:

"Jack Dempsey is an honored and respected guest of this city. If such a prominent person's life were attempted in our jurisdiction at 5 o'clock this morning and no request for an investigation or pursuit of the assailant was made until 10 o'clock it leads to a very strong doubt on the entire story.

"BUNK," SAYS OFFICER

"When this report was made it was handed in by a press agent who we strongly suspect engineered the entire affair."

Then Lieut. Partin, who represents Police Chief R. H. Wood, added a postscript of his own:

"If you want my personal and private opinion, it's a plain case of bunk."

Dempsey's press agent notified newspaper men that Jack had been fired upon about 5 a.m. by a "prowler" who escaped in a waiting automobile. He furnished an account of the attack to the fight correspondents.

In it "the prowler" is pictured as having forced his way into Dempsey's bedroom in movie style, barking the command, "turn on those lights." He then spoke over his shoulder to an imaginary figure in the hallway outside:

MIMEOGRAPHED REPORT

"C'me on in, Joe." Dempsey arose from his bed, the mimeographed account went on, and the prowler retreated. As Dempsey followed him he fired one shot which imbedded itself in the wall. Dempsey watched him step out a window and then into an automobile. It waited outside for twenty minutes flashing its spotlight up and down the front of the Harry Moir residence, "waiting, presumably for Dempsey to stick his head out of the window and be shot at again."

The account added that "police have been notified and are searching for a man five feet three inches, with light trousers, dark coat, celluloid collar and cap."

At Moir's home servants barred

COWBOY LOVER WOOS FAST

Chicago Heiress Betrothed But That Doesn't Stop Elopement, Threatened Arrest and Honeymoon

PHOENIX, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—A telephone message to arrest "Big Boy" George Gillespie, cowboy entertainer, for kidnaping a 17-year-old prominent Chicago girl, started in Arizona today frantic search which ended late in the afternoon in the discovery of the bride and groom, both of age, and serenely happy, ensconced in a hotel room in Phoenix.

The bride is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Thorne, who, with her parents, came west for a winter vacation in Castle Hot Springs just after her engagement to Clymer S. Bowen, son of Mrs. C. C. Bowen, formerly of Piedmont, Cal., had been announced.

George Gillespie, the son of the late George Gillespie, realty dealer of Nashville, Tenn., operates an Indian curio store at Castle Springs Hotel. A whirlwind courtship, in typical western style, developed in a few weeks the elopement Sunday at Phoenix after the pair with seven other young people had induced a deputy County Clerk to issue a license.

Search for them was made late Sunday night and Monday after the Sheriff of Yavapai county had received a phone call to arrest Gillespie for kidnaping a minor. Miss Thorne's age was reported to be just 17.

When it was discovered that the girl was of legal age no warrant was issued.

"We loved each other so we just got married," the elopers said when they were located this afternoon. Then the bride offered "Father and mother just don't understand yet."

Gillespie is 27 years of age and is widely known in the State as an entertainer who affects the cowboy atmosphere. He went west four years ago after he was graduated from the University of Tennessee. His mother in Nashville received a telegram late Monday that he had "found the right girl and had married her."

Miss Thorne's father is a former president and still a director of Montgomery Ward & Co.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—The Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia today sustained the General Electric Company in its contention that station WGY, at Schenectady should not be forced to share time with another General Electric station, KGO, at Oakland, Cal., as required in the November 11, last, allocation of the Radio Commission.

The decision, while applying only to station WGY, owned by the General Electric Company, was regarded by members of the Radio Commission as opening the doors to attempts by other stations to overthrow the reallocation of the country's radio wave lengths which went into effect November 11, last.

WILL ASK REHEARING

After the decision was handed down Louis G. Caldwell, general counsel for the Radio Commission, announced that he will ask for a rehearing. In the event a rehearing is not granted he said he will appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States. The case had been taken to court shortly after the November 11 allocation.

As the commission laid plans to fight the decision Senator Dill, Democrat, of Washington, charged on the floor of the Senate that the court had decided in favor of WGY without considering the opposing views of the commission. In the meantime Mr. Caldwell, in a formal statement, said that the opinion of the court had been handed down before he filed answer to a brief filed by the General Electric counsel for the commission cited the court's rules allowing twenty days in which to reply.

HUGHES IMPRESSES

Senator Dill declared that "the court was so impressed by the very appearance of Charles Evans Hughes that it did not consider the arguments raised by the counsel on the opposing side."

Members of the commission are uncertain as to the effect the opinion will have on the present allocation of radio facilities. The General Electric's Schenectady station under the general order reallocating frequencies was required to stop broadcasting at sunset (Pacific Coast time) on 790 kilocycles in order to allow KGO to have a clear channel. The court ordered the commission to allow WGY to have the use of the channel full time. If the commission now should decide to allow KGO another channel, it will have to take such a channel from some other station, which procedure, the commission believes, could easily throw the whole wavelength structure into confusion.

WHISTLE TO RESULT

"Although the court does not say so," Mr. Caldwell said, "this decision necessarily holds that the November 11 allocation is invalid to the extent that it assigns this channel to the fifth zone and if both KGO and WGY are to continue to operate on it the channel ceases to be a clear channel with the result that all the listening public outside of a comparatively small area around either station will have receptions spoiled for them by a heterodyne whistle.

"It also means," he said, "that the equalization which the commission so carefully worked out between the five zones has been destroyed as between the first and fifth zones with respect to cleared channels. Just what effect, if any, the decision will have on the other portions of General Order 40, is too early to say."

DILL URGES BILL

Senator Dill contended that the action of the court demonstrated a need for immediate passage of the Watson-White radio bill continuing the Federal Radio Commission as an administrative body because that bill gives the commission authority to hire competent lawyers at a fee commensurate with the expert service required. Such lawyers, he asserted, would be able to cope with the talented attorneys being employed by the "radio trust."

The court in its opinion, written by Chief Justice Martin, held that Congress had ample power to provide regulations of radio but that the commission's orders must be reasonable and "serve the public conveniences, interest and necessity."

The court held that the restriction of the operating time of the station "is not reasonable and should not be enforced."

It also decided that any interference by WGY with the broadcasting of station KGO would not compare "in point of public inconvenience with that resulting from the silencing of WGY after sunset at Oakland, nor that full-time operation in the evening by WGY with 790 kilocycles would seriously impair the general scheme of allocations otherwise adopted by the commission."

"It is the judgment of this court," the decision concluded, "that the General Electric Company was on November 11, 1928, and is now entitled to receive from the Federal Radio Commission renewal of its license to operate station WGY upon the same terms as in the license dated November 1, 1928, to wit, upon 790 kilocycles with power of fifty kilowatt, and without time limit for operation. And this cause is remanded to the Federal Radio Commission to carry this judgment into effect."

FORD DENIED PERMIT FOR STATIONS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—The Radio Commission today denied the Ford Motor Company applications for construction permits and commercial licenses for six stations through which it desired to establish communications between its plant at Dearborn and its South American rubber plantations.

The commission also denied commercial licenses to Francis X. Eberle of Los Angeles and the Southern Radio Corporation, owned by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Eberle had asked for permission to broadcast market reports on a short wave length. The Southern Radio Corporation asked for four construction permits for stations it proposed to erect at Baton Rouge, La.; Houston, Tex.; Tulsa, Okla., and Linden, N. J.

The commission denied the following docket case because the applicant failed to appear for a hearing:

The Caw Packing Company, Seattle, Wash., which had requested a construction permit for a limited commercial station.

In addition to the commercial licenses denied the commission denied fifty-nine applications for modification of licenses and construction permits because the applicants failed to indicate a desire to be heard at hearings which the commission notified them would be held.

GERMAN GAYETY IN LENT IRKS

Fear Aroused Outsiders May Think Country Prospers Through Spending

BERLIN, Feb. 25. (AP)—Continuation into Lent of pre-Lenten gayety in Southern Germany has led to a motion in the Prussian Diet demanding that the government forbid further rejoicings in Lent.

The motion complains that these unbounded merrymakings coupled with reckless spending of money offend the religious feelings of a large section of the community and create the impression abroad Germany is much wealthier than is actually the case.

CORAL GABLES (Fla.) Feb. 25. (AP) — Johnny Weissmuller, holder of world swimming records, appeared in a new role in Coral Gables' Municipal Court today in his arraignment with A. S. Wolf, Coral Gables, on charges of disorderly conduct based on sending false fire alarms. Weissmuller drew a 10 fine and Wolf a $25 penalty.

The two were turned over to Miami authorities on a similar charge. Three false fire alarms in Coral Gables and two in Miami last Friday night were charged against them by police.

information and to every question about plans for the wedding replied: "I have nothing to say."

The reporters continued on to the Morrow residence where the aviator received them more pleasantly than yesterday and with a happy smile. He was quite willing to discuss aviation, but declined to give information about his wedding plans. "You must ask me that later," or, "maybe I can tell you that in a few days," were his responses. Asked if these answers meant that plans are not yet formulated, he replied "any interpretation is on your own responsibility."

However, the Associated Press learned that the plans in fact have not yet been decided.

COL. LINDBERGH TOOK RING AND WEDDING TOGS

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—The New York American tomorrow will say it has learned from a reliable source that when Col. Charles A. Lindbergh flew from Eagle Pass, Tex., to Mexico City Sunday, he carried with him the wedding ring that will be used when he marries Miss Anne S. Morrow, daughter of United States Ambassador Morrow.

Within the next three days, probably sooner, the American will say, the flying ace will marry Miss Morrow and then he plans to hide from the public gaze until he sees fit to return.

As well as the ring, the American will say, Lindbergh took with him on his flight a formal dress suit, a dinner coat, an afternoon cutaway, two sack suits, two overcoats and flying attire.

J. C. Trigg, a son of John Trigg, and his family were not injured, although the wind lifted their house from its foundation and deposited it, upright, twenty feet away.

Most of the damage was at the Primetex Refinery at Grand Prairie, where huge iron storage tanks were crumpled like paper, the wind sprinkling the countryside with oil. The loss is $150,000.

WESTERN KANSAS IN WINTER'S GRIP AGAIN

SALINA (Kan.) Feb. 25. (AP)—Winter returned to Western Kansas today, with rain giving place to sleet and snow.

Two persons were injured during the blinding snowstorm, which had reached a depth of 3 inches over this section early tonight.

Mrs. John Norcross of Ellis suffered a fractured skull and other injuries and her husband was hurt less seriously in a motor-car collision eight miles west of Salina.

reporters until late in the afternoon, when they were admitted to gaze at a bullet hole in the wall of a downstairs room, not a bedroom.

After various principals had been quizzed the general opinion tonight is that it all was all a crude bit of press-agenting with numerous loopholes and discrepancies, exploited to stimulate the sale of fight tickets, which has lagged lately.

Here are the highlights of the divergent stories:

Dempsey says one shot was fired.

Floyd Fitzsimmons, Jack's roommate, says two shots were fired.

The press agent said the police were notified this morning.

The police say they were not notified for more than eight hours, until after 1 p.m.

Dempsey says he was upstairs when the shot was fired.

The bullet hole was in a wall downstairs.

The head press agent announced before the police were given the case that the police had decided the caliber of the gun used.

There was a .38-caliber gun in the house capable of making a bullet hole to support the yarn.

BANK TAXATION PASSES SENATE

ate by no means represented the sentiment of that body. Suspicion is rampant. The bill, since its introduction last month, has been amended repeatedly until few persons could follow its various metamorphoses. Another group of amendments was adopted today, just before the bill itself came up for passage. The burden of the act's success, however, was placed on the administration.

Dixwell Pierce, secretary of the Board of Equalization, appeared in the Senate chamber and made an address on it. He tore into the bill on many of its features and said he doubts if the courts will construe it as constitutional.

Senator Nelson of Eureka handled the bill and went over again the urgent reasons for its adoption.

Senator Hurley quoted Gov. Young as saying that hundreds of bills must be adopted at each session of the Legislature, due to hasty consideration, and said this is a good time to make a thorough investigation, before final action.

Meanwhile, the bill introduced by Assemblyman West remains inactive on the Assembly file. This is similar to the Senate bill except for the change in offsets. An effort to move this bill Friday met with temporary failure. The Senate bill will replace it.

NINE MEASURES PASSED IN LEGISLATIVE HOUSES

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25. (AP)—Nine bills were passed today in the two houses of the Legislature, the first to receive enactment during the second half of the forty-eighth biennial session.

Senate Bill No. [illegible] by H. C. Nelson of Eureka. The 4 per cent bank and corporation tax bill.

Senate Bill No. 751 by F. C. Weller of Glendale. Permitting collegiate institutions to exercise the right of eminent domain.

Bills passed by the Assembly were:

Assembly Bill No. 143 by Ray De Yoe of Carmel. Increasing the salaries of certain officers in San Benito county.

Assembly Bill No. 226 by R. F. Fisher of Hydesville. Amending the duties of the stallion registration board.

Assembly Bill No. 228, also by Fisher. Providing that evaporated skimmed milk shall be sold in containers no less than No. 10 size.

Assembly Bill 773 by J. E. Stockwell of Los Angeles. Providing a codification of laws relating to the duties of boards of supervisors.

Assembly Bill No. 808 by D. W. Examiner of Santa Paula. Empowering boards of supervisors to send live-stock inspectors to meetings benefiting him.

Assembly Bill No. 885 by F. C. Hawes of San Francisco. Increasing payments allowed convicts upon release from prison from $5 to $10.

COMMITTEE APPROVES HARBOR ACT

Would Authorize State Transfer of Water Front to San Francisco

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25. (AP)—The San Francisco Harbor Act, authorizing transfer of the State's right, title and interest in the bay to the city and county of San Francisco was approved by the Assembly Commerce and Navigation Committee today.

The bill, introduced by the San Francisco delegation of Assemblymen, provides that the property shall be used by the city and county for improvement of the harbor only; that the State Treasurer and Controller shall be empowered to examine and audit records of the Harbor Commission, which body shall regulate dockage and wharfage rates, make contracts and handle other details connected with the conduct of the harbor.

The Municipal Board of Harbor Commissioners would remit to the State Treasurer monthly all moneys derived from conduct of the harbor except sums necessary for support of the commission and, in addition, $10,000 to be used as an emergency revolving fund where cash advances are necessary.

Release-Money Measure Passes

CHICAGO ARMS FOR VOTE FRAY

Death Threats Fly in Usual Pre-election Squabble

Candidates in Hiding While Police Guard Homes

Officers With Riot Guns at Each Polling Place

BY JOHN P. GALLAGHER
"Times" Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Tomorrow is election day again in Chicago and if indications tonight count for anything it will be, as usual, a hectic period. One Alderman will be elected in each of the city's fifty wards.

Looming tonight as the trouble center is the notorious "Bloody Twentieth" Ward, home of Morris Eller, City Collector and lieutenant of Mayor Thompson. Tonight a wave of pre-election terrorism was reported from that ward to the police and election commissioners. It was in the Twentieth Ward during last April's shocking primary that Octavius Granady, candidate for Republican ward committeeman against Eller, was murdered, a score of voters kidnaped and several others beaten severely. Complaints of threats and intimidation also were coming from the Fourth and Fifth wards. Eller and his son, Judge Emanuel Eller, are under indictment for the murder of Granady.

VOTE UNDER GUNS

Commissioner of Police Russell took immediate action and announced that as had made arrangements for police officers armed with shotguns to guard every polling place in the city to prevent intimidation of voters or violence to election workers and candidates and that extra guards would be placed in the Twentieth, Fourth and Fifth wards.

Alderman A. J. Prignano, candidate for re-election in the "Bloody Twentieth," was forced to flee with his family to another section of the city and scores of Prignano workers were threatened with "cracked heads" if they showed up at the polls tomorrow. Alderman Brunker, head of the Chicago Civic Commission, told authorities.

Prignano, spirited away in a detective bureau squad car shortly after midnight following a Sunday of successive threats against his life, was taken to a point outside the ward from where he will view tomorrow's "festivities." Meanwhile six husky blue-coated policemen are keeping guard on the Prignano home for the purpose of frustrating a reported plot to dynamite it. Two policemen are stationed at the front door and two are seated in an upstairs window with riot guns across their laps.

ESTABLISHES ALIBI

State Representative Pacelli, who is supported by Eller for the Council post, appeared at police headquarters tonight and denied that he had anything to do with the threats. Meanwhile Eller forces were blamed by Charles Eaton, candidate for Alderman in the Fifth Ward, for threats made by telephone to Eaton workers. Alderman Grossman, Eaton's opponent, has the support of Mayor Thompson's organization.

Thompson men in the adjoining Fourth Ward charged that two workers for B. A. Cronson, nephew of Corporation Counsel Ettelson, were fired upon as they rode in an automobile.

Wind-up of the Aldermanic campaign in all sections of the city today in advance of tomorrow's election witnessed a wild scramble of City Hall candidates to unload the label of Thompsonism. Sensing a continuation of the November uprising against Crow-Thompson rule, leaders of several Thompson ward organizations authorized Council aspirants to denounce the present administration in eleventh-hour utterances. The Mayor, say reports, is more concerned in getting into the Council trusted "yes men" than he is in retaining an uninjured political pride. The anti-Thompsonites have waged a bitter fight on all the Mayor's Aldermanic candidates throughout the city and the result will be watched closely by political observers.

TO HEAR COMPLAINTS

A move in behalf of law and order came from Frank J. Loesch, in charge of the special grand jury which investigated the April primary crimes, who announced that an assistant State's Attorney would be on duty throughout the day tomorrow and will be prepared for quick questioning of witnesses in event of violence.

While the politicians were thundering back and forth charges and counter-charges, 700 Chicago ministers of all faiths at a meeting held in the Chicago Temple to arouse the church-going citizens of the city to vote in the Aldermanic election tomorrow pledged themselves to the task of prayer "to the end that this city may be purged of the destructive influence of decadent underworld characters and subunderworld officials be ousted from public office so that men of character and patriotism may occupy their places and redeem the city's good name."

Penalties for Plotting Clearinghouse for formation Proposed

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Chicago is not the only American city in which racketeering flourishes, it was revealed today at a meeting to which business and industry leaders from nineteen cities sent representatives to confer with local employers and business men. The consensus of opinion is that the practice of collecting money through coercion, intimidation and intimation is spreading rapidly over the country unless steps are taken to crush it, if possible, it must be taken.

To this end there is to be inaugurated at once a national clearing house for information on racketeering and for effecting co-operation among the cities, it was stated. The meeting held in the Midland hotel was presided over by R. L. Lyon of Milwaukee, representing the National Association of Manufacturers, were leaders from New York, Detroit, Cleveland, Toledo, Fort Wayne, Indianapolis, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Jackson, Mich., Utica, New York, Aurora, Ill., Kansas City, Peoria, Atlanta, Omaha, Philadelphia, St. Louis and East St. Louis.

CHICAGO HAS THEM ALL

The meeting was called by Mr. Worden's association, which has headquarters in New York City. Headquarters of the new clearing-house on rackets are to be established in Chicago. The employers' association here will take the lead in building it up.

Although the gathering admitted Chicago has more different rackets than all the rest of the country combined, the business leaders agreed as well that the rackets are rapidly gaining a foothold in all the principal cities, particularly in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Kansas City, St. Louis, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Detroit, Philadelphia and New York.

"It has reached national proportions," said Noel Sargent of New York, chairman of the industrial relations committee of the National Manufacturers' body. "Racketeering has reached such proportions it will probably demand attention from the next session of Congress.

NEW LAWS NEEDED

"It is beginning to interfere with interstate commerce. New laws may be required and more severe penalties in existing laws, particularly those involving conspiracy."

Earl H. MacCoy, president of the Employers' Association of Chicago, told the business men all the mass of information already gathered by his organization on rackets and racketeering will be placed at their disposal.

A national campaign of publicity and education is planned, it was stated. This is to be especially for the communities in which a brotherhood of crime and politics has paralyzed law enforcement. A committee was appointed to direct a campaign of publicity at legislative bodies.

MOBS FOR HIRE

William Long of Cleveland, general manager of the American Plan Association, told the gathering that bombing so far has become "an industry only in Chicago."

"But," he added, "we have experienced some real 'pineapples' in Cleveland and Detroit. The use of the stench bomb is more highly developed. They have been used in many cities in theaters, bakeries, fruit and food stores, beauty parlors, apartment-houses and hotels."

"The dyeing and cleaning racket is the daddy of them all," G. L. Hostetter, secretary of the local employers' association, told them. "It was the first to appear in each city. The cost of rackets to Chicago in 1928 alone was $146,000,000. This is distributed over property damage, increased insurance rates, increased prices to the public."

He added that "twenty-six criminal mobs are operating in the city, lending their services to the racketeers for hire."

SPEED COURT'S JUDGE THINKS FAST WHEN NABBED ON HIGHWAY

FAIRFIELD, Feb. 25. (Exclusive) Police Judge O'Brien, who presides over the traffic court at San Francisco and who is known as the "speed and go to jail" jurist, was somewhat embarrassed when imperiously waved to the side of the highway just before daylight today by Traffic Officer De Moon. He was more so when he announced his identity to De Moon and the latter replied.

"Oh, so that's who you are, eh? Well, look what I got the last time I was in your town," and he pulled forth a San Francisco tag for illegal parking.

"Hm," said Judge O'Brien. "We will have a session of court right here. Two days in jail; sentence suspended."

"Well," said De Moon, I guess your lights looked flickery because the pavement was bumpy back there. Glad to have seen you, judge. Good-by."

Foreign Fleet Has Strength of Seven Vessels

Reports Tell of Pillaging and New Revolt

CHEFOO (China) Feb. 25. (AP)—The U.S.S. Trenton, cruiser, arrived at Chefoo this morning to protect American lives and property in view of the disturbing military situation. The trip from Manila was in response to requests from Leroy Webber, American Consul here.

Meanwhile the Japanese also were increasing precautions for the protection of their nationals and property. Another Japanese destroyer and a first-class cruiser, the Kiso, arrived here last night, while still other war craft were sent to Lungkof, occupied by the revolting Nationalist soldiers.

The arrivals brought foreign warships here to seven, five of which are Japanese, one British, and one American. Reports of wholesale pillaging by the troops "who revolted against the authority of the Nationalist government in this vicinity, a rumor that 15,000 more soldiers in the vicinity of Wei Hai Wei had declared for Chang Tsung-Chang, and the start of a new drive against the rebels marked today's developments.

Observers here declare that despite the brilliant initial successes of the Nationalist commander, he is doomed to defeat unless he receives reinforcements on a large scale. It is estimated that 40,000 rebels are arrayed against him.

SILVER PURIFIES WATER SUPPLY

Treated Metal Becomes Powerful Disinfectant, Says German

BERLIN, Feb. 25. (AP)—A special dispatch from Munich to the Mittag Zeitung says that Dr. Georg Krause, an engineer, has invented a process for purifying water by the introduction of specially treated silver. The dispatch says Prof. Rudolf Dekwitz, an authority of hygienics at Greifswald University, has certified Dr. Krause's results.

By injecting one and one-half grams of prepared silver it is stated that about 2,500,000,000 gallons of water can be disinfected. The process costs little and can be applied to any quality of water. It also is described as functioning independent of temperature.

FRUIT-RATE SUIT HEARING BEGINS

Railroads Fight Reduced Hauling Charge

More Than 400 Lines Join in Opposition

Carriers Say Order Will Cause Them Lots

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Railroad rates on California deciduous fruits, ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission, were under attack today in the Supreme Court, with more than 400 railroads seeking to set aside the order making a 12-cent reduction in rates to Denver and 12 cents to the territory east of the Rocky Mountains.

During the argument, counsel emphasized the great growth in the production of grapes and Justice McReynolds asked what was done with them. Herman Phleger, who opened the argument for the railroads, stated that prior to prohibition practically no juice grapes, as distinct from table grapes, were produced in California, but that now the industry had grown to exceed 40,000 cars a year.

The order of the commission would result, the court was told, in an annual decrease of $2,700,000 in railroad revenue, affecting practically every interstate carrier in the country, and would result in an actual deficit to them in operating expenses in handling such shipments of $240,000 a year.

The railroads contended that the order had been issued through 'a misinterpretation of the Hock-Smith resolution by the commission. They asserted that if the resolution aims to aid agriculture and was given the meaning placed upon it by the commission it is unconstitutional.

Fatal Bay City Fire Investigated

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Because of admissions by a half brother that strained relations existed, police, the Coroner's office and the County Autopsy Surgeon today began investigation of a fire which last night burned Fred Scruggs, 68-year-old recluse, to death in a homemade cabin.

Hundreds of sightseers watched the blaze last night without being aware that a human was being burned to death within the cabin. The body was not found until a search of the ruins was made today.

Fire Blamed on Union Conflict

SAN FRANCISCO Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Charles Hoehn, president of the Enterprise Foundry, charged today that fire which caused $25,000 damage last night was, he believes, of incendiary origin.

Hoehn declared ill-feeling engendered by the so-called "molders' war" is accountable for the blaze, which occurred on the one night of the week when the watchman is not on duty. The foundry is operated as an open shop.

Fire Marshal Kelley disagreed with Hoehn because of the location at which the fire was discovered, but continued an investigation.

"SAY, Tom! Did you see the colorful display of Scotch sweaters in Oviatt's windows today? There is one with matching golf hose...the very thing I need with my new knickers.

"I am strong for Luckies."

John Gilbert
Celebrated Screen Star

"Motion picture actors are under a great strain—they need the comforting qualities of a good cigarette. That is why most of us smoke Lucky Strike. The marvelous toasted flavor of Luckies brings complete enjoyment and relaxation but does not hurt the throat or wind. I am strong for Luckies—they are the 'stars' of the cigarette picture. I would rather have a Lucky after a meal than rich pastries or desserts."

JOHN GILBERT

Popular Motion Picture Actor

The modern common sense way—reach for a Lucky instead of a fattening sweet. Everyone is doing it—men keep healthy and fit, women retain a trim figure. Lucky Strike, the finest tobaccos, skilfully blended, then toasted to develop a flavor which is a delightful alternative for that craving for fattening sweets.

Toasting frees Lucky Strike from impurities. 20,679 physicians recognize this when they say Luckies are less irritating than other cigarettes. That's why folks say: "It's good to smoke Luckies."

Note: Authorities attribute the enormous increase in Cigarette smoking to the improvement in the process of Cigarette manufacture by the application of heat. It is true that during 1928, Lucky Strike Cigarettes showed a greater increase than all other Cigarettes combined. This surely confirms the public's confidence in the superiority of Lucky Strike.

ARMY HOUSING FUNDS SOUGHT

James Asks $15,000,000 to be Used in Program

Additional Amount Declared Necessary Now

Permanent Barracks Urged as Cheaper in End

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—A bill to authorize the expenditure of $15,000,000 to aid in carrying out the army housing program and to provide quarters for 2624 officers and men in various military posts on the continent and in insular possessions was introduced today by Representative James, Republican, Michigan, chairman of the House Military Affairs subcommittee on real estate and construction.

This measure, which would increase from $57,433,509 to $72,423,509 the total authorization by Congress for the housing program, is necessary, Representative James said, to carry out the plan to supply needed permanent construction in view of the expensive upkeep of temporary wartime buildings which have passed the point of usage.

Of the $57,433,509 authorized to house 26,935 officers and men, however, Mr. James pointed out, but $30,751,409 has been appropriated, and the Secretary of War has been authorized to enter into contracts for $4,250,000. He explained that the War Department supply bill of 1926, that yet approved by the President, carries an appropriation of $13,539,000 for construction.

Mr. James said the housing measures were introduced as a result of his personal inspection of army posts throughout the country, since the present program was begun in 1924.

CHICAGO PUBLISHER DIES

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. (AP)—Reuben H. Donnelly, 64 years of age, head of the publishing house which bears his name, died today.

THE PRIVATE LIFE of the PRINCE of WALES

(AS TOLD BY AN INTIMATE)

BY W. T. MARSDON

[Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance]

III—OSBORNE DAYS

When the Prince was 13 years of age it was decided in a family council composed of King Edward and the Prince's parents to send him to Osborne College as a naval cadet.

He was to go as an ordinary cadet, with no privileges because of his rank. This was the wish of King George, then Prince of Wales, and it is noteworthy that this was the first time the Prince's father definitely expressed an opinion concerning the education of his son that did not altogether agree with that of the Prince's mother.

The matter was being discussed at Buckingham Palace when the then Prince of Wales observed that "David should bear in mind that he is to be treated at Osborne exactly as an ordinary cadet."

"That idea," said the Princess of Wales, "ought not to be too greatly emphasized. David should not forget his father is the Prince of Wales."

THEN KING LAUGHED

King Edward's old butler, who told the story, said the King laughed at this suggestion.

"My dear May," he remarked, "believe me David won't be allowed to forget it. He will never be treated as an ordinary cadet."

And the Prince had not been long at Osborne before he found his grandfather was right.

There were two classes of cadets at Osborne—sons of wealthy parents, and, in the majority, sons of comparatively poor parents.

By the latter the Prince was treated with a good deal more civility than any other cadet would have received. He found cadets ready to "fag" for him, to go on errands for him, and clean up his study. When he was punished by being detained to write impositions in the classroom the Prince always could get a cadet to do it for him.

This surprised him. He had in his innocence been genuinely under the impression that he would be treated as an ordinary cadet. To find this was not the case displeased him.

One day when he was sentenced to write out an imposition and a cadet offered to write the impost for him the Prince demanded:

"Why in the dickens should you write it for me? Can't I do it myself?" And he did.

When naval officers at Osborne as instructors favored the Prince, letting him off punishment.

The wealthy cadets were civil enough to him. They did not bully him, but they did not bully him. Sometimes they would tease him about his rank, which angered him, but h would put up with the teasing as well as he could. Once, however, he blazed out.

REBUKED BY PRINCE

This was at a letter hour, when the cadets went to the letter rack to get their morning mail. When the Prince came up to get the letters directed to "H. R. H. Prince Edward," there was a group of cadets about the letter rack.

"Here you are, Your Royal Highness," exclaimed one. "A girl is writing to you this morning. Does she send her Prince kisses?"

The letter was from Princess Mary and it angered the Prince to hear the cadet speak as he did. The Prince probably regarded it as an insult to his sister.

The Prince took his letters quietly from the rack, put them into his pocket, and said to the cadet:

"You infernal little cad, if you speak to me like that again I'll punch your head."

WINS IN STUDIES

The Prince did creditably in his studies at Osborne. He passed into Dartmouth College, senior college for the navy, and was bracketed top with another Osborne cadet in the entrance examination.

But perhaps most of all did he learn at Osborne how difficult his position made it for him when he desired to be treated as an ordinary person. Here is an example.

When the Prince was at Osborne a performance of Pinafore was gotten up by the cadets, and they had a professional from London to help. The producer selected the Prince for Capt. Corcoran because he liked the Prince's voice and way of acting.

But one cadet, eager to get the part himself, said to the Prince:

"You know you are just getting the part because you are the son of the Prince of Wales."

That was enough for the Prince. He chucked the part and would sing only in the chorus.

TACOMA MAYOR RESIGNS

FAMOUS PASTOR DIES IN EAST

Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis of Brooklyn Passes

He Held Pulpit Occupied by Beecher and Abbott

Speeches and Writings on War Brought Notice

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor emeritus of Plymouth Congregational Church, Brooklyn, died today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robert S. Kellogg, in Bronxville. He was 71 years of age.

Dr. Hillis had been seriously ill for months and today suffered a sudden heart attack. He resigned as pastor of Plymouth Church three months after he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage following upon a session of the church council at Plymouth Institute in January, 1924. He went to Battle Creek, Mich., for treatment, and in April, 1924, he sent from there his resignation to the board of the Plymouth Congregational Church. He then was made pastor emeritus.

Assuming the pastorate of the Plymouth church before he was 40, Dr. Hillis devoted his life much the same as did his two predecessors, Dr. Henry Ward Beecher and Dr. Lyman Abbott, dividing his time between his church duties and literature. Henry Ward Beecher, one of the most widely known preachers of the country, became pastor of the church upon its organization in in 1847 and served it until his death in 1887. During that time his sermons and writings attracted attention not only to himself, but to his church, which became one of the most famous in the country. Dr. Abbott, the second pastor, served from 1888 to 1899, and was succeeded by Dr. Hillis, the service of the three men in Plymouth church aggregating more than three-quarters of a century.

Dr. Hillis took an active interest in patriotic work especially after America entered the World War. When the late President Theodore Roosevelt was endeavoring to get permission to take a division to France he selected Dr. Hillis to go with him as divisional chaplain, a commission that Dr. Hillis greatly desired to accept. The clergyman delivered many sermons and addresses in which he scathingly denounced the Germans for their asserted atrocities and brutality. In order to get first-hand information he went to France in September 1917 and made a trip over the ground that the German armies had evacuated. Upon his return to the United States he preached a series of sermons on German atrocities, the marks of many of which he had seen. He said the former Kaiser and not the rest of the world, had caused the word Hun to be applied to the Germans. Dr. Hillis later published the sermons in a volume entitled "German Atrocities," and in the same year, 1918, put out another war volume, "The Blot on the Kaiser's Escutcheon." In 1915 he published his first war book, "Studies of the Great War."

Dr. Hillis was born at Magnolia, Iowa, September 2, 1858, the son of Samuel Ewing and Margaret Hester Hillis. He was graduated from Lake Forest University in 1884 and pursued his theological course at the McCormick Theological seminary, Chicago, from which he was graduated in 1887. The same year he was ordained in the Presbyterian ministry and filled pastorates at Peoria and Evanston, Ill., and the Central Church (independent) Chicago. He resigned from the last named church to accept the call from Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, in January 1899. He received the degree of D.D. from Northwestern University and L.H.D., from the Western Reserve University. In 1887 Dr. Hillis married Annie Louise Patrick of Marengo, Ill.

FONTAINE of Brussels

Beauty Specialist by appointment to Her Majesty, the Queen of the Belgians advocates this famous twice-a-day treatment to keep skin lovely

"The one way of ensuring that the skin is thoroughly cleansed of all impurities in the pores is the regular use twice daily of a really good soap—and in my experience the one soap to use is Palmolive."

G. Fontaine

15 Rue Ste. Gudule, Brussels

Monsieur Fontaine giving a facial treatment in his salon. Fontaine believes in the twice-a-day use of "le savon Palmolive", which, he says, is used with great success for facial massage in his establishment.

At 15 Rue Ste. Gudule, in the salon de beauté of Fontaine, proud possessor of warrants from the Queen of the Belgians and other titled women of distinction.

VISITORS to the beautiful city of Brussels often stop before a certain shop window, opposite the stately Cathedral, to note with interest several distinguished crests—one the seal of Her Majesty the Queen of The Belgians. In this shop Fontaine has acted as beauty advisor to lovely women of the European aristocracy. Here he has received, with pride, warrants from the Queen and from such dignitaries as Madame la Princesse Napoleon . . . proclaiming him official "Fourniseur", as was his father, Fontaine pere, since the year 1866.

Monsieur Fontaine works with a zealous devotion which has brought his name into international prominence as a beauty specialist. This season he is attracting much attention from Continental women of fashion because of a brilliantly unusual metallic coiffeur of his own design.

One of Fontaine's specialties is a facial massage for which he employs "le savon Palmolive qui rend a la peau la veloute", (Palmolive Soap, which makes the skin as smooth and soft as velvet.)

"The first step in beauty care"

"The first care of a beauty specialist," says M. Fontaine, "is to see that the skin is in a condition to respond to treatment in the Salon. Many complexions begin to lose their freshness and youthful suppleness long before their time for no other reason than that the skin is never allowed to breathe. For skins do breathe—through the pores. It follows therefore that if the pores are allowed to remain clogged up indefinitely with particles of powder, rouge, fine dust, etc., the delicate tissues must suffer and lose all their vitality.

"The one way of ensuring that the skin is thoroughly cleansed of all impurities in the pores, is the regular use twice daily of a really good soap—and in my experience the one soap to use is Palmolive. The value of palm and olive oils is well known—they are the first natural skin cleansers available and it is a mistake to suppose that the same thorough cleansing can be got by other means.

Therefore—Palmolive Soap!

"That is why I always insist that before my own preparations are applied, the skin must first be cleansed with Palmolive."

What Fontaine advocates, in Brussels, is recommended in London by such authorities as Madame Bertha Jacobson; in Paris, by Cavalieri, Madame Valentin le Brun, Payot, Massé, Vincent, Delord et Bion; in Vienna, by Pessl; in Berlin, by Elise Bock. In fact, every authority of consequence, all over the world, gives this same advice on the care of the skin: wash for beauty with Palmolive Soap. Massage the skin for two minutes with Palmolive lather; rinse, first with warm water, then with cold. That's all. Its simplicity is one reason why this is the most popular facial treatment in the world.

A priceless formula embodying the precious oils of palm and olive, famous since the days of Cleopatra for prolonging health and beauty.

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—While the Senate was in ...ssion of debate in which ...ions flew thick and fast, with ...or Dern as the central figure in the ...ah dam discussion, the House ...ed a report from its special ...mittee urging immediate and ...conditional signing of the six-...Colorado River compact. ...the battle continued Senator ...Republican, defended the ...r while Senator Patterson, ...Democrat, as heatedly came ...support of the Republicans. ...ity offered Senator Mus...Democrat, parried with Presi...Dern in the melee.

...committee bill introduced in ...e was a substitute for the ...Swing measure which pro...for six-State ratification only ...addition that a seven-State ...ld ratified. Thus the new ...measure drops all "emergency" clauses and would put Utah unconditionally and without reservation or moves by other States in the old six-State agreement.

Decision of the committee to sponsor the unconditional ratification measure was reached at a meeting Monday morning. Representative Hammond, Democrat, was the only member to hold out for further delay, while Chairman Louis J. Hother, Republican, David A. Herschl, Republican, S. M. Jorgensen, Republican; Archie M. Mellor, Republican; I. A. Smoot, Democrat, and Frank Eastman, Democrat, voted to bring the issue to the floor of the House for immediate action.

The committee measure was admittedly a move on the part of some members to pass the buck to the Senate. Representative Hammond, who recommended delay in his report to the House on the Santa Fe conference, remained firm in his stand that no legislative action should be taken at least until the final days of the session, while Representative Herschl and others admitted they wanted to get rid of it and let the Senate stand the pressure. The general opinion is that the House will take the same attitude and pass the bill on to the upper house when it comes up for a vote.

NEGOTIATIONS WAIT RETURN OF DONOVAN

SANTA FE (N. M.) Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Negotiations among California, Arizona and Nevada to effect a tri-State Colorado River compact were virtually at a standstill again today, while Col. William J. Donovan, assistant United States Attorney-General, was in Washington in conference with President-elect Hoover.

Commissioners from the various States, who are here either as participants in, or observers of the conference, said tonight they believe Col. Donovan will bring back with him word directly from Mr. Hoover regarding what the President-elect believes is a fair basis on which to negotiate. It is expected that Col. Donovan will travel back to Santa Fe by airplane so he can again assume the chairmanship of the conference either on Wednesday or Thursday. During his absence Francis C. Wilson, State Water Commissioner for New Mexico, is acting as chairman.

Commissioner Wilson announced tonight that purely informal discussions among the delegations here will be in order until Col. Donovan returns.

Residence of Arnold K. Fitzer at Beverly Hills, California, designed by Elmer D. Watson, well-known Los Angeles architects. At right, David J. Witmer.

From our own experience we should say that the use of Copper, Brass and Bronze in home construction proves a real economy."

THE great architects of the country are practically unanimous in urging the use of Copper, Brass and Bronze in home construction.

In commercial structures these rust-proof metals successfully check the huge losses due to rust. And in homes they can do an even greater service.

Genuine rust-proof materials may cost more than the corrodible kind. But in the long run they prove an economy. Albert J. Witmer, well known Los Angeles architect says:

"At their present low prices these rust-proof materials cost little more than the less desirable kind and practically everywhere that they are used they give trouble-free service for the life of the structure."

When you build, buy or remodel, insist on Copper, Brass and Bronze wherever possible. These rust-proof materials not only prove an economy in the end, but they also add to the resale value of the house.

Write our Building Service Department for additional information.

Combining their life-long service and their absolute protection against rust, Copper, Brass and Bronze are not expensive in the construction of small homes.

MILITARY RULES WILL GOVERN INAUGURAL AERIAL PAGEANT

[Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—All the rigors of military discipline will be imposed upon civilian pilots who come to the national capital to participate in the unique aerial parade in tribute to Herbert Hoover following his inauguration on March 4.

All of the flying is to be done from Bolling Field, the local army air corps post, and visiting flyers will be required to submit to army regulations to prevent accidents. Civilian pilots will be required to register upon landing and may not fly during the period from March 2 to and including March 5, without obtaining a clearance from the operations officer at the field.

Preliminary registrations have been received from thirty-five civilian pilots and it is expected that many more will come without the formality of giving advance notice. The Army and Navy will be represented by more than forty service planes of all types and by five lighter-than-air craft, including the navy dirigible, Los Angeles.

HOUSE PASSES RECLAMATION BILLS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—The House today passed a resolution to continue for one year the prohibition of issuing licenses affecting the Colorado River or any of its tributaries except the Gila River until the Boulder Canyon act goes into effect.

The House also passed a bill to authorize employment of five engineers, geologists and economists for consultation on preparing plans for Boulder dam, Colorado, Avalon dam, New Mexico, and to aid in the location of dams and dam sites on the Columbus basin and other reclamation projects. Both measures now go to the President.

PAVING BILL ADOPTED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—The Douglas bill to authorize the expenditure of $70,000 for the paving of International street at Nogales, Ariz., was passed today by the House. The measure now goes to the Senate.

HOPES RECEDE FOR NOMINEES

Confirmation of President's Appointees Doubtful

Senate Withholds Action on Several Under Fire

Lenroot's Business Clients Sticker With Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Hope virtually was abandoned today by Senate leaders of obtaining confirmation of any of several nominations facing contests. Unless acted upon at this session the nominations die.

The nominations under fire and awaiting a change for Senate consideration include those of Irvine L. Lenroot, a former Wisconsin Senator, to be a member of the Court of Customs Appeals; Henry Glassie, a former Tariff Commissioner, to be a judge of the District of Columbia Supreme Court, and Pat Neff, former Governor of Texas, to be a member of the Railway Board of Mediation. The nominations of Arthur Batcheller of Massachusetts and Cyril M. Jansky of Minnesota to be members of the Radio Commission also are pending.

After an all-day session the Senate Judiciary Committee failed to reach a decision on the nominations of Lenroot and Glassie and their cases went over until tomorrow.

The committee did finally give a favorable report on the nomination of Forest Northcutt to be District Attorney in Colorado. This nomination was opposed by Senator Waterman and supported by Senator Phipps, both Republicans of that State.

The discussion over Lenroot's nomination revolved about his employment at attorney a year ago for the public utility power companies at the time of their opposition to the Walsh resolution for an inquiry into the companies and also about his visit to Albert Fall, former Secretary of the Interior, while Fall was under investigation for the Teapot Dome lease.

Lenroot was chairman of the Senate Lands Committee which was investigating Fall at the time he and Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, called on Fall at a hotel here. Lenroot has given statements several times that he called upon Mr. Fall because he was ill and to arrange for the former Secretary's appearance before the committee.

FIGHT ON VARE SEAT HELD UP

Senators Would Wait for His Recovery

Action on Denial Move May Not be Pressed

Reed Declares Distaste for Attacking Sick Man

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Immediate denial of a seat to Senator-elect Vare of Pennsylvania was proposed in the Senate today upon the presentation of the investigating committee's report against him. However, it seemed likely tonight that a decision would be deferred until next session awaiting the recovery from illness of the Pennsylvanian.

Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, offered the resolution to deny Vare his seat on the basis of the investigating committee's report. The Nebraskan, however, said tonight he had some doubts as to whether he would press the resolution to a vote now on account of Vare's illness. He will announce his decision probably tomorrow at the time the resolution comes before the Senate.

REED HOLDS BACK

Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, the chairman of the committee which reported against seating Vare on account of his expenditures in the campaign and because of charges of fraud in his election, told the Senate "I never was able to hit a boy when he was down in my youthful combats and I just can't do it now."

If a resolution to adopt the committee's report were offered Reed said he would not insist upon the presentation of such a measure.

SENATE MAY WAIT

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, offered the resolution for Senator Norris as the Missourian concluded his report. But Robinson, too, stated that he had "no disposition to press for a conclusion" the case against Vare while he is unable to defend himself.

The Senate today was granted a Supreme Court review of its authority to arrest Sheriff Thomas E. Cunningham of Philadelphia, who refused to answer questions asked by the committee investigating the election of Vare.

ISSUES FORMED ON REPARATIONS

German Debt Problem Cut to Three Questions

Subcommittees Named to Work Out Solutions

Perkins, Young's Alternate, Heads One Division

PARIS, Feb. 25. (AP)—The reparations conference today divided the present stage of its work into three elements and turned each over to a subcommittee. No plenary session of the full committee likely will be held again before next Monday.

True to their previous course, the experts refrained today from mentioning any amount which Germany may be called on to pay annually. Neither was there any discussion of the number of these payments.

THE THREE ELEMENTS

The three elements into which the discussion has been divided are how much can Germany pay yearly in cash without any sort of transfer protection; how much can she pay in cash with limited protection; what payments can she make by deliveries in kind.

Lord Revelstoke, British banker, heads the subcommittee which deals with the first of these questions. It includes the problem of transforming the annuities into negotiable commercial bonds.

Sir Josiah Stamp, also of Great Britain, is chairman of the second subcommittee. It is to find a method of limited protection such as some sort of foreign committee which the German Treasury could consult if the necessity arose.

PERKINS PUT TO WORK

Mr. Perkins, who is alternate for Mr. Young, is chairman of the third division. He sat with the full committee for the first time this morning and was put to work immediately because of his experience with deliveries in kind while he was an American observer here. All three subcommittees are to report at the same time.

The impression in reparations circles tonight is that the subcommittee will find that Germany, without protective clause, can transfer an amount sufficient to guarantee yearly interest on the proposed railroad and industrial bonds. These would total 16,000,000,000,000 marks, or approximately $4,000,000,000, at 5 per cent. This total would call for annual payments of around $300,000,000.

MAN PROVES STRANGE CASE

J. H. Meredith Declares He is Dangerous Maniac and Asks State to Put Him in Hospital for Insane

VISALIA, Feb. 25.—Apparently sane, but insisting that he in reality is a dangerous maniac, J. H. Meredith, 60 years of age, of Lindsay, who was taken from the County Jail here to the Hospital for the Insane at Stockton, appeared glad to "get home," according to Sheriff R. L. Hill. Meredith had been at Stockton before and will pay his own expenses while there.

Little is known of him here and this is the first time in the experiences of the attaches of the Tulare county District-Attorney's office that a man has brought such charges against himself.

Meredith had asked to go to the State institution at Napa, but following examination here was taken to Stockton. He told officers that he had a violent attack of insanity several years ago and feared he was about to have another. He declared he had had such attacks more than once and that during them he was possessed of a homicidal mania and feared that if at large when such an attack seized him he might do serious harm to someone. He insisted that two officers accompany him on the trip from Lindsay to the County Jail here. Two officers acted as his escort but the drive was made peacefully and he showed no signs of abnormality when brought here.

About a year ago Meredith came to Lindsay from the northern part of the State to stay with the R. A. Holcomb family, whom he had known for some time. Holcomb reluctantly signed an insanity complaint at Meredith's request.

Meredith is said to be well to do and said he was willing and able to repay the State for any expense incurred.

EXTRA SESSION DATE STUDIED

Congress to Meet Between April 10 and 20

Longworth Says Activities Can be Restricted

Donovan Returns from West for Conferences

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—President-elect Hoover was informed by Speaker Longworth today that in all probability it would not be possible to convene Congress in special session before April 10. The Speaker thought, however, that once convened its activities could be restricted to farm relief and to revision of the tariff.

The President-elect also conferred with William J. Donovan, assistant Attorney-General, who returned to Washington from Santa Fe, N. M., especially for the interview. Donovan has been mentioned frequently as a likely selection for Secretary of War.

SESSION DATE

Mr. Longworth said the Ways and Means Committee of the House would hold a meeting Saturday to take stock of the situation and determine as accurately as possible the date on which a tariff-revision measure would be ready for the consideration of Congress. The Speaker said that, although it did not seem that Congress could be convened before April 10, the opening certainly would not be later than April 20.

Further, the Speaker said, he and a majority of the Republican membership of the Ways and Means Committee, including Chairman Hawley, were agreed upon the advisability of limiting tariff-schedule revision to agricultural items, so as to equalize protection for agriculture and industry. He added that only those industrial schedules for which it could be proved that world conditions had changed since the last tariff bill was enacted were to be taken up.

"I want the measure to be an amendment to the existing Tariff Act," he said, "and not a new tariff bill." He added that therefore any move for the general increase in industrial schedules would be opposed.

Mr. Donovan arrived in Washington this morning from Santa Fe, where he has been engaged as a member of the Rio Grande commission and chairman of the Boulder dam conference. He called immediately on the President-elect. It was indicated he would return to New Mexico soon and that he would have further conferences with Mr. Hoover before then.

Mr. Donovan was one of Mr. Hoover's closest campaign counselors and had been discussed for the Attorney-Generalship. Opposition, however, has been reported to have developed to his selection for that post and that this had led Mr. Hoover to consider him for Secretary of War.

W. R. Castle, Jr., assistant Secretary of State, and the department's expert on European affairs, had an engagement with the President-elect. The appointment of Mr. Castle to the undersecretaryship of State to succeed Reuben Clark of Utah has been suggested in some quarters.

CAMPBELL GOES TO AID FARM RELIEF WORK

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—After conferences today with President-elect Hoover and Chairman Work of the Republican National Committee, Thomas D. Campbell of Hardin, Mont., started west today to arrange his affairs so he can assist the new administration in the farm-relief legislation to be enacted at the special session of Congress to be called April 15.

Mr. Campbell did a great deal in drafting the agricultural planks of the Republican National Convention at Kansas City and it is understood here that he will be of greater use in shaping legislation here in the new administration than he would be as head of the Agricultural Department of the Federal government.

If the new farm legislation provides for a general board for placing the farmer of America on an equal footing with commerce and industry it is possible that Mr. Campbell will be chairman of such a commission. At least the impression gained by his friends was that he would return to Washington at an early date to be of such assistance as he can to the new President in obtaining a new farm-relief bill that will stabilize the prices of the three great farm crops of the United States—wheat, corn and cotton.

PALO ALTO SPECIAL TO CAPITAL LEAVES TODAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Blaring party workers and well-wishers, the ten-car special train which has been named the Palo Alto-Hoover Inaugural Special, will leave this city at 7:55 a.m. tomorrow, en route to Washington for the ceremonies March 4, which will establish Herbert Hoover in office as President of the United States. The train will stop at 8:35 a.m. at Palo Alto to take aboard the group from Hoover's home town and then will continue to Los Angeles and thence east over the southern route.

The Palo Alto special is one of two trains which will carry Californians to see the first Californian inducted into the nation's highest office, the other going directly from Los Angeles via Salt Lake City and Chicago.

The first stop after leaving Los Angeles is scheduled for San Antonio, where a dinner-dance is in store for the party by the Chamber of Commerce, and executives of the aviation field there. At New Orleans, the Texas delegation of 200 will be hosts to the Californians at luncheon and all will join in a French-quarter dinner in the evening.

PALO ALTO PLANT LICENSED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—The Radio Commission today granted the application of the Federal Telegraph Company to erect an experimental station at Palo Alto, Cal., and use additional experimental frequencies.

HOME READY FOR COOLIDGE

Modest Residence at Northampton Scrubbed Up; Closest Friend Does Not Know Plans

NORTHAMPTON (Mass.) Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Released from his Presidential duties, Calvin Coolidge, private citizen, will come home on March 4. His modest white home, scrubbed and polished until its interior shines, is waiting to receive him. So also are the people of Northampton from the Mayor to the firemen, who have shined their apparatus in the event they form a unit in the parade now planned.

The President thus far has thrown a damper on an ambitious program planned by the Chamber of Commerce and the city government. The factories and schools were to close and to march and there was to be a city holiday. But Mr. Coolidge is averse to any celebration because of the serious condition of his wife's mother, Mrs. Lemira Goodhue, at a hospital here.

BANQUETS PLANNED

The city is going ahead, however, planning banquets and receptions, though many realize that it is doubtful if Mr. Coolidge will attend them.

In search of information regarding Mr. Coolidge's plans, a reporter called upon Ralph Hemenway, upon whose law office door are painted the words, "Ralph Wilbur Hemenway and Calvin Coolidge, attorneys at law."

Hemenway declares, "There are only two men in this world who know what Calvin Coolidge is going to do when he quits the Presidency, and he's both of them. Don't you go on believing these stories you hear about Calvin taking a job.

WILL NOT PRACTICE LAW

"I've been with Mr. Coolidge a good many years before he went to the White House, and I didn't know any more about his plans for the future than I do now.

"However, you can rest assured that he never will practice law again. I think he's got out of practice and something else will take his attention now. Lord knows he's got enough offers. Seems to me that whatever he does will be his own business. He'll let the public know when the time comes as to what he intends to do."

Nine Cardinal Seats Vacant on Death of Vico

ROME, Feb. 25. (AP)—Death of Cardinal Vico, aged prefect of the Sacred Congregation of Rites, early this morning leaves the college of cardinals with twenty-eight Italians and thirty-three foreigners—the greatest discrepancy since the fourteenth century.

Nine seats are to be filled and in view of this latest loss to the college there is new talk this morning of a possible secret consistory on March 18 to be followed by a public consistory March 21 at which some selections for the vacancies might be made.

It is thought that if new cardinals are named they will not exceed five in number, as custom is to leave about four vacancies for possible creations by a succeeding Pope.

ISLAND TARIFF MOVE OPPOSED

Change in Philippine Trade Relations Under Fire

Attacks Centered on Farm Group's Proposals

Arguments Given at Hearing of House Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Strenuous opposition to a disturbance of the existing reciprocal free trade relations between the United States and the Philippines was voiced today before the House Ways and Means Committee at the opening of hearings on the administrative provisions of the tariff act.

The present law recognizes the legal right to impose duties against Philippine imports but exempts all island products from tariffs under a separate clause permitting free entry of the products where they contain not more than 20 per cent of foreign materials.

No witness before the committee today questioned the legal right to levy duties upon or restrict importation of certain Philippine products. Opposition, however, was voiced against farm group proposals for tariffs on the islands' copra and cocoanut oil and against the Timberlake resolution to restrict Philippine sugar shipments to this country as an aid to western sugar-beet growers. Copra is admitted free from all countries while cocoanut oil is dutiable but free from the islands.

Jorge Schneevoigt dirigirá la orquesta Filarmónica en el Coliseo en la aurora del día de Pascua de Resurrección, que cae el 31 del mes entrante. Con ésta, será el sexto año que se repite el acto, debido a la cortesía de W. A. Clark, Jr. La ceremonia estará a cargo de la orquesta y de la Asociación de Progreso Comunal. El Cadáver de la Célebre Lucy Banning Ota Será Traído Aquí

Se espera que llegue a Los Angeles el próximo 16 del entrante, el cadáver de Lucía Banning Ota, que en un tiempo fuera una de las mujeres más guapas de esta ciudad. Ayer se recibió un telegrama del señor Ota, que es japonés, diciendo que salían de Italia en el vapor Le Conte Grande el día 1 de marzo. Llegarán a Nueva York el 11, y de ahí traerá el atribulado esposo a esta ciudad, el cadáver de su esposa. Ambos estaban pasando una temporada en Florencia cuando de pronto la señora enfermó de pneumonía y falleció incontinenti. Se sabe que la señora deja en su testamento al marido, de único heredero de una fortuna de medio millón de dólares. Tenía cincuenta y tres años al morir, y no hace mucho que había contraído matrimonio con el doctor Ota. El viaje a Italia, que fué el último de su vida, en realidad era un viaje de bodas; probablemente el cuarto, pues fue casada cuatro veces.

Tragedia Inesperada en un Joven Hogar Mexicano

En el centro de socorros de Georgia hubo ayer una escena tristísima. Dos jóvenes esposos, más o menos de diez y nueve a veinte años cada uno, lloraban desconsolados la pérdida de su primer hijito, un niño de 2 años y medio, que murió por haberse ahogado con sus propias ropas de cama, mientras dormía. Los pobres muchachos tuvieron que ser conducidos por la policía, a su casa. El cuerpo del niño fue enviado a la Morgue, para su autopsia.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. (AP)—Twenty-five occupants of a South Side apartment building ran to the street early today when a bomb exploded in the doorway of a restaurant on the ground floor. Windows were shattered in near-by buildings and damage exceeded $2000.

The restaurant owner, Mrs. Margaret Shepard, could advance no motive for the attack. It is the eleventh bombing of the year.

PHOENIX HOSIERY

To some men, a pair of socks is simply a pair of socks. But several million American men have learned there is as much difference in hosiery as there is in race horses or automobiles. When these men buy hosiery they first ask to see Phoenix. They have learned from experience that Phoenix means smartness and good taste in the matter of color and pattern, and "long-mileage" in the matter of wear. To specify Phoenix hose is a very easy way of showing good judgment.

AMENDMENT OFFERED ON JUDGE BILL

Change Would Prevent Question on Prohibiting Legal Practice by Bench

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25. (AP)—There will be no quibbling over the phraseology of a constitutional section prohibiting judges from practicing law while on the bench if the Assembly passes an amendment introduced today by Assemblyman Clowdsley of Stockton.

The present law states that no judge of a record court shall practice law in court. Although it is believed that the authors of this section meant the term "court" to refer to a jurist's term of office, question has arisen since opening of impeachment proceedings against Judge Hardy of Los Angeles.

Clowdsley's amendment would make the section read "in or out of court." He intends that this shall satisfy those who would interpret the language "in court" literally.

Gov. Young today requested Atty.-Gen. Webb to give him an opinion whether the Governor or the State Judicial Council would be required to appoint a temporary successor to Judge Hardy of Los Angeles after articles of impeachment against Hardy are filed with the Senate later this week.

Dickey Charges Denied Hearing

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—The Supreme Court today refused to review the controversy arising out of the sale of the Kansas City Star newspaper properties, owned by the late William Rockhill Nelson, to the Kansas City Star Company in 1926.

A scrutiny of the accepted bid of Irwin R. Kirkwood and associates for the property was asked by Walter S. Dickey, Kansas City publisher, who said the trustees "conspired and colluded" with the bidders in accepting a price of $11,000,000, of which $2,500,000 was in cash.

Dickey charged that the bid "was not at the best price and on the best terms obtainable to the estate," and therefore did not conform with the last wishes of the publisher.

Cultists Await Resurrection

DENVER, Feb. 25. (AP)—Joshua Sykes, head of the religious cult which knew him as "Jehovah" and "Emanuel Yaheh," died last night.

His followers believed him the Messiah and they expect he will "arise again on the third day."

Members of the cult appeared before the Coroner today and asked permission to hold the body three days.

SEVENTEEN SOUGHT FOR MASSACRE

Police of Chicago Given Names of Men Declared Killers of Seven in Garage

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Official request was made tonight for the arrest of seventeen men in connection with the murder of seven men on the 14th inst. at 2122 North Clark street. While this order to the entire police department which bore the signature of Deputy Commissioner John P. Stege was specific in naming the men wanted it by no means concludes the investigation of the Moran gang massacre, it is admitted.

Leading the list of names is that of Claude Maddux, alias Johnny Moore, believed to have planned the crime and to have arranged to have former St. Louis gunmen participate in it. The others had various gang connections but from the tenure of the order it is inferred that the North-avenue gang, aided by the gunmen of other factions, is held responsible for the crime, on the basis of information now in the possession of the investigators.

Woman Struck by Train Dies

Death was attributed to shock and her advanced age. While several persons a block distant witnessed the accident the woman was not seen by members of the train crew.

LARGER SCHOOL COSTS DEFENDED

National Educators Open Meeting in Ohio

Backers of Economy Moves Called Gold Greedy

Crest of Rush to Campus Believed Near

CLEVELAND, Feb. 25. (AP)—Educators of national reputation united here today to defend the constantly increasing expenditures for public instruction and to attack the forces that stand in the way of school betterment.

The attack was led by Frank D. Boynton of Ithaca, N. Y., president of the department of superintendence of the National Education Association in the annual convention here. Those behind the movement to curtail school expenditures are "gold greedy go-getters who have always been ready to rob childhood of its birthright, to coin it into coupons in order that, with unconscious irony, they might build monuments to themselves on college campuses," Boynton said.

He declared he would object to curtailment in the expenditure for education except where it can be shown to be a wise economy that can be affected without abridging educational opportunity for every one.

The educators did not overlook the necessity for greater economies, however. Joseph M. Gwynn, Superintendent of Schools, San Francisco, urged building of new schools to replace old inadequate buildings. Possible means of cutting building costs were pointed out by Roy R. Roudebush, assistant Superintendent of Schools, Indianapolis. He recommended utilization of waste spaces, use of classrooms all day and eliminating unnecessary expenditure for equipment.

The people of the United States are spending only 2.68 per cent of their income for education, George D. Strayer, professor of education, teachers' college, Columbia University, told the superintendents. "In view of the fact that this nation is able to save 15 per cent of its income, we need not be anxious concerning the school expenditure," he declared.

Dr. Earl Hudelson of the University of Minnesota told members of the American Educational Research Committee that a nation-wide survey of the relative efficiency of large and small classes in colleges has shown many definite advantages for the large classes and no very material advantage for the smaller classes.

Dr. Hudelson also told the committee that the "crest of the wave" of attendance in colleges and universities was in sight, if it had not already been reached.

RHEUMATISM RECIPE

Ex-Sergeant Paul Case, Room 241 Quigg Building, Brockton, Mass., states that while serving with the American Army in France he obtained a prescription that thousands of Rheumatic sufferers have used with gratifying results. He says the prescription cost him nothing, so he asks nothing for it, but will send it to any one who writes him.—(Advertisement.

Flat Denial Made in Paris That France Has Made Secret Military Treaty With Belgium

PARIS, Feb. 25. (AP)—The so-called Franco-Belgian document published by the Utrecht Dagblad and in German newspapers purporting to show a secret military accord between Belgium and France was described tonight as a gross forgery in circles close to French officialdom.

In addition, a semiofficial note was made public by the Havas News Agency denying that any secret military treaty has been signed between France and Belgium. The note stated that the two countries signed an accord in 1920 implying an entente between the two general staffs, but that this accord was not secret, was registered with the League of Nations and was published by the League two years ago.

Available references show that a military convention was concluded in August, 1920, between Belgium and France after full consultation between the respective general staffs. The two governments informed the League of Nations in November, 1920, that this accord had been completed and that it was of purely defensive character. No details were disclosed.

The accord was to come into force only in case of unjustified aggression on the part of Germany and stipulated formally that each of the signatory governments should decide finally in each case whether it was to be applied.

In French circles it is stated that the accord of 1920 not only was ratified openly by both the Belgian and French parliaments, but was registered with the League of Nations, and was of a purely defensive character in conformity with the spirit and letter of the Kellogg Pact signed last year pledging the two nations' armed forces in defense "against unprovoked attack on the part of Germany."

It is flatly denied that any accord since has been signed between Belgium and France and it is insisted that no military agreement of any sort has been entered upon by France with any country since the Locarno treaty.

HUNT FOLLOWS BANK HOLD-UPS

Great Search for Suspects in Two Robberies Futile

One Bandit Obtains $1000 by Presenting Threat

Another Gets $2500 While His Aide Waits Outside

Fifty detective lieutenants picked from Central Georgia and Newton-street divisions, and armed with sawed-off shotguns, tear bombs and several submachine guns, searched rooming-houses, stores, alleys and parking lots throughout a large portion of the southeastern section of the city yesterday afternoon for the bandits who earlier in the day held up and robbed employees of the Los Angeles-First National Bank at Pico street and Grand avenue and the Bank of America branch at Washington Boulevard and Western avenue.

The armed drive, similar to one used years ago in a city-wide endeavor to capture Little Phil Alguin, slayer of Detective Sergeant Fitzgerald, was carried out under the personal direction of Chief of Detectives Cline and Captains of Detectives Cahill and Slaten. But the spectacular effort proved fruitless. No trace was found other than that the bandit who got away with $1000 from the First National Bank was driven to Sixteenth street and Maple avenue in a taxicab after the robbery.

SEARCH STARTED

It was this circumstance, thought at first to be a hot clew, which started the wide search. The detectives found Ben Cohen, driver for the Peerless Cab Company, who said he picked up a fare at Ninth and Figueroa streets, drove him to Pico and Grand, and later left him at Sixteenth and Maple, not knowing that the man had held up the bank en route.

Both robberies were perpetrated in a similar fashion. At the First National Bank the bandit quietly entered the establishment, which was full of customers at the time, and presented a note to Elmer J. Young, teller, demanding: "Hand over the money or you will be dead."

At the bottom of the inscription was a drawn picture of a skeleton. The bandit, Young stated, held a revolver concealed in his right-hand coat pocket. After pocketing the money the bandit left the bank unsuspected by any other persons present, got into the waiting cab and was driven away.

TWO IN ROBBERY

At the Bank of America two men took part in the robbery. One remained at the wheel of an old touring car a short distance down the street from the institution while the other entered and presented a note to A. McFadden, manager. The note read:

"I'll blow you to hell if you don't turn over $5000. Make it in tens and twenties."

McFadden counted out $2500, it is reported, and handed the money to the bandit. The latter also had a gun concealed in a coat pocket and left as did the bandit in the first hold-up. The robberies were about ten minutes apart.

In the Bank of America with McFadden at the time were Mrs. Iva Coldwell, stenographer; E. D. Bell and George Dumovich, tellers, and six customers, whose names were not obtained by the police.

FITTS SEEKS GRAND JURY

District Attorney Will Hasten Impaneling of New Body for Further Bribery Inquiry

Dist.-Atty. Fitts will request within the next few days that a new grand jury for 1929 be impaneled in order to lay before it new evidence of bribery plots in Los Angeles.

That much was ascertained definitely yesterday when Fitts admitted that he will ask for a new grand jury several weeks before the request was expected. The 1928 grand jury ceased to function last week.

Fitts said that probably the first matter to be brought before the new jurors will be evidence of asserted bribery conspiracy. Although the District Attorney refused to go into detail, it generally is understood that the new evidence is based on the confession of Ben Getzoff, Spring-street tailor convicted with former Dist-Atty. Keyes and E. J. Rosenberg who were found guilty of giving and receiving bribes to "fix" cases for defendants in the Julian Petroleum cases.

Since his conviction Getzoff, Fitts revealed, told a complete story of the bribery deals in the Julian and other cases and named seven men heretofore not involved. Since the confession the District Attorney's staff of investigators, under Lucien Wheeler, have been busy obtaining evidence to corroborate Getzoff's story.

While the District Attorney was going ahead with plans for further prosecutions another step in the fight of Keyes and Rosenberg for a new trial was taken yesterday when Superior Judge Shaw ordered court reporters to furnish the Appellate Court with a transcript of the Keyes trial. This is one of the usual steps when an appeal to a higher court has been filed.

AYDELOTTE ON TRIAL IN FUNDS CASE

Suspect Faces Charges of Defrauding Girl in Estate Settlement of $7661

Charged with defrauding Virginia Hiddleson out of $7661, William M. Aydelotte, an attorney, went on trial yesterday before Judge Bishop on an indictment accusing him of grand theft.

Aydelotte is said to have obtained the money from the girl through the settlement of an estate case in which she was an heir.

The case was transferred to Judge Bishop's court for trial after the defense had filed an affidavit expressing the belief that Judge Doran, before whom the case was originally set, was prejudiced, because of his previous action of raising Aydelotte's bail and remanding him to the County Jail hospital for treatment. Aydelotte had obtained several continuances on the ground he was ill.

Judge Doran denied any prejudice in the case, but consented to a transfer of the case to Judge Bishop's court. Judge Bishop is trying the case without a jury.

COAST CHAIN OF BAKERIES GAINS LINKS

Van de Kamp Purchases Chatterton Stores and Plant in Seattle

The first step toward operating large groups of their stores in all the important cities on the Pacific Coast was taken yesterday by Van de Kamp's Holland Dutch Bakers, Inc., when they purchased the Chatterton system of bakeries in Seattle, the leading bakery chain in Washington.

The transaction involves an investment of approximately $250,000 and adds twenty-six more stores to the rapidly expanding Van de Kamp system, together with a thoroughly equipped modern baking plant. Important production economies are expected to be effected because of the increased volume resulting from the consolidation.

The Chatterton system of bakeries produced merchandise comparable in quality to that baked by Van de Kamp's, and has enjoyed a consistent growth during eleven years of operation. The Chatterton baking kitchens, recently completed, have a capacity of more than $1,000,000 worth of products a year.

POLICE COMMISSION TO HEAR CITATIONS

Two citations are to be heard today by the Police Commission. One is to show cause why the license of Curtis & Fraser, operators of a massage parlor at 1173 West Eighth street, should not be revoked on the charge of violating the regulations as to sex of the patient and operator, and the other is to investigate whether M. Weinstein, jeweler in the Title Guarantee Building has violated police regulations for second-hand dealers.

The finest and smartest cars on the streets of the world

It is a very tangible value in Cadillac-La Salle that all over the world Cadillac-La Salle ownership carries with it the unquestioned admission that the owner is driving the very finest motor cars which his highest ambition can attain.

Other cars have sought in vain to achieve the high social prestige that has been inseparably Cadillac's for a generation. But you have only to pause where the smartest people congregate, you have only to check the social register, and you will inevitably discover a preponderance of Cadillacs and La Salles.

And the simple bald fact about this is that men and women who know motor cars know too that if they want a car to ride and drive as Cadillac-La Salle ride and drive they must eliminate everything else from consideration.

For the truth of all truths about Cadillac-La Salle, and something that you know full well, is just this: it is because of inherent and surpassing excellence that there is no substitute for the peerless possession and prestige of a Cadillac-La Salle car.

Where else—in all the world—will you find the same measure of comfort, of riding and driving ease?—where else such vital provisions for safety and freedom of mind?

The Cadillac-La Salle Syncro-Mesh Silent-Shift Transmission, for example, was designed and perfected specifically for the highest degree of control in all driving conditions. A vital essential in time of emergency, this transmission permits lightning-like shifting of gears with a finger-touch, at any speed, without pausing in neutral. It is quiet, simple, positive and effortless in operation and removes even the faintest suggestion of clashing gears.

The sense of security inspired by the Cadillac-La Salle Duplex-Mechanical System of Four-Wheel Brakes will prove a decidedly new motoring experience. Though these new brakes are amazingly powerful and positive in action, slight effort is required to operate them. Just a touch of the toe on the brake pedal and they respond instantaneously.

Cadillac-La Salle Security-Plate Glass with which Cadillac-La Salle windows, doors and windshields are equipped, is the highest quality, perfect-vision plate glass. It remains intact in the event of collision or if struck by stones flung up from the wheels of passing cars—so that the Cadillac-La Salle owner may rid his mind of any concern about being injured by flying glass fragments.

Included in the present Cadillac-La Salle line are twenty-three refreshingly beautiful Fisher bodies and fifteen exclusive and luxurious custom models, Fleetwood designed and Fleetwood built, exemplifying the very last word in chic, smartness and luxury.

La Salle is priced from $2295 to $2875; Cadillac, from $3295 to $3995; Fleetwoods up to $7000—all prices f.o.b. Detroit. Cadillac-La Salle dealers welcome business on the General Motors Deferred Payment Plan. Enjoy the car now and pay out of income.

FOLKLORE AND JAZZ FEATURE

Friday Morning Club Lists Both on March Schedule

Members Also Slated for Other Notable Offerings

Dr. F. W. Roman Addresses Soroptimists Today

BY MYRA NYE

A young woman will present plays and old folklore in a program for the Friday Morning Club in March and a young man will interpret the jazz age. The young man will discuss the essence of the jazz period and show wherein it differs from the past, it was announced yesterday.

The two young persons are Miss Sydney Thompson and John V. A. Weaver. Miss Thompson is a Vassar graduate and a formed pupil of Yvette Guilbert. As a dramatist she has met with success both in this country and in England. She will give an entertainment in costume on Friday.

As poet, playwright and critic, Mr. Weaver is counted as one of the leading figures in the younger generation movement in literature. His first book of poems now is in its thirteenth edition, his second is in its fourth and his latest work bids fair to eclipse the others. "Interpreters of the Jazz Age by One of Them," is the subject of his address for March 15, next.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Other highlights of the March program for this club are: Hoover inaugural bridge luncheon and fashion show, March 4; Public Affairs Day, March 5, when the affairs to be discussed are the President's Cabinet, Mussolini and the Vatican and pending State legislation.

Sir Herbert Brown Ames, financial director of the League of Nations, from 1919 to 1926, who also is an author, will address the club on Friday, March 22, on "Changing Spirit of Europe."

The last Friday of the month the morning program will be given by Alfred Kastner's harp ensemble with Mrs. Ernest K. Foster presiding at a luncheon at which past presidents of the club will be guests of honor.

ENGAGEMENT CANCELED

Roy Chapman Andrews, the explorer, yesterday cancelled his engagement for an appearance on March 3, when he was to have spoken on: "Lifting the Veil from Mysterious Mongolia." Because of the unsettled conditions in China Mr. Andrews made known his plans to take the first available ship to the Orient.

SOROPTIMISTS

Dr. Frederick W. Roman will address the Soroptimists' meeting today at the luncheon hour in the Music Room of the Biltmore on "Problems Confronting the New Congress." Amelia F. Johnson will preside and the hostesses for the hour are: Elizabeth Tomlinson, Lulu E. Eckles and Esther N. Buttell. An attendance prize will be presented by Annie L. Colburn.

EUTERPE JUNIORS

Organization of the Euterpe Juniors was completed at a tea given Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alexander Anderson in Courtney avenue, Hollywood. Mrs. Anderson, who is first vice-president of the Euterpe Opera Reading Club, has been made chairman of the junior advisory committee and serving with her are Mrs. William Kirtley Chambers and Mrs. Esther Von Trotha Swallow.

Misses Alice and Marjorie Anderson assisted their mother at the affair. The former heads the list on the charter roll of the new junior group. Mrs. Elmer Mansfield, Mrs. Hector Geiger, Mrs. Daisy B. Coats and other members of the board of directors poured and assisted about the rooms.

At the February meeting of the senior club today at 10 a.m. at the Ebell auditorium the new junior members will attend for the first time. The executives of the Wa Wan Club also will be honor guests of the club at this meeting.

Richard Wagner's opera "Lohengrin," which is included in the Chicago Opera Company's repertoire for presentation here in March, is to be studied under the direction of Roland Paul. Ruth Basden, Lenore Ivey, Frederick Scott, Belvilie Avery and Gage Christopher will sing the leading roles. As an added feature of the representation the Madrigal Octette has been engaged for the morning. This group includes Pearl Berry Boyd, Mary Teitsworth, Nellie Colburn Walker, Thelma Green, Annina Mueller, Clara Robbins, Cornelia Glover and Elizabeth Bihl. Sol Cohen, violinist; Robert Alter, 'cellist, and Florence Joy, pianist, will assist Mr. Paul with orchestral music.

OPERA AND FINE ARTS

A colonial dinner with cherry pie as the appropriate dessert featured the Los Angeles Opera and Fine Arts Club's celebration of Washington's Birthday Friday evening at Council House on Loma Drive.

The appointments for the affair were carried out in the patriotic note, rows of alternating candles in red and blue, flanked by bowls of scarlet geraniums, decorating the long tables. Many of the members appeared in colonial costumes.

Kenneth Macgowan, author and dramatic critic, who is in Los Angeles in the interest of the little-theater movement for the Carnegie Foundation, was introduced by the president, Edward Langley, as the speaker of the evening. Mr. Macgowan, a personal friend of Eugene O'Neill, discussed the life and works of the American playwright.

Vocal numbers were contributed by Beatrice Huntley, soprano, assisted at the piano by Mrs. Ruth Brady. A group of the Ruth Helen Davis Players, directed by Dot Baker, presented a three-act comedy entitled "Billy's Bungalow," by Eleanor Maud Crane. Mrs. Clinton Dille was in charge of the program.

A Charles Dickens program will be given by the club March 22, next, when the members will appear in costumes representing Dickens characters, according to announcement of Caroline B. Eager, who has charge of the arrangements. At the meeting of March 8, a sketch entitled "Which Is Which?" will be given and paintings by Edward Langley will be exhibited.

More than 500 Los Angeles business executives and industrial leaders yesterday were guests of Capt. Yusen Kaisha, Japanese skipper of the steamer Tenyo Maru, anchored in Los Angeles Harbor.

According to Faye G. Bennison, president of the Southern Glass Company, the occasion was a banquet on board ship given to Los Angeles industrialists for the furtherance of amicable trades relation with Japan. Bennison is chairman of the foreign trade relations committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

TWO DENY SPONSORING OF DR. DYER

Ministers Say Use of Their Names in Council Report Unauthorized

Charges that their names had been used without authority as members of an ecclesiastical council which last Sunday is asserted to have sponsored a move to re-establish Dr. Frank Dyer as a Congregationalist minister, were made yesterday by Dr. William E. Roberts and J. H. Batten, prominent churchmen.

Both Dr. Roberts and Mr. Batten asserted they were not present at the meeting held at which a council appointed by Dr. Dyer passed on the merits of his fight to be restored to his previous standing in Congregational church affairs. At a meeting of the Ministerial Association at the First Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday Dr. Roberts said:

"I attended only one session of the council and when the proposition of Dr. Dyer's reinstatement came up, I opposed it. I cannot understand why my name was given to the press as a member of the council that voted to recognize Dr. Dyer as a member of the Congregational Church."

Mr. Batten was equally emphatic in his assertion that he had no part in the asserted council's actions and had attended the first meeting some time ago, but withdrew because he objected to the personnel.

Attempts to locate Dr. Dyer last night were unavailing. The list of sponsors to which Dr. Roberts and Mr. Patten take exception, was purported to have been given out by Dr. Dyer and Alfred W. Hare, and the ecclesiastical council's report was signed by Dr. Doremus Scudder, as moderator.

Father Booked on Suspicion of Murdering Child

Alex Ramirez, 516 North Bunker Hill, was held in the City Jail last night on suspicion of murder after the mysterious death of his two and one-half months old daughter yesterday morning.

When the first call was received by authorities the child's body was taken to the County Morgue and death was registered as accidental.

Last night a call was received by police that a "battle" was in progress at Sunset Boulevard and Beaudry avenue.

On response police found Ramirez beating a woman who was said to be Mrs. Ramirez. Officers Kemp and Roth took him to Central Station and booked him on the suspicion of murder charge after the woman asserted she was the mother of the dead child and accused Ramirez of having smothered it.

PROCEEDINGS ABANDONED

The City Council yesterday formally abandoned the proceedings for the improvement of Willoughby avenue between Fairfax avenue and Crescent Heights Boulevard.

THE SULGRAVE CHAIR

HOWEVER beautifully a living room may be furnished, the most casual eye pauses to admire a fine wing chair.

Its decorative possibilities are a joy to the person of taste. The high back and full, graceful lines give contrast to the even level of tables, couches and low-backed chairs, and in summer time a slip of hand-blocked linen or copper print chintz contributes a cheerful brightness.

Danersk upholstered furniture is made in our own New England shops. We take particular pride in seeing to it that the frames are of second growth ash, carefully joined; that springs are tied by hand eight to ten times; and that all materials, though hidden from sight, are the best obtainable for the purpose required.

TEACHER'S CAR KILLS PUPIL

Another Dies from Sunday Hurts and Two Others May Succumb to Auto Injuries

Fate played a puzzling hand in an auto fatality yesterday as it brought death to Esther Rodriguez, 11-year-old student of the Lincoln school at Clearwater, when she was struck by a car driven by Mrs. Florence Bruce, her teacher, just after the child had been dismissed from school.

Classes had just been dismissed for the day and Mrs. Bruce drove around the building, after seeing her charges on their way home, when the child attempted to run across the street at Jefferson and Ocean avenue. The teacher was unable to stop the car until the wheels had passed over the little girl. Mrs. Bruce rushed the injured child to the Compton Health Center, but she was dead on arrival. An inquest will be conducted today.

MAN DIES FROM HURTS

Traffic took a second life yesterday when Walter Roberts, 23, of 729 East Eighty-ninth street, who was hit Sunday by a car driven by J. E. Haskell, of 905 Loew's State Building, on Avalon Boulevard near Redondo Boulevard, died in General Hospital of a fractured skull and internal injuries. Haskell was not held by police investigators.

Two others probably were fatally hurt. Thornwald Madsen, 12, 4614 Lomita street, received injuries when he ran into the street at Venice Boulevard and Virginia Road in front of a car driven by M. Becker, 1411 South Burlington avenue.

Becker applied the brakes and swerved the car, but the protruding handle of the sedan door struck the boy's head.

HURLED SEVERAL FEET

The impact hurled the boy several feet and his skull was fractured. He was taken to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital and later taken to the California Lutheran Hospital. Becker was not held by police.

Motorcycle Patrolman Robert Clark of the Santa Monica police received critical injuries when he crashed into a car driven by John Lennox, 544 Eleventh street, at Wilshire Boulevard and Tenth street. The policeman had started past Lennox's car when the latter made a left turn. A year ago the policeman was in an accident in which he was thrown clear over an automobile when his motorcycle hit a sedan.

J. G. Jacobson, 75, address unknown to police, was injured seriously last night while leaving Angelus Temple. Crossing Glendale avenue outside of the temple, he was struck by a car driven by Leslie Freeman of 779 East Fifty-third street. He sustained a possible skull fracture, and both legs were broken. He was treated at Georgia-street Hospital and transferred to General Hospital.

among groups of schools. Athletics occupy a prominent place, of course, but not to the submergence of cultural and intellectual activities. Oratory, dramatics and debating are stressed in even the smallest of the rural community high schools. Several of the counties have debating leagues, and the rivalry is as intense as in athletics; there are also contests between bands and orchestras, for no school is so small that it does not teach music.

"In some of the smaller communities the schools furnish practically the only entertainment these communities enjoy and the schools stress dramatics, music and public speaking and in some cases give as many as three plays a year. This not only furnishes entertainment for the community but gives self-assurance to the students participating. They learn to appear in public and to think on their feet.

"But there is no feature of school life that is looked forward to with the same intense interest as the Oratorical Contest on the Constitution. Many of the schools have been in this contest from the start and this is the sixth year. The interest seems to be cumulative and there are very few schools indeed that are not participating and even these few are preparing to join in the contest next year. School patrons have come to demand it.

"The prizes are worth while and in some cases prove quite an incentive; but as the schools come to understand the underlying motive of the contest, which is not to develop orators but to encourage and promote a more thorough familiarity with and understanding of the Constitution of their own country and what good citizenship really means, they attack it with avidity and regard it as the outstanding activity of all their contests, regardless of prizes."

Mr. Sprague this week will visit the schools of Imperial Valley and the southern part of the State.

Rescuer Finds Woman Lost on Echo Mountain

ALTADENA, Feb. 25. (Exclusive) As searchers were preparing to abandon the intensive hunt for Mrs. Lansing Warren, who disappeared Friday night from her home, 61 Las Flores Drive, the woman was discovered late today wandering about the C. H. Cobb estate at the foot of Echo Mountain.

Andrew Anderson, employee of the Cobb estate, saw Mrs. Warren sink down exhausted behind a large tree. She told him that she had been wandering about the canyons for two days and a night.

Anderson notified the local Sheriff substation and deputies placed Mrs. Warren in the care of her physician, who stated that although she is weak from lack of food and water she has a fair chance to recover.

A $500 reward for the discovery of the missing woman will be paid to Anderson, it is said.

The arrival of the three Italian visitors was strictly private at their own expressed wishes, and formal announcement of their coming and arrangements for their entertainment during their brief visit will be made today through Capt. Restaurateurs in Convention Here Offer Suggestion to Women Who Would Stay Young, and Declare War on Antidessert Campaign

War on the advice to substitute a cigarette for a sweet was declared yesterday by delegates to the National Restaurant Association's Pacific Coast regional convention at the Alexandria. Approximately 1000 arrived. Harry Hackney of Atlantic City, president of the association, frankly announced that the restaurateurs would fight the slogan-inspired inroads on their dessert sales.

Frank J. Whiffler, secretary, announced that the 1929 convention's keynote was sanitation in food handling. Dr. George Parrish, city health officer, will lead a round table discussion today, advocating strict physical examination of restaurant employees. Another important topic to be discussed today by J. A. McPherson of the Leighton Industries, Inc., is the legal problem of the restaurant owners. Solution is to be sought at the convention.

Sidney Hoedemaker, president of the local organization, last night outlined some of these vexing legal troubles. They include what to do with diners who break teeth on cherrystones, those who assert they suffered ptomaine poisoning from restaurant food, and those who set table cloths afire with cigarettes and then sue if their own clothes also catch afire.

Mr. Hoedemaker stated that a certain Los Angeles restaurant annually loses $20,000 worth of silverware "taken" by souvenir hunters.

Secretary Whiffler last night offered women a recipe for keeping young and beautiful: "Dine out. Women who work at business all day do not want to cook, so they dine out and stay young, said Whiffler.

PROTEST HEARINGS TODAY

Protests will be heard today by the City Council against the confirmation of assessments for the widening of La Brea avenue between Wilshire Boulevard and Country Club Drive and the opening and extending of Wyandotte street from North Sherman Way (or Van Nuys Boulevard) to Kester avenue.

Martin A. Leach, Los Angeles and San Diego promoter under sentence of from ten to seventy-five years in San Quentin prison, is scheduled to go to trial in Department 21 of Superior Court March 25, next, on charges of conspiracy to commit grand theft with two other defendants, E. H. Martin and B. Edwin Lang.

Leach, Martin and Lang appeared before Presiding Judge Shaw to have the date of their trial officially fixed. They are accused of obtaining approximately $50,000 from Los Angeles investors under promises to use the money in obtaining the controlling interest in a Hollywood bank. Instead, it is charged, the money was diverted to private use.

Frank Huriburt, who was charged with perjury as a result of testimony given during Leach's original trial, will be tried on this charge March 18 in Department 21, also, Judge Shaw ruled yesterday.

Leach originally was convicted of twenty-six counts of grand theft and violation of the Corporate Securities Act in connection with the sale of mortgage notes on a San Diego subdivision.

CANNED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Full of Vitamins, Should Be Eaten Daily, Says Doctor

Dr. Morris Fishbein, Editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association, recently wrote in the New York Telegram about canned fruits and vegetables. If all of the women could read this article, more canning factories would have to be built in a hurry.

He makes this startling statement: "Canned tomatoes, and canned spinach have been tested three years after canning and the evidence did not indicate any appreciable loss in vitamins. Indeed, the canned tomatoes after three years were as rich in vitamins as raw tomatoes. Canned strawberries were also found to equal raw strawberries in vitamin content." He describes how canned cabbage, peas, spinach, apples and peaches were shown to be rich in Vitamin C.

Just think what wonderful news this is for all of us in this country where canning has been developed to such a point of perfection that we can buy canned almost any fruit or vegetable that is grown.

Serve your family liberally with canned fruits for breakfast and for dessert, and serve them liberally with canned vegetables and fruits for luncheon and dinner. Canned peaches, apricots, apples, pears, or strawberries are delicious served with cereals for breakfast and with ice cream for dessert. There is health in delicious canned fruits and vegetables. Sweeten the vegetables to taste when preparing them for serving. The Sugar Institute.

AN OBLIGING BEAUTY DOCTOR

A Beauty Specialist Gives Home-Made Recipe to Darken Gray Hair.

Mme. M. D. Gillespie, a well-known beauty specialist of Kansas City, recently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair:

"Anyone can prepare a mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and ¼ ounce of glycerine.

These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and will not rub off.—[Advertisement.

AUTO SHOOTING WILL BE SIFTED

Sheriff's Aides Dig Into Whittier Slaying

Santa Ana Laborer Held for Investigation

Inquest on Sunday Tragedy Scheduled Today

Conflicting stories of those who witnessed the fatal shooting of Zachary Taylor of 520½ North Pickering street, Whittier, during an argument over an automobile accident Sunday evening, yesterday caused Capt. William J. Bright of the Sheriff's homicide detail to order a thorough investigation into the alibi story of Belen Martinez, Santa Ana laborer who is accused of the slaying.

Martinez, according to Deputy Sheriffs Croushern and Brewster, admits that he shot Taylor but asserts that he did so in self-defense after Taylor had struck him over the head with an automobile crank. Martinez exhibited a severe scalp laceration in support of this story.

Friends of Taylor, however, deny that the dead man was armed with and deadly weapon at the time of the shooting and fought Martinez with his bare hands.

Investigators report that the shooting occurred on La Parada Road near Whittier after Taylor had attempted to pass Martinez's automobile. According to Mrs. Gladys Taylor, the widow, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Meyers of 1137 Hoffman avenue, Long Beach, Martinez crowded their car from the road and charged across the road shooting at Taylor who also had alighted. Taylor fell mortally wounded, they said, and Martinez re-entered his car and drove away, but not before Meyers had obtained his automobile license number.

Officers later arrested Martinez on a ranch near Santa Ana. An inquest into the death will be conducted at the White & Emmerson mortuary, Whittier, this morning.

AUTO PAPER FRAUD CASE TRIAL SET

Cordish and Fleming to Face Jury April 15 on Contract Forgery Charge

The trial of Nat Cordish, former president of Mutual Motors, Inc., and E. K. Fleming, secretary, on charges of forgery, yesterday was set for April 15, next, by Superior Judge Shaw.

The two defendants are accused of forging numerous automobile finance contracts and disposing of them to other finance corporations. They were indicted by the 1928 grand jury, which investigated Corbush's operations and the disposal of a former case against him, which did not result in conviction.

The same investigation resulted in a dispute between M. G. Phillips, Cordish's attorney at that time, and the grand jury, which resulted in the attorney being called into court to show cause why he should not be cited for contempt.

Phillips was accused of writing a letter to the grand jury charging that the indictment was the result of a plot by prosecution witnesses to extort money from Cordish. Phillips also accused the grand jury of refusing to accept evidence purporting to support this charge or to investigate this phase of the case.

The contempt matter was taken under submission by Superior Judge Shaw.

On a test run of 329 miles, a new White with a capacity load covered the ground in nine hours—an average speed of 36½ miles per hour. This route includes 110 miles of mountain roads, proving the capacity of the new White to maintain a high average speed over steep-grade country.

In 12,947 miles of operation, over every kind of road, with temperatures ranging from zero to summer heat, a new White averaged 30 miles per hour under full load for the whole distance.

In these exhaustive tests no other truck was found capable of matching the sustained performance and economy of the new White.

In hundreds of businesses the new White will demonstrate an amazing reduction in operating costs and time—a new efficiency in transportation that means greater profits and service for the truck user.

White Built Throughout

The new White is built throughout in the vast White factory at Cleveland. In the long years of White leadership there have been built up an experience and equipment in precision manufacturing that make possible White quality. Such an investment enables White to manufacture in keeping with the most advanced engineering design. The new White is a notable example of how this policy enables White to pass on to users of transportation the benefits of the best engineering thought.

No matter what use you make of a truck, the new White offers advantages never before available in this field. On the basis of cost per package, per load, per eight hours of transportation service, there is no truck built that can do the job of the new White. The new White will prove economies and efficiency in your own operation that will amaze you. Call the nearest White branch or dealer.

Earnings Gain Registered by Mack Trucks

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (Exclusive) Consolidated net income of Mack Trucks, Inc., for the year ended December 31, last, amounted to $6,915,201, after all charges including depreciation and Federal taxes, equal to $7.83 a share on the 785,-625 shares of common stock outstanding, against $5,844,306 in 1927 equal after preferred dividends to $6.59 a share on 712,434 common shares, it was reported here today. Preferred stock was retired December 31, 1927.

The fourth quarter net income totaled $1,462,858, or $1.94 a share on the common, against $1,622,391, or $2.20 a share on 735,678 common shares in the preceding quarter and $740,715, or 64 cents a share on the common in the fourth quarter of 1927.

"Orders on hand and prospects for business during the current year justify the company's officers in forecasting a volume of business somewhat larger than last year," A. J. Brosseau, president, stated. "If the anticipated volume is realized net profits should show a substantial increase. Bank loans of $7,000,-000 incurred to furnish part of the cash necessary to retire preferred stock on December 31, 1927, have been reduced to $4,000,000."

Action Awaited on Hancock Oil

Following the annual meeting of stockholders of the Hancock Oil Company yesterday, officials stated that the shareholders had been informed that Will J. Reid, president of the company, would have an important announcement to make to them within the next ten days or two weeks. Mr. Reid had previously stated that he probably would have this announcement ready for the annual meeting. It is understood from sources in close touch with the company's affairs that the announcement will deal with a sale proposal, although officials declined to comment on the report.

The financial condition of the company was reviewed at the meeting and the officials predicted that the current year would be the largest in the history of the concern. All officers and directors were re-elected, including Will J. Reid, president; J. W. Hancock, vice-president and general manager; W. N. Reagan, secretary; G. P. Deane, treasurer; Roy M. McClure, assistant secretary, and A. C. Malone, George W. Williams, John G. Zobelein and C. S. Bailes, directors.

MERGER ETHICS SET FORTH

Investment Trust Head Answers Criticism by Full Statement of Terms; Stockholders Alert

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Another illustration of the awakening interest among American stockholders in the policies and actions of corporate managements was disclosed the other day by the organization of a minority group to inquire into the terms under which the Financial and Industrial Securities Corporation consolidated with the Goldman Sachs Trading Corporation. The comprehensive explanation by the management in reply is significant in that it clearly shows that the corporations are also fully alert to the fact that the day has passed when unethical or unfair business methods can be employed.

From the tenor of the statement by Ralph Jonas, chairman of the Financial and Industrial Securities Corporation, it is apparent that the memory of the disclosures from the oil scandal is still fresh. He is at pains to explain that no commissions or special compensations were paid in negotiating the trade, and that neither he nor his associates would receive more for their stock than other stockholders.

The following excerpt from his statement is of interest from the standpoint of the policies laid down by him as fair and equitable in working out modern business consolidations:

DETAILS EXPLAINED

"Neither my relatives nor associates nor I have changed our holdings in F. & I. because of these negotiations, nor do we expect to do so. I and my immediate associates will be the largest stockholders in the combined company, as we have been in F. & I. I have never personally owned, nor has any one owned for me, a single share of the Goldman Sachs Trading Corporation, and the same applies to every other director and officer of F. & I."

And, further: "No member of the firm of Goldman Sachs & Co. will receive compensation from the combined company except as provided in the existing management agreement between Goldman Sachs & Co., and the Goldman Sachs Trading Corporation. No one has any option or calls on stocks of any sort."

Several important ideas on fair business methods are inferentially outlined in the foregoing statement. The management, it appears, has not sold out and left the minority holding the bag; it has not received more for its stock than the minority; it has neither given nor received extra compensation in arranging the deal; it has not benefited through ownership, directly or indirectly, of stock in the other company, and nobody has been favored with options of calls on stock.

ACTION TAKEN

Right at this time there is a stockholders' fight under way against the head of an oil company accused of taking a personal profit on a deal in which his company was involved. Severe criticism was directed last year against the president of a railroad charged with dealing in the stock of another railroad company which was later acquired by his company.

W. C. Van Antwerp, San Francisco partner of E. F. Hutton & Co., and the author of a popular book on the machinery of the stock market, recently estimated that 75,-000,000 people are interested, directly or indirectly, in the day's work on the exchange. This formidable host has come to expect full and complete information on the affairs of companies with securities outstanding in the markets.

National Lead Income Higher

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (Exclusive) Net income of the National Lead Company for the year closed December 31, last, amounted to $6,180,-361 including insurance reserve gain, equal to $12.45 a share on the common stock, against $5,348,507 or $10.25 a share in 1927, it was announced here today.

E. J. Cornish, president, in issuing the report said: "Our policy is not to increase dividends unless the board, looking as far into the future as they can see, feel positive that such action is justifiable. Every department is doing well except white lead in oil. In 1928 these sales were 5 per cent less than in 1927 and 18 per cent less than the seven-year average. However, losses in this line are being made up in others.

London Market Tone Buoyant

LONDON, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—The stock market had a cheerful tone today, although the accumulation of orders over the week-end was small. The industrial list moved irregularly, aside from steadiness in tobacco shares. Imperial Tobacco was, however, a weak exception. Talking machine issues were quiet, with Columbia Graphophone easier. The oil list had a better tone and rubbers were in demand. The mining and artificial silk groups were steady and textiles were quiet. Dunlap was a weak feature, while Ford Motors, Ltd., was quoted at £3 7-8.

The gilt-edge division had a quiet tone. Foreign issues were steady. Home and Argentine rails were quiet.

The company's share of oil shipments during January amounted to 33,772 barrels, according to D. S. Setnam, secretary. This compares with 3014 barrels in January, 1928.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (?)—The cotton market was more active and higher today on covering and trade buying of near months. There appeared to be some commission house demand for later deliveries promoted by favorable reports from the cotton goods market. Confirmed talk of decreased fertilizer sales in the South and steadiness in Liverpool.

Active months sold about 17 to 23 points net higher, with May advancing to approximately the 20¼-cent level. Prices were within 4 or 5 points of the best around 2 o'clock.

HUGE BANK PROJECTED BY MERGER

Resources of New York Institution Reported as Near $2,000,000,000

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (Exclusive) The formation of the largest bank in the United States, with resources of approximately $2,000,000,000, became an assured fact today when the directors of the National Bank of Commerce and of the Guaranty Trust Company approved the basis of the combination at special meetings. While the deal has been in progress for several weeks, today's action was the first official one to be taken.

Prior to the consolidation, the National Bank of Commerce will increase its capital to $30,000,000 from $25,000,000 by the issue of $5,000,000 new stock to its shareholders at par. The stock of the Commerce and that of the Guaranty, which has $40,000,000 capital, will be exchanged for stock of the combined institution on a share-for-share basis.

The terms of the merger were so unexpectedly favorable to shareholders of the National Bank of Commerce that the stock of that institution jumped $300 a share to $1235, the highest level at which it has ever sold. Only as recently as 10 o'clock this morning Commerce stock was selling quietly, the latter price being $1025 to $1065 a share. The big jump of about $150 a share came about 2 p.m. as the basis of the merger became known. Then there was a scramble to buy the stock.

Guaranty Trust stock held steady on the news at a price around $1065 a share. It had been rumored last week that the basis of exchange would be a share-for-share one, assuming capital of neither bank would be changed. The $5,000,000 capital increase of the National Bank of Commerce, to take effect prior to the merger, was what caused its stock to rise so sharply.

AUTO EXPORT TRADE GROWS

Total Shipments Abroad During Last Six Years Reported in 400 Per Cent Increase

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance]

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Naturally, the automobile manufacturers can afford to spend an increasing amount of time and effort on foreign trade, for the record shows that American automobile shipments have gained 400 per cent in six years, increasing from $104,506,000 in 1922 to $522,097,000 in 1928.

Ten passenger cars of every 100 produced left the United States in 1928, while twenty-six trucks of every 100 manufactured were sold abroad.

No business returning more than half a billion dollars a year is to be sneezed at, not even by the great automobile industry.

It is expected that the total automobile exports from the United States for 1929 will exceed those of 1928 by about $300,000,000.

Studying, observing, watching the American business man in action and in repose, Medardo Figueroa, South American of Spanish ancestry, has decided it is difficult to change the inherent nature of a race or to merge that race with another which speaks a different language, has different historical backgrounds and a different standing in the world.

His declaration of principles, to which he believes the vast majority of the thinking people of Latin America will subscribe, follows:

"We want our race to conserve its individuality, we want the self-determination of our respective countries, we want all our rights to be respected, and we want to be heard in the councils of the world. Besides, we want the friendship of the United States on a basis of reciprocity.

"We want to learn from the United States all that can help us build our countries and make a success of our democracies. But we don't want any kind of impositions, nor do we want, even in the name of progress, to be absorbed and made into a constellation of satellites with the mission to follow without knowing why."

Every well-wishing American will agree to such principles.

Sir Reginald McKenna, head of England's largest bank, the Midland, continues to speak frankly and rather bluntly about the credit policy of the central banks in their restriction of credit. More especially this former British Chancellor of the Exchequer refers to the operations of the Bank of England.

Other big British bank leaders, like Hugh Tennant, at Westminster, and Sir Edward Goschen of the National Provincial, believe that the policy of the Bank of England at this time is one designed to bring confidence into banking and restore British industry to a place of world leadership.

John Maynard Keynes, famous British economist, said industry had to increase its efficiency by nearly 30 per cent in the years between 1914 and 1924, because the average of real wages rose more than 8 per cent during this period, while the working hours fell nearly 10 per cent.

There is a general unanimity among banking and industrial leaders in England that its place in world leadership in trade and commence is tied up rather closely with its ability to modernize industry itself and bring it up to date.

Reserve Bank of Penn City Gives Credit Warning

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23. (Exclusive)—George W. Norris, governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, has sent a letter to the member banks in this district calling upon them to co-operate to the fullest extent in curbing the use of funds for speculative purposes.

The Governor declared that there has never been a time, at least since 1920, when such co-operation was more urgently needed than at present. The letter calls attention to the recent warning on the same subject by the Federal Reserve Board and states that the Philadelphia Reserve Bank is in accord with the suggestion of the Federal Advisory Council which asked that member banks in each district be appealed to by the Federal Reserve Bank.

The letter intimates that the reserve banks are reluctant to use arbitrary means to curb speculative loans, but points out that their powers are broad and far-reaching.

TONE ON STOCK MART ERRATIC

Advance at Opening Halted by Call-Rate Boost

Steel Leads Late Recovery of General List

Month-end Credit Forecast Bearish Factor

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—The stock market resumed activity after its three-day rest somewhat refreshed today, but a sharp tightening up of call money injected considerable irregularity into the day's proceedings.

The market opened with a burst of strength, but stepping up of the call loan rate from 6½ to 9 per cent as banks called about $35,000,000 for month-end requirements, precipitated heavy liquidation, wiping out much of the early advance. A vigorous bidding up of the steel shares drove shorts to cover in the final dealings, however, and the market closed irregularly higher.

United States Steel attracted strong support, largely attributed to a commission-house analysis suggesting that elimination of several major bond issues appears logical in the near future, releasing interest and sinking fund charges equal to about $3.40 a common share annually. The stock opened with a block of 30,000 shares at 185, up 3 points, and mounted nearly 8 points to 189 7-8, less than 3 points under its record price.

The developments over the triple holiday, including the leaving of the Federal Reserve rediscount rate unchanged and marked improvement in the New York Reserve Bank's reserve ratio, appeared to have improved speculative confidence, but bankers held out little hope of easier money, predicting firm rates all this week, and a sharp tightening of credit around the middle of March, with the payment of income taxes and the shifting of balances incident to the $500,-000,000 government refinancing. Total stock sales today of 3,466,150 were the largest since last Monday.

NEWS BULLISH

The day's news included several favorable earnings statements and dividend actions, and still another 1-4 of a cent increase in the price of domestic copper. A few more railroads reported highly satisfactory operations for January, Missouri Pacific and Chesapeake and Ohio showing surplus after charges about 100 and 50 per cent, respectively, greater than for January, 1928. The expected merger of the Guaranty Trust Company and the National Bank of Commerce, forming America's first $2,000,000,000 bank, was announced.

United States Steel was followed in its upturn by Bethlehem, which rose near 4 points to 100 3-4, the

Grain Futures Sharply Off on Bearish Market

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—A weakening in the domestic cash wheat position, with purchases of No. 2 hard winter to come here from a Missouri River market at 5@5½c under Chicago May, the widest discount on the crop, combined with a decrease of only 314,000 bushels in the visible supply and a lack of the aggressive eastern buying, resulted in a decline of 2¼@2¾c in futures. The finish was within a fraction of the bottom at net losses of 2¾@2¾c. March being 1.29@1.29½, May 1.29¾@1.30 and July 1.32¾@1.32½.

Corn showed fair strength early, but eased with wheat and ended ½@¾c lower, with March 94¾ and May 96¾@98½. Oats lost ⅛@¼c, with March 49⅝ and May 51¾, while rye declined 2¾@2¾c, with March 1.09¼ and May 1.11¾.

The wheat market acted as though it was overbought and many professionals went out of their holdings on the way down. There was free selling of July by a house with eastern connections. Buying orders were uncovered on the way down and sellers of bids were forced to protect themselves. Shippers came into July from shorts and from holders of bids, but the undertone was distinctly heavy. Little attention was paid to crop reports during the day.

The visible supply is not increasing as rapidly as the trade anticipated and total stocks are 123,315,000 bushels, against 73,300,000 bushels last year. With the exception of a little durum, the foreign demand for cash wheat at the seaboard was distinctly slow and Liverpool closed ⅛@⅜d lower, with pressure of Argentine grain a factor. Winnipeg was heavy and closed 2¼@2½c lower, while Buenos Aires was off ⅛@¾c. Persistent reports of damage to the Indian crop were ignored.

Local bulls were on the buying side of corn early, due to the marked reduction in the movement as compared with last year, the three Missouri River markets having only 403 cars, against 1121 cars a year ago, while primary arrivals were 1,788,000 bushels under those in 1928. The bulge was checked by selling against offers, and later there was a decline of 1¼@1¾c in sympathy with wheat, with many fair buyers taking the selling side on the way down. Exports of 12,259,000 bushels in January attracted some attention, as they compared with 1,067,000 bushels last year, but this was offset later by weakness in the cash market, with No. 4 yellow selling at 7¼@9½c under May, the widest discount as compared with the future so far this season.

Unfavorable weather conditions existed over the belt, and country roads reported in bad condition. An increase of 923,000 bushels in the visible supply made the total 32,468,000 bushels, against 37,935,000 bushels last year.

Weakness in other grains had a depressing effect on oats, although there was support from cash and commission houses. Delayed seeding in the Southwest attracted little attention. Rye received support from commission houses on routine orders, but the market weakened with wheat. Export demand remains slow, with January clear announces only 186,000 bushels, against 480,000 bushels last year.

Packers and warehouse interests were good sellers of lard, while there was fair commission-house buying. Prices declined and closed with net losses of 5½c on the near-by deliveries and were unchanged on the distant months.

Ribs were neglected and a few orders were made in bellies, with May 5c higher and July 7½c lower.

Easier Prices Again Point to Uncertain Conditions as Trading Resumes on Local Mart

Despite a three-day cessation of trading the volume of operations transacted yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange dropped substantially below the customary level. Selling orders, piled up over the week-end, outweighed the buying and continued to reflect the unsettled position of the market. The slackened pace of trading brought about few price changes larger than a point and although a few issues advanced, the general trend was easier.

Union of California led the activity in the oil list and dropped off 1 1-4 points to 47 1-4, while Union Associates lost 1-2 to 48 1-2. Richfield fell off 1-4 to 40 1-4. Standard of California advanced 1-4 and Signal Oil, 3-4, to end at 65 and 39 3-4, respectively. Macmillan lost 1-2 to 34 1-2, while Rio Grande closed firm at 33 7-8. Stocks of the Pacific Mutual group were strong. Pacific Finance moved up 1-4 to 98 1-4 and the A preferred, 3-8 to 28. International Re-Insurance gained 1-2 to 60. Bankshare trading held fairly steady. Los Angeles-First National transferred actively but closed unchanged at 140. California Bank lost 1-2 to 129 and Seaboard National, 3-4 to 47 1-4. Farmers' and Merchants' advanced 5 points to 465. Transamerica Corporation, at 130 1-4, was unchanged.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—Prices in the bond market closed irregularly lower to somewhat downward, interrupted by the triple holiday and short-lived rally last week. The Associated Press combined averages again were at the lowest level of more than two years.

A few issues, in response to favorable earnings and news developments, advanced, and the first-grade rails at a strong improved, but utilities declined in sympathy with stocks. Nearly a dozen issues established new lows. Trading was on a large scale, sales totaling $10,674,000.

Anaconda Copper 7s shot up to a new high at 111 on a further advance in red metal, but slipped back some under profit-taking, closing at 108¾, for a net gain of 3¼ points. Chile Copper 5s, however, declined fractionally. Other industrials and specialties generally lost ground. Allegheny Corporation 5s and American International 5½s declined 2 points. Foreign dollars were heavy. East Cuba Sugar 7½s touching a new low at 87½, with a drop of 1½ points.

International Telephone convertible 4½s closed fractionally under Thursday's close. North American Edison 5s A, however, advanced.

Rails showing improvement included Stock Island Iowa, New Haven refunding 4½s and Seaboard All Florida issues. Weakness was displayed by Union Pacific 4s, Wabash refunding 5½s A and Southern Pacific convertible 4½s. Northern Pacific 4s established a new low at 93⅝. Interborough Rapid Transit 6s climbed 3 points to a new high at 104.

The foreign list displayed an irregular tone. Fixed 7s were the individual standouts, soaring 10 points.

United States government obligations improved somewhat.

Interest in the irregular curb bonds again centered in the Associated Gas And Electric issues, the 4½s of 1947 and 1948 advancing nearly 2 points.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite transactions the figures are omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—A heavy accumulation of week-end buying orders, inspired in part by the resolution of the 5 per cent rediscount rate by the New York Federal Reserve Bank and the drop of $21,000,000 in brokers' loans, gave the curb market a buoyant tone today. Some irregularity developed later, however, when call loans were marked up from 6½ to 8 per cent.

Public utilities ran into some profit-taking, but several points of strength developed in the aviation, metal and merchandising groups. Oils were mixed but Vacuum moved up 2½ points on a small turnover, and Continental touched a new 1929 high.

Revival of activity and strength in the aviation shares was based on reports of further expansion of air mail and commercial routes. Aviation Corporation of America, Consolidated Aircraft and Bluebird moved into new high ground, and Fokker and Keystone recorded moderate gains.

Cities Service advanced 2½ points to a new high at 116⅝ on unconfirmed rumors of a stock split up. American and Foreign Power warrants broke 12½ points in sympathy with a break in the stock, and others in the utilities, Electric Bond and Share and Commonwealth Edison each fell about 5 points.

Merger gossip stimulated the demand for the merchandising and chain store issues. Celanese Corporation, Kobacker Stores, Dominion Stores, Goldberg Stores and American Stores all attained new high prices for the year.

Among the many other issues to top their best prices of the year were Chemical Cab, Copeland Products A, Gold Seal Electric, Knott Copper, Michigan Steel, Municipal Service, Newton Steel, Nicholas & Shepherd, Pitney Bowes, Republic Motor Truck certificates, Reynolds Metal preferred, Stifler Dental, Royal Typewriter, Shattuck Den Copper and United Carbon certificates.

Trimble Artificial Silk Hose broke 20 points and General Fire, and Rubber jumped 70 points on two sales. Freshman and Zenith radios were heavy.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

HEAD OFFICE—FIFTH AND SPRING

Conservative
—yet progressive

FOR 39 YEARS the maintenance of sound, conservative banking principles and policies has been the cornerstone of CITIZENS NATIONAL TRUST AND SAVINGS BANK management.

At the same time, however, due thought has been given to the needs of a fast-growing community, and banking facilities enlarged to keep step with the rapid progress of our city.

highest in ten years. Crucible, Fallonsbee and Youngtowns sheet and tube were other steel shares making substantial headway. The coppers responded to the price increase, Anaconda touching a new peak at 137¼. Kid Greene Cananea moving up 4 points, but later losing most of its gain. American Zinc mounted over 5 points, approaching its previous top.

OTIS ELEVATOR UP

Otis Elevator jumped nearly 14 points in a small turnover, while Adams Express, Radio Corporation (old) and Crosley Radio mounted about 10 to 12 points, although the last two reacted later. Collins and Aikman mounted 11½ points to a new top at 68⅝ on more optimistic reports from the textile industry. Commercial Solvents, Real Silk Hosiery, Pennock and Ford and Continental Baking achieved new high ground for the year, and Electric Auto Lite forged ahead on estimates that 1928 earnings would equal $3.90 a share.

Motors were inclined to heaviness, although Nash mounted about 3 points. In the rails, Missouri Pacific gained about 4 points. Utilities were generally heavy, American and Foreign Power falling back more than 12 points.

The commodity markets were irregular, cotton mounting from $1 to $1.50 a bale on higher Liverpool and Alexandria cables. Wheat, however, was depressed by lower prices at Liverpool, and corn sagged sympathetically.

Foreign exchanges were quiet, with sterling and continental currencies generally firm. The Japanese yen dropped to the lowest point of the year, however, at 44.95 cents.

Kinner Motors

Company manufactures engines for passenger planes and is a likely contender for honors in the rapidly expanding air industry. New capital, new facilities, added personnel and large increase in orders direct attention to Kinner. We have prepared an interesting summary.

A Trade Secret of Our Success

THE remarkable growth of Pacific National and its affiliated institutions parallels the amazing development of Industrial Los Angeles.

Since the date of its organization, Pacific National Bank has loyally supported the manufacturer in his efforts to build greater pay rolls for our City.

Values in Bel-Air compared with Beverly Hills and Hancock Park

The following is taken from a survey made by the Eberle Economic Service, Inc., Economists, Engineers and Statisticians

"SINCE the Bel-Air tract has been subdivided and offered for sale to the public, the land values of practically all of the sites have shown substantial increments.

"In order to ascertain the trend of land values in other sections where there are sites offered for single-family purposes with considerable restrictions, we have made an investigation of such built-up portions as Beverly Hills, Hancock Park and others. The data gathered were to establish the increments in values brought about by actual use, rather than by speculative activity.

"It will be noted in the tables that very few of the lots have an unrestricted ocean view, except those in Bel-Air which, in a majority of instances, have both ocean and mountain view, although quite a few have an unrestricted mountain view. At the same time it should be noted that, for example, in Hancock Park and Windsor Square, half-acre lots are offered at the present time at the rate of about $40,000.00 per acre, while there are some as high as $60,000.00, and more per acre."

ACRES IN BEL-AIR AVERAGE ABOUT $20,000.00

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Operators in the crude rubber market assembled today to find that the foreign markets had registered good advances during the two-day holiday of the local market. Opening prices here were consequently at figures greatly above the finish of last Thursday, and before midday sixty active deliveries were 120 to 170 points up.

Profit-taking dissipated a part of the gains and London prices turned easier toward the close, bringing about further declines locally. Closing quotations were at or near the lows of the day, but the market closed in healthy condition with prices up 100 to 140 points. The buying was not wholly of speculative character, plenty of manufacturing and dealer interest being displayed.

The outside market advanced 1¼d to 20⅝c, with buyers reported pinching.

Profits ... through "Privilege Features"

SOME of the most profitable investment securities are found among the bonds carrying warrants for the purchase of common stocks at attractive prices.

We have prepared a new circular covering an attractive bond with warrants attached . . . a first mortgage issue . . . an old established business . . . and a public utility.

This is an investment combining dependable first mortgage security with a yield of 6.70% and offering possibilities of future profits through the warrants which are attached to each bond.

Send for Circular, "Privilege Features" or telephone Tucker 9223 for copy.

Map showing business conditions in the United States January 1, 1929, adapted by permission of Nation's Business. Dots show location of communities served by the Associated Gas and Electric System.

Avoiding Seesaw in Earnings

ALMOST every business has its ups and downs—good years, lean years and good years again. Business conditions, even in prosperous times, vary widely from year to year and at the same time in different parts of the country. (See map above.)

Electric output also varies widely among states in spite of the fact that the industrial and agricultural diversity would seem to bring stability of output. In December, 1928, for example, seven states had 20% to 177% increases in electric output over December, 1927, while seven states had 10% to 55% losses. (U. S. Geological Survey.)

Geographical Diversity Essential to Stability

The Associated Gas and Electric System serves a 2,700,000 population in 1,000 communities in 16 states. Flourishing areas offset less active sections. For example, the western Pennsylvania group serving one-sixth of the state showed practically no gain in electric output during 1928; yet the system as a whole showed a substantial gain.

The addition of the General Gas and Electric group with its eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, South Carolina and Florida properties further enhances the stability of Associated earnings through greater geographical diversity.

The diversified nature of the service, coupled with experienced management and a successful record, indicates the strength and growth possibilities of the Associated System.

OIL NEWS

BY C. D. WAIDE

Interest of oil men remained centered on the deep sands at Santa Fe Springs yesterday, with the deep test of the Plymouth Oil Company particularly observed. This is the first well to pick up the new deep sand in the southeast part of the field, although it has been found in several wells in the northwest and central portion of the field.

The Plymouth well has been drilled to 6858 feet and has cored fourteen feet of solid oil sand, according to field reports. The sand was first picked up in the hole at a depth of 6828 feet and from there to 6854 feet the core showed alternating sand and shale. The well is being drilled ahead and a production test will not be made, according to officials of the company until considerably more sand has been encountered.

In the central portion of the field the Pacific Eastern Oil Company's Brunson No. 2 is reported to be coring oil sand at a depth of approximately 6700 feet. This well has encountered a considerable amount of oil sand streaked with shale, but not enough of the sand in which to make a production test. Near this well the Getty No. 19 continues to flow at the rate of 1200 barrels of oil and 1500 barrels of water per day.

In the northwest portion of the field the Associated Oil Company's Clarke No. 2 is drilling ahead at 7745 feet in gray sand. Fairly near it the Richfield Oil Company's Elliott No. 2 is standing cemented at 7195 feet and it is planned to drill out the cement today or tomorrow.

Geologists are about convinced now that the water in the Getty No. 19 is not coming from the bottom of the hole, but from about the middle of the oil sand. The possibility that it is from a faulty shut-off is still adhered to, however.

Lawndale Wells

Indications that the oil sand in wells east of the discovery well at Lawndale will be found at a greater depth than in the first well developed yesterday when the Superior Oil Company's Ritter No. 1 picked up the Miocene formation. It was found at a depth of more than 100 feet greater than that at which it was discovered in the Smith Development Company's Peck No. 1. The geological significance of this is that the discovery well seems to be more on an anticlines than the wells to the east of it, whereas there is a surface elevation where the majority of wells are being drilled.

This theory is further proven in the Standard Oil Company Vance No. 1, which has been drilled to 5826 feet and in which streaks of sand and shale have been discovered. This well is due east of the discovery well, which found the oil sand at 5730 feet, or about 100 feet higher up than the Standard well already has gone.

The San Clemente Oil Company's Peck No. 1 has been completed, but it was decided to go back into the hole and do some additional mechanical work before trying to put it on production. It will be three or four days before a production test is made in the hole.

The Smith Development Company's Peck No. 2 is drilling at 4650 feet, the Peck No. 3 at 4130 feet and the Peck No. 4 at 1600 feet. All are near the discovery well.

Richfield Wells

The Richfield Oil Company was bailing last night in its Oscar Howard No. 3 at Santa Fe Springs. The well has been drilled to 5789 feet and it is planned to put it on production today.

The Richfield's Kerwin No. 1 at Semi Tropic, a wildcat test, is drilling ahead at 5067 feet. Its Vernon No. 1, a wildcat at the intersection of Fifty-fourth street and Maywood avenue, is drilling at 4960 feet.

The Travis No. 1, a deep test at Signal Hill, is bailing for a water shut-off test at a depth of 7532 feet.

Well Is Delayed

The completion of the Continental Oil Company's Franklin No. 1, the wildcat test two miles south of Carpinteria in which strong gas pressure was found, has been delayed for several days by the necessity of changing casing. An effort was made to land nine-inch casing and the pipe was too large and froze in the hole. It has been withdrawn and it was decided that on account of the almost uncontrollable gas pressure it would be better to get smaller casing rather than try to ream the hole. The shipment of the new supply of casing will so delay the well that it probably will be two weeks yet before a production test is made.

This well is drilled to 4005 feet and the oil sand was found at 3990 feet. Many tons of baroid have been poured into the hole in an effort to maintain control of the gas.

Potrero Test Soon

The Associated Oil Company's Potrero No. 1, located on the golf links of the Potrero Country Club, was given a water shut-off test yesterday which was found to be satisfactory. The crew is now cleaning out the hole preparatory to running the oil string, and a production test will be made in the well within the next two or three days.

Shell Is Swabbing

The Shell Oil Company yesterday started swabbing its Alamitos No. 39 at Signal Hill, which is 6430 feet deep. The company's Rose No. 2, in the same field and drilled to 7088 feet, will be swabbed for a production test today.

Well Being Swabbed

Swabbing was started last night in the Boiza Chico Oil Corporation's Mutual No. 4 at Signal Hill and it is planned to put the well on production by noon today. It is drilled to 6854 feet in depth. When this well is completed the equipment will be moved to the company's location in Kettleman Hills.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—Approximately 60 per cent of yesterday's comparatively small supply was steers from California, Arizona, Utah and Idaho. Early sales of steers were around 10c higher, but after the early spurt the market settled back to largely a steady basis. Fat stock in light supply and readily sold directly to strictly prices. Other classes ruled firm.

Three cars of good 1097-pound Imperial Valley steers topped at 11.60. Will Wall was paid for three loads of good 1282 to 1306-pound Idaho fed bullocks and a car of 1054-pound averages, from a Glendale, California feed lot. The bulk of medium steers went over from 10.40@11.25. Heifers and mixed yearlings paid 9.50@10.50, with one load of common steers turned from 8.50@9.00.

A load of medium 635-pound Arizona heifers realized 9.75, while part lots of Arizona heifers sold up to 10.25 and above. A load of medium 635-pound Arizonas brought 9.50, with plainer heifers down to 9.00 and below. Medium cows were absent. The bulk of medium and low good cows cashed from 7.25@8.25, with one choice 1715-pound bull at 9.50.

CALVES—Active demand developed and a good clearance was made of the rather liberal supply. Prices generally were steady. Most of the supply came from Arizona and the Imperial Valley. Odd head, straight and part loads of good to choice vealers turned from 14.50@16.00, while the bulk of calves, averaging 200 to 440 pounds, sold from 13.50@15.50. Offerings also included several lots of plain milk vealers, while very thin calves, including plain bluetop, sold down to 5.00.

HOGS—Demand was not very broad and the market was slow at uneven prices. Higher asking prices stowed up the bulk of commercial and lights, most of butchers were still unsold. Sales made were largely steady with a shade lower on weights making 8.00, with two small loads of 227 and 231-pound averages at 8.10. Medium 190 to 210-pound butchers were quoted from 14.00@16.00.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: Scattered buying of pig iron continues at St. Louis, but matters are disposed to hold off filling full second quarter requirements. Movements on contracts continue heavy and a fair volume of fill in buying is being done.

Sheet sellers in the district report demand so far this month is above average. One of the most interesting instances mentioned was that involving about 10,000 tons of plates, shapes and bars for new gondola repairs for the Norfolk and Western Railroad. Heavy coke demand still is encountered in New England, while at Pittsburgh pig iron sales continues in a strong position.

Contract shipments are heavy and spot buyers are being forced to pay higher prices for regular mill material. Sheet steel strap prices are holding at Chicago and several strengthening factors tend to make still further gains. Copper is strong at 18c. Connecticut. Zinc is quiet at 6.30c East St. Louis. Lead is strongest at 6.15 New York And 6.00 East St. Louis. Tin is steady at 49.00.

LOS ANGELES MARKET

CATTLE—Approximately 60 per cent of yesterday's comparatively small supply was steers from California, Arizona, Utah and Idaho. Early sales of steers were around 10c higher, but after the early spurt the market settled back to largely a steady basis. Fat stock in light supply and readily sold directly to strictly prices. Other classes ruled firm.

Three cars of good 1097-pound Imperial Valley steers topped at 11.60. Will Wall was paid for three loads of good 1282 to 1306-pound Idaho fed bullocks and a car of 1054-pound averages, from a Glendale, California feed lot. The bulk of medium steers went over from 10.40@11.25. Heifers and mixed yearlings paid 9.50@10.50, with one load of common steers turned from 8.50@9.00.

A load of medium 635-pound Arizona heifers realized 9.75, while part lots of Arizona heifers sold up to 10.25 and above. A load of medium 635-pound Arizonas brought 9.50, with plainer heifers down to 9.00 and below. Medium cows were absent. The bulk of medium and low good cows cashed from 7.25@8.25, with one choice 1715-pound bull at 9.50.

CALVES—Active demand developed and a good clearance was made of the rather liberal supply. Prices generally were steady. Most of the supply came from Arizona and the Imperial Valley. Odd head, straight and part loads of good to choice vealers turned from 14.50@16.00, while the bulk of calves, averaging 200 to 440 pounds, sold from 13.50@15.50. Offerings also included several lots of plain milk vealers, while very thin calves, including plain bluetop, sold down to 5.00.

HOGS—Demand was not very broad and the market was slow at uneven prices. Higher asking prices stowed up the bulk of commercial and lights, most of butchers were still unsold. Sales made were largely steady with a shade lower on weights making 8.00, with two small loads of 227 and 231-pound averages at 8.10. Medium 190 to 210-pound butchers were quoted from 14.00@16.00.

HOOVER HAILED VOICE OF WEST

President-elect Represents New Civilization

W. A. White Says California Has Come of Age

Emporia Editor Here to Deliver Address

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Feb. 25.—With the inauguration of Herbert Hoover as President of the United States, California and the West will become of age politically, according to William Allen White, the "Sage of Emporia," who, accompanied by Mrs. White, is a guest at the Hotel Flintridge-Biltmore.

The genial editor of the Emporia Gazette explained in answer to a question that he came to California to rest, but, in Tommy Tucker, I'm paying our way by singing for my supper." On Tuesday at 4:15 p.m. he will speak at the California Institute of Technology on "What Kind of a World Shall We Make?"

Asked what he thought of the new administration, the Kansan said: "President Coolidge has been a grand President. He is absolutely honest and shrewd as a human Yankee would dare be, but he has taken the West secondhand."

"Coolidge was never in a Pullman until he was nominated for Vice-President, so he was forced to govern the West by ear rather than by map; but, at that, he has done much better than 'pretty good.' He was a man for the times.

HOOVER PASSED AROUND

"But, in Hoover, the West speaks; not merely California, not even only California, but through Hoover the West, which is not just a place on the map, but an attitude of mind, will find its voice.

"It is a fine thing about democracy that it rotates political crops. The West, who was of the South and here civilization based on cotton, came Harding, the Ohioan, and after him came Coolidge, who gave us that economy that made New England, and after him comes the tall corn of Iowa and the big men of new civilization of California coming in the person of Hoover. So we pass our rulers around, and in a quarter of a century, every part of the country has its men in the White House.

"This is the day of the West—not the West of the drug store cowboy, but the West of a great agriculture, the West of a noble life realized in a splendid civilization, the new West where yesterday's visions are today's realities. That is Hoover in the White House."

FARM PROBLEM SERIOUS

When the subject of farming relief was mentioned by the interviewer, Mr. White's eyes dropped to the panorama of palatial homes nearly 1000 feet beneath the hillside hotel. Instead of the white houses and cool gardens, he envisaged hot corn fields and perspiring men. While discussing other topics, the Kansan's face was wreathed in smiles, but, "farm relief are nothing to grin about," he said.

"The farm problem is real and if it cannot solve it within a few years our democracy will hit toe nails. The farmer's dollar was declared in 1921 when the currency was contracted by calling in credit. But the McNary-Haugen idea will not restore the farmer's dollars. It is a big job—a long, hard trek back to agricultural prosperity and many times enter into the problem, which likely is this: The American farmer is competing with peasants who have a low economic standard.

NEVER PEASANTS

"Argentina and Russian peasants are competing with the Kansas farmer in wheat growing, South African peasants are raising cheap cotton, Indian peasants are growing rice, Islanders are growing canned fruit, while dressed in a shirt and living on bean soup. The American farmer will never be a peasant. He has his Ford and his radio, his high school and his moving pictures, and he has a chance to be President.

"We can't degrade him into the European outstanding among the farmers

Records Recall Old Time Warden

Memories of Years Long Gone

Martin Aguirre is shown here inspecting his old San Quentin prison identification book. He is seated in the hand-carved teakwood chair built for him by San Quentin convicts when he was warden of the penal institution.

AGUIRRE LAST OLD SHERIFF

Deeds of Valor Mark Life of Veteran Officer Who Served City Since Adobe Days

BY HARRY CARR

Martin Aguirre was one of the last of the old-time California sheriffs. He was one of the few old-timers who played a big part in the old days when Los Angeles was a sleepy little adobe town and continued to play a big part in the new day of the skyscrapers, radio and the automobiles.

I will always remember Martin as one of the finest character I have ever known. He had the blind courage of a fighting bull terrier, the tender sympathies of a girl and a soul unblemished by dishonor. One of his finest traits was his passionate loyalty to his friends.

I knew him first when I was a little scared newspaper reporter, trying my best to cover the important beat of Superior Courts. Martin was a bailiff in one of the courts. He became for me a harbor of refuge, a gentle friend to whom I never turned in vain.

In Martin's blood ran the finest blood of old Spain.

His father was Jose Antonio Aguirre. He was a sailor—a ship captain. He played an important role in the hearts of all the early day flappers of the sweet old rancho days of California. In those days there were no department stores with Friday "white sales." The senoritas had to depend upon the ships that came in from China, from Peru and from the far islands of the sea.

Capt. Aguirre had five ships. He sent them to China for silks, which came back in huge chests—of scarlet and gold and lined with camphor wood. He brought back rich and rare laces from Peru; and many a herd of cattle gave up their hides and tallow to cater to the vanities of the daughters of the great ranches.

Although he put in to Santa Barbara and sometimes at San Pedro, his home port was at San Diego. It was at that port that Martin and his brothers and sisters were born.

BOUGHT PROPERTY

Some of the profits from his voyages El Capitan invested in good California land. He had eleven leagues of land in the vicinity of the present town of San Jacinto, Ranchos San Jacinto Viejo and San

MRS. DORSEY RECIPIENT OF HONORS

Ella Flagg Young Medal Bestowed in Recognition of Outstanding Work

Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, former superintendent of Los Angeles city schools, last night was awarded the Ella Flagg Young medal for the outstanding work by a woman in American education during the last year. The award was made by the National Council of Advancement of Women in Education in session at Cleveland, O.

Last night's citation is the first medal awarded by the national council and in honor of Ella Flagg Young, the first woman superintendent of schools in the United States. She held that position in Chicago.

For nine years Mrs. Dorsey guided the development of the local school system and was pointed out in the citation that she directed the work of taking care of a school population that increased more than 20,000 annually, and supervised the expenditure of $80,000,000.

YANKEE CORDIALITY LIKED

American Sociability Refreshing to Perry When He Calls to Mind Reticence of Britons

[Mr. Perry is an English newspaper man and holder of a Walter Hines Page Fellowship in Journalism, under which British journalists spend several months each year on the staffs of American newspapers for the consequent better understanding between the countries. At home Mr. Perry is one of the editors of Reuter's International News Agency. He will be a guest of The Times staff for a month.—Ed. Times.]

BY ALFRED P. PERRY

Americans are a sociable people. Their hospitality and easy cordiality are but few facts of this truth. Strange to say, they seem to like their fellow-men and to prefer the company of others to their own. An English schoolboy has defined a friend as "one who knows you well, but likes you anyway." Americans apparently see no such necessity for probing their acquaintances before accepting them as friends.

In the course of my short stay in the United States I have noticed many little signs all pointing to the same conclusion.

The suburbs of New York gave the first clew. There were the familiar rows of dwelling houses with their little lawns and gardens at the back; but all lay open to each other, often without even a wire fence to screen one from its neighbor. In England each little plot would be surrounded by a high brick wall to keep out prying eyes. Here in season the master of the house will roll his few square feet of grass or tend a bed of struggling flowers. He is monarch of all he surveys, secure from the buffets of the outside world except when a ball from those brats in No. 33 lands on his outraged pate. The Englishman's home is his castle and he keeps its battlements in good repair.

ANOTHER SIGN

Again, the lighted windows of cafes and hotel lounges here reveal more than worthy citizens employed in the pleasant tasks of nourishment and rumination. They show that the American does not grudge his fellows the privilege of watching his content.

In England tight-drawn blinds

VALIANT CAREER ENDED BY DEATH

Martin Aguirre, Veteran of Law Force, Succumbs

Old-Time Officer Hero of Jail Break and Flood

Held Offices of Sheriff and Prison Warden

Martin Aguirre, 71 years of age, one of California's most colorful peace officers, died yesterday morning after a protracted illness. His passing broke another link between the California that was and the California that is.

Two funeral services will be conducted Thursday morning, one at the Church of the Angels at the Plaza, where requiem mass will be said, and the other at the Elks' Temple. The latter services, to be conducted at 10 a.m., will precede the church services, and will be conducted by Exalted Ruler J. J. Doyle of Lodge No. 99, assisted by other lodge officers. Burial will be in Calvary.

The active pallbearers will include William A. Hamel, former Sheriff; Sheriff Traeger, Undersheriff Biscailuz, Capt. J. D. Hunter, Capt. A. C. Jewell and Deputy Sheriff Jack Wilmot.

DIED YESTERDAY

In the shadow of the Sheriff's office and County Jail, to which he had given so many years of his long career, the one-time constable, Sheriff and penitentiary warden died yesterday morning shortly after 10 o'clock peacefully, less than two hours after he had lighted his last cigarette.

"Strong, unafraid—like the real man he was," was the way one of those who were present when he died characterized his passing.

His half-brother, Manuel Ferrer; Bill Hammel, Sheriff Traeger, Undersheriff Biscailuz and Jack Wilmot were among those in the room with Martin when he died. His oldest sister, Mrs. Dolores Pico, and her daughter Ruth were racing to Los Angeles from San Diego in order to be with him but arrived too late. He is survived by another sister, also, Mrs. William H. Carlson of Pasadena.

Aguirre had been ill nearly a year, his condition varying from time to time. About a month ago he was brought in from his sister's ranch in San Jacinto and taken to a room in the hotel where he "could keep his eyes on things." He laughed off any suggestion of a hospital.

HAS LAST SMOKE

Only last Saturday he conferred with Undersheriff Biscailuz, whom he had taken on the Sheriff's force as a young man, and ordered a car in which to resume his duties again. Sitting up in bed in the hotel room, he smoked his cigarette, reminded Jack Wilmot to "have those new shoes ready" and informed those around him that he would be back on the job in a few days now. Sunday he was not feeling so well.

Yesterday morning, with the small group of friends present, he was plainly weakening fast. He called for a cigarette, which he lighted.

"He smoked a little," said his brother, but "pretty soon he could not hold the cigarette any more and I took it from him. Soon he became unconscious and an hour and a half later he was dead."

Martin was elected constable of Los Angeles county in 1885 and Sheriff of the county in 1887. Before taking that office he prevented a jail break of fourteen men who had planned to fight their way out. He lay on the floor and with h's gun held the prisoners at bay. His career was such that there are endless stories of his daring, his courage and his manliness. He was appointed warden of San Quentin penitentiary in 1899, which post he held until 1903. When he retired in that year he went to San Salvador to supervise the construction of a penitentiary there for the government.

When he returned to Los Angeles shortly after, he became deputy sheriff under Sheriff Hammel, who had been at one time his own deputy. Martin has been a deputy sheriff ever since.

HERO OF FLOOD

Among his heroic exploits was his rescue work in the terrific flood of the Los Angeles River in 1886 at which time he was a deputy sheriff. He was an expert horseman and all one night in February he rode warning people down along Center street. By morning houses and sheds were being washed down the torrential stream. Time and again he rode into the roaring flood and took out men, women and children, until he had saved the lives of nineteen persons.

For his bravery in the flood res-

KERCKHOFF LAID TO REST

Power Developer Eulogized in Impressive Rites Conducted at Family Home

In the presence of hundreds of California leaders with whom he had worked hand in hand for nearly half a century in helping to build giant hydroelectric power system in California final rites were conducted yesterday afternoon in the family residence at 734 West Adams street for William G. Kerckhoff, pioneer financier and former head of several of the State's leading power, lumber and real-estate organizations.

In eulogizing Mr. Kerckhoff during the brief home service, Rev. E. Stanton Hodgin of the Unitarian Church spoke of Mr. Kerckhoff's life as one reflecting service, honesty, sincerity and co-operation, who placed all his energy in the task of giving to a major portion of California its electric power.

"Our friend has built himself into this community and into its heart and affection," Dr. Hodgin eulogized.

ROSES FOR BACKGROUND

Red roses formed a background for the casket, banked by more than 100 floral pieces, offerings from relatives, friends and organizations.

The widow, Mrs. Louise Kehman Kerckhoff, and the two daughters, Mrs. Webster B. Holmes and Mrs. Gerald C. Young, sat with more than twenty near relatives during the services.

The casket was escorted from the house by the six active pallbearers, Stuart O'Melveny, James R. Page, Guy Cuzner, Donald O'Melveny, R. J. Schweppe and Thomas Reynolds.

A short prayer by Dr. Hodgin constituted the interment services at Evergreen Cemetery.

Mr. Kerckhoff died last Friday following an illness of ten days. He had suffered from heart disease for many years, but his health re-

ACTRESS BATTLES GRIM REAPER HARD

VICTIM OF DRUG MAKES LIFE FIGHT

Chances of Alma Rubens in Battle Against Death Declared Only Even

Alma Rubens, film actress who has been critically ill as the result of drug addiction, is making a desperate fight for life, it was stated by relatives last night. It was further declared that she has been at the point of death several times within the past few days, and now has about an even chance for recovery.

The film actress is at the home of her mother, Mrs. Theresa Rubens. It had been the intention of the Federal government to use Miss Rubens as a witness in the grand jury inquiry into the asserted drug traffic in Los Angeles. The inquiry is scheduled to start Friday, but the precarious condition of the actress will preclude calling her at this time, it is believed. Only close relatives and the doctors are permitted near her bedside.

The actress has been counted on as one of their important witnesses by Federal agents who for two months have been conducting an inquiry into the drug traffic in Los Angeles. It was learned from authoritative sources yesterday that twelve grand jury subpoenas had been issued. The names of those for whom these were issued is not disclosed. They are returnable Friday morning.

U. S. Dist.-Atty. McNabb declined to make a direct statement pertaining to the government's intentions but it is reported that a number of physicians asserted to have been indiscriminate in handing out narcotic prescriptions are to come under careful scrutiny. The investigation is designed to produce indictments.

Physicians and druggists, along with known drug smugglers, are expected to be involved in the investigation. Mr. McNabb was asked if Dr. I. Jesse Citron, Beverly Hills physician whose name was found on more than two dozen narcotic prescriptions issued to Alma Rubens, would be called, but he refused information.

Following collapse of the actress a month ago she was removed to a sanatorium. Recently she was taken from the Hollywood Hospital to the home of her mother and treatments designed to cure her of the drug habit were started.

Three days ago the administration of small quantities of the drug in the course of the treatment was discontinued. Reaction followed and yesterday her condition was considered so critical that a consultation was held by the doctors.

Miss Rubens's husband, Ricardo Cortez, film actor, is constantly at his wife's bedside.

CITY WINS NEW VICTORY IN UNION STATION FIGHT

District of Columbia Court Ruling That I.C.C. Can Order Depot Paves Way for Final Step

Another important victory in Los Angeles' long struggle to have the Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and Santa Fe railroads unite in building in the Plaza area a union passenger station in keeping with the city's needs and dignity was won by the city yesterday in the form of an affirmative decision handed down by the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia.

The decision finds that the Interstate Commerce Commission has authority to order the railroads to build the station on proper finding of facts, and directs the commission to proceed in the matter. Both the commission and the railroads have taken the position that the commission does not have such authority. The city takes the position that it has.

As a matter of history, the commission already has gone into the matter and found that public convenience and necessity require such a station, and that the railroads well can build it. However, the commission was so doubtful of specific authority that it went no further, and the city under City Attorney Stephens carried the dispute into the courts to this victorious conclusion.

It is expected that the commission at once will appeal to the United States Supreme Court from the Appeals Court decision, so that the last and final word in the dispute may be had. Mr. Stephens expresses no fear as to the outcome.

JUSTICE QUOTED

An Associated Press dispatch from Washington quotes Justice Van Orsdel of the Court of Appeals as stating in the decision:

"We think that the Interstate Commerce Commission was in error in holding that it is without power under the Transportation Act to require the carriers to construct a union station. The act specifically imposes the power and duty, when required by public convenience and necessity, to convert the passenger and freight station of one interstate carrier into a union station, and it would be inconsistent to grant this power without the analogous power of requiring a number of carriers converging at a given point to erect for the convenience of the traveling public and the carriers themselves an interstate union station.

"We think the act clearly manifests the intention of Congress to give the Interstate Commerce Commission jurisdiction over the rearranging and extension of terminals and the establishment of union depots by converging interstate railroad lines and to limit the jurisdiction of the State commissions to matters purely intrastate, and such exercise of police power as may be essential over the interstate lines within the State."

The court points out that the contention of the carriers that they may not be required to extend their trackage to a union station is without merit, because no material extention of trackage will be required, but only a convenient readjustment of existing lines.

The court points out that the three carriers enter the city from the north and pass under what is known as the North Broadway viaduct over the Los Angeles river.

STEPHENS ELATED

"We have been winning on the facts for years and now we are beginning to win on legal points as well," City Attorney Stephens commented. "The decision is an extremely important victory for the city, it appears from telegraphic information before me. Max Thelen, formerly president of the California Railroad Commission, who has been special counsel in this case with me in recent years, has telegraphed congratulations from San Francisco.

"This action first was brought by the city in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, which is the trial court of the district, having jurisdiction similar to our Superior Court, to compel the Interstate Commerce Commission to take jurisdiction and to issue an order, if the evidence so justifies, compelling the railroads to build a union station.

"We have contended on behalf of the city that the commission has jurisdiction itself to compel the railroads to build the union station. The members of the commission took the view, however, that their jurisdiction extended only to approving the order of the State Rail-

COMEDIAN VICTIM OF PTOMAINE

Chaplin's Illness from Food Poisoning Declared Not Serious by Doctor

Charles Chaplin, motion-picture comedian, will be confined to his home for four or more days as a result of ptomaine poisoning, according to announcement last night by his physician, Dr. Cecil Reynolds. The physician has advised Chaplin to remain quiet to insure quick recovery.

As a result of his illness work was suspended on Chaplin's current production. Chaplin appeared for work yesterday morning, but when he complained of feeling ill Dr. Reynolds was called. At first it was believed he had intestinal influenza, but later diagnosis revealed he was a victim of ptomaine poisoning.

Dr. Reynolds removed Chaplin to his home, where he treated him at once. Dr. Reynolds declares there is no cause for alarm over the comedian's condition and that he undoubtedly will be able to return to the studio before the week is over.

PALO VERDE BILL BACKED BY CHAMBER

Directors Approve Sale of Lands in District as Proposed in Measure

At its last meeting the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce went on record as favoring the sale of patents to entrymen of land in the Palo Verde Mesa and Chuckawalla Valley, which is proposed in a bill now before Congress. Announcement of the chamber's stand was made yesterday by A. G. Arnoll, secretary and general manager.

The chamber was requested to approve the bill by the Palo Verde Mesa and Chuckawalla Valley Development Association.

Approximately 253,000 acres of land are contained within the district. Of this total about 200,000 acres are being considered under the proposed irrigation and cultivation project. About 137,000 acres can be irrigated by gravity and a small pump lift.

The chamber committee found that there are about 150,000 acres of government-land (homestead and desert entry filings) in the 200,000 acres. Not more than 50,000 acres are deed lands. Not less than 800 persons have government land filings in the district. More than 300 are involved in ownership of deeded lands.

J. C. PORTER IN MAYOR RACE

"Integrity of Public Officials" Made Keynote of His Campaign by 1928 Grand Jury Member

John C. Porter, head of the Auto Salvage and Supply Company and a prominent member of the 1928 grand jury, yesterday announced his candidacy for Mayor of Los Angeles. He will make a militant campaign, he declared, for the establishment of honesty in public official life.

Mr. Porter issued the following statement:

"Integrity of public officials means the complete abolishment of corrupt public officials. In the year's work of the grand jury we learned very thoroughly the structure of this city so that the man who goes from the grand jury to the Mayor's office will know exactly where to move to clean up the city.

"Integrity of public officials means a good deal more than just convicting and punishing public officials after they have cheated and betrayed the people. It means throwing them out of office whenever and wherever they are found, and placing in office only those men and women who desire to serve the great common people rather than special or self-interests.

"Integrity of public officials means having an administration that will handle the common people's business in such a way that people do not lose their homes through special assessments; that their tax burdens are relieved through honest administration rather than increased by a plunder gang.

"Integrity of public officials means that legitimate business can carry on without secretly 'greasing the palm' of corrupt officials.

"The public wants honest individuals in office. Los Angeles has requisite laws now for a clean city and an honest administration. It has been through corrupt maladministration that we have suffered, and it is because of this that I am making my platform 100 per cent for integrity of public officials."

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

I HAVE been a little brother to Hollywood for a long time.

But, still, I can't seem to get used to the tumultuous rate of speed of the film colony romances.

As, for instance, all these gurgling and flapperish preparations for a marriage between the divorced Miss Lita Gray and the not-yet-divorced Signor Giusti, who is known to the screen as Roy D'Arcy.

The remodeled love affairs of Hollywood take on too much the color of a used-car mart.

THE BUSINESS OF LOVE

But, after all, there is something to be said on the other side.

These Hollywood actors are in the business of making love. That's how they earn their board and keep. On the mimic screen they come out of one romance and into another; and these loves are more or less real to them all the time.

They just naturally—how shall we say it tactfully?—gain versatility of the affections.

OH, WELL—

This San Francisco kidnaping case will end, as usual, in ridicule for the courts of law.

The confessed kidnaper concedes that she must kinda of been insane or somethin'. And her husband can't legally testify against her.

The probable result will be that she will be put on probation to a maiden aunt, or somebody about to leave for parts unknown—and that will be that.

THE FAIR-HAIRED CHILD

There seems to be considerable sense to what Mayor Jimmie Walker said about France:

That since the World War that interesting country considers it to be the duty of the world to give her everything she wants.

France suggests the case of a companion of my childhood. He had a weak heart. Consequently he always had to be the batter in all the ball games; never could be "it;" had to be allowed to fudge in marbles, and always had to be the one who rode the pony.

The latest suggestion that the American movie interests should finance the rival motion-picture operations of France is just about six points beyond the limit.

HIGH ADVENTURE

The most interesting adventurers left in a drab world are the newspaper boys—like Larry Rue and Floyd Gibbons.

All the polar explorations poured into one do not equal the perils of Mr. Rue's airplane trip to interview the King of Afghanistan.

During the war Floyd Gibbons gleefully accepted an assignment from the Chicago Tribune to ride back and forth across the ocean until his ship was sunk by a German sub. His story of the sinking was one of the classics of war corresponding.

BIDS ON THREE BOND ISSUES OPENED TODAY

Bids on three large bond issues will be opened by the City Council today. The issues are $1,000,000 of funding bonds, which were voted to pay claims of sufferers from the St. Francis Dam disaster; $900,000 of bridge and viaduct bonds, this amount being the unsold portion of a large issue voted several years ago for the building of several bridges across the Los Angeles River; and $5,500,000 of water and electric plant bonds.

Jacobson "Frame-up" Indictments Attacked at Arraignment

CALLIE GRIMES REMAINS AWAY

Illness Causes Absence of Detective Wallis

Argument Continued Until 2 p.m. Tomorrow

Defense Holds True Bills Fail to Show Plot

A vigorous legal attack on the indictments charging five police officers, a woman and two others with a conspiracy to "frame" the arrest eighteen months ago of Councilman Jacobson in a morals raid, was launched in Superior Judge Shaw's court yesterday when the defendants appeared for pleas.

Mrs. Callie Grimes, indicted as the "lure" in the case, but a State's witness, did not appear, however, and as the arguments on demurrers were started, the case was continued until 2 p.m. tomorrow, when the District Attorney's office says she will be in court.

An affidavit was presented at the hearing showing that Capt. of Detectives Wallis, one of the defendants, is ill in a hospital and unable to attend the session.

The six others, Captain of Detectives Williams, Detective Cox, former Detective Raymond, former Detective-Lieutenant Lucas, Charles Crawford, Hollywood business man and politician, and Albert Marco, convicted vice-ruler, were present with their attorneys.

INDICTMENT ATTACKED

Attorney Giesler, counsel for Crawford, opened the attack on the true bills, asserting that although the defendants are accused of a conspiracy the indictments are insufficient because they could not definitely establish the innocence of Jacobson on the charge for which he was arrested.

The attorney cited court records that the Councilman had been tried on the charge of "resorting" with Mrs. Grimes, that the jury disagreed and the case finally was dismissed without a verdict.

Further, the attorney held in argument, it is not unlawful for officers to band together for the purpose of arresting one about to commit a crime. He presented law citations to the court intended to support his argument.

"Entrapment is no defense," Giesler said. "If it is a fact that Jacobson was trapped in the raid, the asserted plot contained in the indictment is certainly not a conspiracy because the innocence of the asserted victim is not set forth in the indictment."

Attorney White, representing Marco, argued that the grand jury acted illegally in voting the indictments because its investigation of the Jacobson case was completed and closed once for insufficient evidence to indict.

The cause for the postponement of the arguments is that Attorney Schenck, Cooper and other counsel were not served with the indictments against their clients until yesterday, and they asked for more time in which to prepare motions and arguments to join the general attack.

MRS. GRIMES FOUND

A mild flurry occurred when Mrs. Grimes did not appear in court. The report went forth that she was mysteriously missing. Representatives of the District Attorney's office said she had promised to appear. Investigators were ordered to search for her.

Later in the day her whereabouts became known. Dep. Dist.-Attys. Dennison and Bush, handling the prosecution, left the District Attorney's office hurriedly, with the intimation that they were going to question her further in the preparation of the State's case. No great alarm was felt for her safety.

Mrs. Grimes became a State's witness on of the indictments after she caused a purported affidavit to be published several months ago in which she accused the officers, the politician and Marco of obtaining her services to "get" Jacobson because of his attacks on organized vice.

She was arrested with the Councilman in August, 1927, when the police who are named as conspirators conducted a raid on her Beagle-street cottage, arrested Jacobson on a charge of "resorting" and her on other morals charges.

COX DEMANDS TRIAL ON GRIMES CHARGES

Patrolman Frank B. Cox, brother-in-law of Mrs. Callie Grimes and one of the seven men indicted by the county grand jury in her asserted "frame-up" of Councilman Jacobson in the morals case brought against him, yesterday filed an application with the Police Commission for a hearing of the charges on which he was removed from the police department by Chief Davis.

Cox was one of the group of officers removed from the department by Chief Davis following their indictment. Under the City Charter provisions he has applied for a hearing of the charges as to his dismissal. The application is expected to come up before the Police Commission at its session today, in which event a date will be set for his trial and witnesses will be subpoenaed.

TRAMP LABEL AROUSES WIFE

She Gets Divorce Because Her Husband Assertedly Aimed That Title at Her

Alva V. Adams was actuated by philanthropic motives when he wed Elsie Adams, for after they were married he told her she had been a tramp and the only reason he married her was to keep her from starving to death, she told Superior Judge Bartlett yesterday when asking for a divorce.

The wife also testified that her romance began in Arizona, ending with the marriage ceremony being performed on January 20, 1921, at St. Johns. She said her husband insisted that she live in camps with his mother. She also complained that her husband called her a bonehead and told her she was ignorant.

A decree was granted.

Bakery Robbery Attempt Charged

'HATCHET' HOLD-UP BALKED

Suspect Caught After Chase from Bakery But Other Victims Fail to Identify Him

Shown up in the police shadow box to managers of more than a dozen Van de Kamp bakery stores held up in the last two months John De Cuir, 35 years of age, captured yesterday morning by citizens in a spirited chase after his asserted attempt to hold up the Van de Kamp Bakery at 4617 West Washington Boulevard, escaped identification in any of the other robberies, Captain of Detectives Cahill stated.

While De Cuir, who said he is the husband of Mrs. Mae De Cuir, manager of one of the Van De Kamp branch bakeries in Santa Monica, stoutly denied he had attempted a robbery yesterday, police say he ran from the bakery and threw away a small wooden hatchet.

Miss Grace Morgan, manager of the bakery; Mike Okaura, proprietor of a vegetable market at 4606 West Washington Boulevard; A. R. Collins, manager of the West Side State Bank, and Chief Willowtree of the Ramona Indian Village are credited with De Cuir's capture. Miss Morgan stated that when De Cuir entered the store and ordered "Hands up" she ran, crying for help, out a rear door, and around the building to the front.

There her cries attracted Okaura, Collins and the Indian chief just as De Cuir is said to have dashed out the front door. A block away a street car was approaching and De Cuir ran for it. As he was about to leap aboard Collins and Chief Willowtree grabbed him and Okaura twisted the captive's arm and held him until the police arrived. The little wooden hatchet, Capt. Cahill stated, De Cuir used to represent a revolver held inside a coat pocket.

PERRY PRAISES OUR SOCIABILITY

and frosted glass will tell the passer-by that it is none of his business if Mr. Smith enjoys his soup or Mr. Jones is spotting winners with a pin. The only popular resort where we English throw off our suspicion of each other is the "public house;" here beer and brotherhood abound, and the brimming tankard is the key to all mens' hearts. If prohibition sets her ice-blue seal on those magic doors we will be in peril of becoming a nation of recluses.

Then there is the matter of breakfast. My recent experience of a California breakfast club was as novel as it was delightful.

MISANTHROPY RULES

In England the first meal of the day is sacred to misanthropy. The master of the house entrenches himself behind the bulwark of his morning paper and conversation is confined to such daring phrases as "More coffee, please," or "Pass the marmalade!" Wise women do not choose this moment to suggest new hats or mention that the car is old; they wait till the day's bustle has quickened mere man's brain so that he may be fit to recognize the truth.

The very idea of a breakfast club would seem almost sacrilegious to the Englishman at home. Speeches, jazz and comic songs at 9 a.m. would strike his soul with horror and the sincerest expressions of good fellowship which would be welcomed with the evening port would be received in stony silence with the marmalade.

WAGER OFFERED

I will wager that more wives have been murdered in England for chattering at breakfast than on any other count in the list of connubial crimes. A French jury usually may be trusted to acquit a husband who has shown his devotion to the marriage tie by drilling holes through a spouse who has looked too kindly on a rival. An English jury would send him sternly to the gallows; but I suspect that did he club Madame with the teapot for untimely eloquence he would escape on a plea of justifiable homicide. Always provided, of course, that the jury was composed of men; women have such odd ideas.

The Americans have been accused of having the "mob mind," of taking their politics and pleasures like a flock of sheep. I think the gibe is less than just. Their desire to be together springs surely from a not unnoble affection for their fellow men. Isolation is not necessarily splendid; it is a trait of snakes as well as supermen.

PEOPLE IN MASSES

Modern civilization is increasingly communal; people mass by thousands in the factory and by hundreds in the cinema, sleep in apartment-houses which are glorified barracks, eat in cafes which are really regimental messes. Mass mechanization has gone further in the United States and it is only natural that the people should have adapted themselves to their environment.

The same influences are at work all over the civilized world producing the same result, though less quickly because the spirit of a former age still lingers. But I doubt if there is much fundamental difference between the life of white city dwellers the world over, and what differences there are tend to disappear; London is really not so far from Los Angeles, though, alas! without her climate. But we have our British beer!

Mrs. Amy Simmons, 30 years of age, of 1939 Holly Drive, died last night in General Hospital, more than thirty hours after attempting suicide by two methods. AGUIRRE FIGURE OF OLD TIMES

Jacinto Nuevo both belonged to him.

He was related to the Dominguez family and with them owned large properties between Los Angeles and the present city of Long Beach.

Many of Martin's stories of the early days centered upon riding herd with the cattle upon those great estates.

When Martin was a very young boy his father married again, and Martin left the family and came to live with William Wolfskill.

Wolfskill was a trapper who had come here in the very early days from Kentucky and had married one of the girls of the Estudillo family—related to Martin's mother, who was also an Estudillo.

The Wolfskill ranch was a great tract of land of which the present Southern Pacific depot is now the center. The old homestead was about where the ice plant now stands. Wolfskill planted one of the first big vineyards in Southern California and was responsible for most of the great palms which still stand here and there around the city.

FULL OF ADVENTURE

Martin's life with that family was happy. As a little boy he went to a school on the corner of Main and Second streets and attended mass Sundays at the old mission church on the plaza, there being no other Catholic church in Los Angeles at that time.

Gayety and adventure bubbled up in his little Spanish heart. He has often told me about one of his kid pranks. In those days the water system of Los Angeles was a series of zanjas (water ditches.) There was one on the present Central avenue. The zanja had a drop in grade, making a pretty good-sized waterfall. Martin rigged up a gate below the falls, so that it made a little lake perhaps 100 feet across—a cracking good swimming hole. This had to be done when they knew the zanjero was nowhere about. Martin's trick was to pluck some good sharp nettles and anchor them down in the water with rocks tied to strings. When the boys dived they would hit these and pull plants and come up hollering. The hoofbeats of the zanjero's horse would send them scampering half-dressed.

One day he and some young boys were playing with bows and arrows (Los Angeles was at that time full of Indians.) Someone shot an arrow into the air. Martin unthinkingly looked up and an arrow struck his left eye, leaving him half-blinded for life.

While still a little boy he made a friendship that lasted through his life. This was with William A. Hammel, who afterward became Sheriff, with Martin as a deputy.

Hammel told me the other day of one of Martin's exploits as a fireman. There were two volunteer fire companies at that time. He and Martin joined Confidence Company No. 2. The firehouse was a few doors north of First street on Main. The grand steam fire engine was pulled by the baker's horses—when they could find the baker. The hose wagon was drawn by hand.

The fire alarm was given sometimes by a bell; sometimes by the nearest bartender who rushed out to the door and began firing a pistol. Hammel says that Martin, at the Wolfskill ranch, had a little roan pony which could run like a jackrabbit. At the sound of the alarm, he used to throw himself onto the roan pony and come tearing across the fields to the fire house, swinging a lasso as he came. When he got to the fire house he would lasso the end of the hose wagon and tear off down the rutty roads with the thing bounding and bouncing along in the trail of the pony.

TOO BUSY TO FEAR

While still a boy Martin was elected Town Constable; and, as a matter of course, appointed Billy Hammel as his deputy.

Those were the days of cattle thieves and rustlers. He and Hammel went into some pretty hot mixups, riding the length and breadth of the empire that was then Los Angeles county.

I asked Martin one day during his illness if he had never been afraid. He lay there in bed like an one-eyed lion. His face relaxed into a smile as he answered: "Well you know how it is, Harry, you feel a little nervous when you are walking in on them; but when the fuss starts you are so busy saving your life it doesn't occur to you to be afraid."

NEVER CARRIED GUN

Martin and Hammel had one curious fracas. Martin had a warrent to serve on a man who was known as a bad hombre. He happened to come across him on Spring street—just below First.

Martin pulled the big razor-sharp bowie that he always carried; backed the crook off into a doorway and handed him the warrent.

"Stick up your hands," said Martin.

Suddenly he felt the muzzle of a gun poked into his own back. "Stick 'em up," said the crook's pal to Martin.

Suddenly the pal felt the muzzle of a gun in his spine and Billie Hammel's voice said to him "Stick 'em up yourself."

They stood there for a moment; then the crook who had the point of Martin's knife in his tum tum stuck up his hands and the group dissolved.

I have never known Martin to carry a gun. He always had the old bowie slung in a sheath in the armhole of his vest. "You see," he explained, "if anything starts I don't know where bullets might go or whom they might hit, but I know where this knife is going."

SAVED NINETEEN PEOPLE

Martin's most famous exploit was his gallantry in saving nineteen people from drowning during the terrific floods of 1886. Whether it had anything to do with the flood or not, Martin told me that just as the flood waters came tearing down the rives bed, two blazing meteors fell, one struck near Long Beach; the other was never found. He was standing near the flooded river watching these meteors when the water came down with an appalling rush.

Houses came floating past with people on the roofs and screaming from the windows, all crying for help.

Martin had a fine saddle horse in a livery stable on Aliso street. He ran for this horse and came back to the river on a dead run. Without hesitation, he headed the horse for the flood and plunged in. They fought their way to one of the houses. Martin seized a woman in his arms and turned his horse back to the bank.

LOST LITTLE GIRL

Nineteen times he made the plunge and nineteen times fought his way through the flood. The last time he picked a little girl out from the window of a house that was rushing and careening by in the flood.

By this time he was terribly exhausted and he could feel the horse weakening underneath him.

He had gone into the raging torrent for the first time at First street; his last trip was made where Seventh street now crosses the river. As they struggled back to the bank—both he and the horse at the end of their strength — they struck a half submerged picket fence. The horse fell and turned over and over in the water as he was flung downstream. Martin had just time to throw the child onto the fence as he was torn from the saddle and tumbled over by the waters. He managed to right himself and—an inch at a time—swam back to the fence where he had left the child. She was gone. To the day of his death, Martin never could tell that story without emotion. There was always an ache in his heart for the little girl he failed to save.

The gallantry of that feat made him Sheriff at the next election. He took Hammel along as deputy. As the years went by, Hammel became Sheriff and Martin his deputy.

When Henry T. Gage became Governor of California he appointed Martin warden of San Quentin. The prison at that time was in a pretty rotten condition. Its curse was the traffic in dope. No one had ever been able to stop it.

Martin called in the entire force of the prison on taking charge. "Gentlemen," he said. "That dope doesn't fly in here and it doesn't crawl in; the prisoners can't go outside to get it. You can draw your own conclusions." They drew them and, for the first time in its history, the dope traffic was licked.

DIES OF CANCER

Gov. Gage was a fighting politician with many powerful enemies. Martin caught the backwash of the muckraking and the fierce scandals at San Quentin. It was the most unhappy period of his life.

His latter days were spent as a deputy of whatever Sheriff happened to be in power in Los Angeles. He was a fixture of the establishment. His most recent service was in cleaning up the County Jail where the walls, until he took charge, seemed to be made of tissue paper, so frequent were the escapes.

Martin died of cancer; but didn't know it. Until the end, he believed that he was only suffering from infection caught in the jail, and that he would soon be well.

Most of his sick days were spent on the old Pico ranch where he could look out across the cattle feeding on the pastures of the old ranch lands that had been his father's.

The sudden death of his brother, Jose Antonio Aguirre, last New Year's Day, while he was on a visit to Martin, was a shock from which he never recovered.

cue he was given a gold watch by the County Bar Association.

When he became jailer he objected to the grewsome task of hanging condemned men and so induced other sheriffs to help put a law through the Legislature putting this duty on the warden of the penitentiary. He was elated over this coup, but later became a victim of his own cleverness when he was appointed warden of the penitentiary.

For years he was a familiar figure around the criminal court rooms, where he served as bailiff and his very striking appearance in addition to his long career marked him as an outstanding figure. He was not a very large man, but he had a fine physique, muscles like iron. He was always very neatly dressed and conducte himself with the manners of a born gentleman. When he rapped for order in his courtrooms, there was order.

CEMENT PLANT FATE UP TODAY

Planning Commission Will Open Hearings

Alphonzo E. Bell Expected to Address Meeting

Foes of Proposal Mass for Fight on Zoning

After months of preliminary skirmishing the battle lines of the proponents and opponents of the proposal to establish a cement plant in Santa Ynez Canyon finally will be joined today. The occasion will be the first public hearing by the City Planning Commission on the application of the Los Angeles Mountain Park Company for removal of the zoning restrictions on the property intended to be used as site of the plant.

The hearing will be in the meeting room of the Board of Public Works on the Spring-street floor of the City Hall. It will convene at 1:30 p.m., adjourn for two hours at 5 p.m. be resumed at 7 p.m. and last until 10 p.m. The commission has little hope that it will be able to hear all of those who wish to speak on both sides today and has decided to continue to hold public hearings at the same hours on successive Tuesdays until it has disposed of the matter.

BELL MAY BE PRESENT

Plans of the Los Angeles Mountain Park Company for presenting the arguments on which it bases its plea for removal of the zoning restrictions have not been disclosed, but it is expected that its president, Alphonzo E. Bell, will be one of those who will address the commission. Rollin V. McNitt, who was once president of the City Planning Commission, has been retained as an attorney by the company, and will direct presentation of its case today.

On the other side will be an array of attorneys representing not only individual property owners surrounding the site of the proposed plant but also various civic bodies from the near-by communities which are up in arms against the proposal. Many individual property owners are expected to ask for an opportunity to register their personal protests against removal of the zoning restrictions.

The application now before the City Planning Commission is the second made by the Mountain Park Company. Last May the commission approved the first application without many of the adjacent property owners even having been aware that it had been filed. After the property owners learned of the intention of the company to establish its cement mill, about 300 of them came to the Council chamber on the day when the Council was scheduled to act on the recommendation of the commission that the application be granted.

WAS WITHDRAWN

The Council postponed action on the matter until the property owners could be given an opportunity to be heard. Before the issue ever came to a head, however, the company withdrew its application.

The scheme became a live issue again when the company announced that it had changed its manufacturing plans so that the plant could be operated without offense to surrounding home and property owners. Its new scheme provided for quarrying and crushing of the limestone on the site and building a pipe line to Santa Monica Bay in which the powdered limestone could be carried in a liquid solution to barges.

Opponents of the original plan are as strenuously opposed to the revised plan as they were to the first. It does not, they declare, prevent ruining the scenery which will follow the carving out of the face of a great hillside and the erection of the ugly factory buildings necessary to house the crushing machinery. Furthermore, they contend, the crushing of the rock at the site would fill the atmosphere for miles around with rock dust, be injurious to human health and the growth of vegetation.

NOT FEASIBLE

Opponents of the plan have stated also that they suspect the good faith of the company in the matter of the pipe line. Engineers they have consulted, have advised that the pipe line is not feasible.

The company, however, applied to the Federal government several months ago for permission to extend such a pipe line out into the bay.

After the Planning Commission has concluded its hearings and made its recommendations the matter will go to the City Council. Even if the commission recommends that the application be denied, the Council would still have to take some action on it, as the recommendation will be made in a report to the Council which must be officially disposed of.

OIL MAGNATE HERE ON SECRET VISIT

Harry F. Sinclair

H. F. SINCLAIR VISITS HERE 'INCOGNITO'

Oil Financier's Movements Veiled in Secrecy, but He Did Fly to Catalina

Harry F. Sinclair, president and chairman of the board of directors of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Corporation, and one of the world's well-known financiers, is having a vacation in Southern California, it was learned yesterday.

His plans during the visit to Los Angeles and other cities are carefully guarded and efforts to locate him at one of the leading hotels developed the information that the oil magnate is traveling incognito and does not care to discuss business affairs during his rest period.

Sinclair and Sheldon Lewis were at the St. Catherine Hotel on Catalina Island over the week-end, making the trip to the resort by plane Saturday morning and returning Sunday afternoon by boat.

Inquiries at the Ambassador, the favorite hostelry of Mr. Sinclair while in Los Angeles, for information as to his probable length of stay and agitivities were met with the somewhat familiar reply where wealthy "incognito" guests are concerned: "There is no one registered here by that name."

UNION STATION VICTORY WON

road Commission, or approving an affirmative application by the railroads themselves, for the expenditure of the necessary money. On this theory the commission gave thorough and complete consideration to the evidence presented to it and, for the second time, handed down a decision in favor of the city on the merit, holding that under the evidence presented the public convenience and necessity require the building of the station and that the expenditure of the money necessary to build such a station will not be an improper financial burden upon the railroads.

IN STATE COURT

"On this theory, the State commission also had made an order compelling the railroads to build a station, to be effective when approved by the interstate commission. From this order, the railroads have carried the matter to the Supreme Court of the State of California by writ of review, where it now is pending.

"It has been my contention from the beginning, however, that the interstate commission has original jurisdiction to make the compulsory order, and this decision now handed down by the highest court of the District of Columbia sustains that contention. Doubtless an appeal now will be taken by the commission to the Supreme Court of the United States, and a final decision then can be reached in the long battle which has been waged to obtain an adequate union passenger station for this city.

"Both Mr. Thelen, who is associated with me, and I are extremely hopeful that this matter may be presented to the Supreme Court of the United States at the coming fall term, which we confidently believe will result in the final victory for this much-needed public improvement."

LEGAL PHASES

The writ of review case of the carriers before the California Supreme Court, mentioned by Stephens, has been resting with that tribunal since last November. It is pointed out that a decision probably will be forthcoming in time for presentation to the United States Supreme Court while that high Federal body is considering the appeal that the interstate commission is expected to file from the decision yesterday.

In that event, A. S. Halsted, Union Pacific general solicitor, said yesterday the United States Supreme Court will be in a position to consider the case completely and hand down decisions that probably will be conclusive in the entire matter. Stephens and his deputy, Milton Bryan, who has been associated with him in the case, expressed a similar view and added that when those decisions come it virtually will have been determined beyond likelihood of further litigation whether Los Angeles will have the union passenger station it so long has desired.

It is not expected by any of the attorneys concerned that the United States Supreme Court decisions will be reached before late this year or early in 1930.

Felix Young on Trial Again in Noah Beery Case

Felix Young, theatrical producer and former business agent for Noah Beery, screen actor, yesterday went on trial for a second time before Judge Wood in Superior Court on a charge of defrauding Beery out of $1500.

Young is asserted to have withheld the amount from $2500 paid to him for Beery's services in a motion picture produced by Lysander Productions.

Young's first trial resulted in a disagreement of the jury. Yesterday he came to court accompanied by Ralph Forbes, Gary Cooper and other actors of the stage and screen who testified in his behalf as character witnesses.

The case is scheduled to go to the jury today.

Entman Rites Will be Today

Funeral services for Theodore Entman, retired building contractor, will be conducted today at 10 a.m. at the Peck & Chase chapel, 1213 South Figueroa street. Burial will be in Inglewood Park Cemetery.

Mr. Entman was prominent in contracting for large buildings several years ago. Among the many structures he erected Polytechnic High School is one of the best known. His death came suddenly on Saturday. He was 61 years of age, and leaves a daughter, Mrs. George H. Shepland, 3643 Platt avenue, Lynwood, and a son, Eric W. Entman of Riverside.

Today's Bible Text

Come now, and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool. Isaiah 1:18.

ROADS AND ROAMERS

The Romans were said to have built good roads ages ago, but they didn't do the roamin' that folks are doing today.

COLONIAL NAMES

Mention is made of the marriage in Massachusetts of Paul Revere to a girl who is a direct descendant of John and Priscilla Alden. The groom is said to be a great grandson of the famous night rider of Lexington. If this couple have any girls they should be eligible to the Daughters of the Revolution and Colonial Dames without a single fight.

STORMY PETREL

No government seems willing to harbor Trotsky. His own people exiled him, but except for a corner in Anatolia there is no spot open to him. Certainly there are none to give him welcome. He is another wastrel without a country. Every now and then there are reports of his death, but he is too stubborn and contrary to give them proper encouragement.

CARRYING ON

Under the auspices of American marines more than 400 native Nicaraguans enlisted as volunteers to combat the activities of all bandits and revolutionists in that republic. The country is beginning to rest at ease and all the forces of justice and order have an honest admiration for Uncle Sam and his agents. It may still be said that the situation is well in hand. The marines were tactful and efficient in filling their mission. Will Nicaragua do as well without them?

MORE PRESTIGE

Nobody knows whether the new concordat between Italy and the Vatican will make any material difference in established relations, but it is at least a tribute to the new pattern of diplomacy which calls for a harmonious permanent settlement of every controversy in sight. It seems to be agreed that the agreement adds to the personal prestige of Mussolini. It would be difficult for anything to happen in Italy that didn't. He will see to that. In the meantime he is one big boss—the top-notcher.

THE GANGSTERS

The Chicago officials are trying to make out that the Valentine massacre in their city was an outside job. Anyhow, the Chicago policemen didn't do it. It has been charged against the purple squad of Detroit gangsters or the distillery musketeers from Canada. Also Florida feral influences have been suspected. Or maybe it was an overflow from the Herrin crime belt. Why not blame it on the disgruntled banana peddlers of Athens or the jaundiced Apaches of Paris? Anyhow, it is insisted that it is not a home production. It was too complete for that.

BORAH AND BOREAS

Senator Borah does not wish to be filed away in any Cabinet. He might easily gain this recognition did he wish it. But the Idaho statesman recognizes, as do most of his fellows, that his best field of service is where he is now—in the United States Senate. There he may be said to be at the peak of his career. For years he had been something of a disturber. He seemed to be opposed to about everything his party wanted. He was outside the breastworks, and proud of it. But time and experience have mellowed him. He is willing to be constructive rather than merely destructive. He is less of an agitator and more of a counselor. By reason of long service he is now the chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs. From a world viewpoint that is the most responsible position in that body. He cannot dictate, but his opinions are important. In party councils he is once more regular. In the last campaign he was perhaps the most active and popular of all the Senatorial voices. His speeches were finely tempered models of their kind. The Idaho masterpiece has a big brain and an impelling voice and they fit splendidly in the American Senate.

LAND-TITLE RAIDERS

The inquiry now tentatively before the United States Senate Committee on Lands into land titles in Southern California based on Spanish and Mexican grants, while totally unnecessary from the standpoint of establishing facts, may still have an excellent effect if it quiets for all time the recurrent efforts of land-title raiders to attack them. At the conclusion of its inquiry the committee must find that there are no better and clearer titles in the United States than these, since they have been repeatedly confirmed by the courts, and such a report transmitted to Congress may rouse that body to the desirability of amending the public land laws so that homestead entries can be refused by the various land offices at the outset, unless there is an affirmative showing that the land filed upon is actually public land. Such legislation is strongly advocated by Brainard B. Smith, register of the local Land Office.

At present the land offices have no option in the matter. They must accept any homestead filing that is offered, even when thoroughly aware that the application will be rejected on investigation, and the fact of filing enables some lawyer to collect a fee for preparing the necessary papers. In past years attacks by this method have been made on titles in the San Fernando Valley, the Malibu Ranch, the Irvine Ranch, Palos Verdes and others, in no case with success. There still seem to be people who do not know that all the Spanish and Mexican grants have been made good, in accordance with the treaty of peace between the United States and Mexico, by United States patents, or who are hopeful that some time, some day, some one may find a flaw in them.

There is, in fact, nothing surer than that these titles are good and will stand every test to which they can be put; and that those who attack them are simply wasting time and money. The money goes into the pockets of the lawyers who make a regular business of such filings, notwithstanding that they well know that the validity of these titles has invariably been upheld by the authorities. Such practices are probably legal enough, but are worthy of the serious attention of the State Bar Association where it can be shown that fees are solicited with full knowledge that such filings are useless. It is difficult not to doubt the good faith of any attorney practicing in California who even accepts such business without informing his client of the facts, so well known to the profession generally is the history of these futile raids on our basic land titles.

So, though there is no reason for an inquiry by the Senate, the inquiry, if it comes, may accomplish some benefit, since the more the facts are advertised the better the public will be protected. Senator George of Georgia, who with little doubt has been misinformed, presented the resolution for the Senate inquiry, which if made probably will be in the hands of Senator Bratton of New Mexico.

There need be no public uneasiness as to the result. The chance that there can be any title defects which have escaped the vigilance of the various title guarantee companies is extremely remote indeed. If the Senate Lands Committee makes a prompt inquiry and a prompt report, its work will do good in preventing the future activities of squatters and of unscrupulous attorneys.

SOUTH MAY GET DUES

A plan which will, if it is carried out, give Southern California its equitable share of State highway construction funds has been proposed by the California Development Association, and agreed to by Gov. Young and Director of Public Works Meek. A settlement of this most important of pending controversies between the northern and southern portions of California will do more to promote harmony and co-operation in the continued growth of the State than anything else that could happen.

Southern California has most of the area, most of the population, pays most of the taxes, has the most cars, and should obviously be given road funds in proportion, but has never received them, principally because the Legislature, through failure of reapportionment, has been dominated by the north. The promise now given by the north to consider the equities of the situation rather than present legislative power is somewhat belated; but if it is loyally fulfilled the south can afford to forget and forgive. There is no desire here to prolong the quarrel.

By the new plan, construction revenues are to be so divided that southern counties will receive, until highway construction has been equalized between the two sections, four-fifths of the funds, with one-fifth to the north; and after that an equilibrium is to be maintained as circumstances warrant. The agreement, in which the road committees of all five districts of the California Development Association have concurred, requires to be ratified by the Legislature. Southern California will await developments in that body before congratulating itself too heartily; but the indorsement by the State's Chamber of Commerce is one which not even the Legislature can lightly ignore.

It is, of course, to the advantage of the north to be reasonable. In a few years, when reapportionment has gone into effect, the south will be in the saddle and in a position to retaliate for mistreatment.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT

An American utility corporation with assets of something less than a half billion is said to have obtained a grip on some of the major utilities in seven large English cities—including London. There was a day when the Englishmen had rather heavy interests in our railroad, street car and power plants, but we hardly expected to see the time when the London householder had to have a plumber from Pittsburgh to turn on his gas. American money has found its way into every corner of the world.

The LEE SIDE O' LA
By Lee Shippey

THERE is said to be a motor car for every two and seven-tenths persons in Los Angeles county. But is a rumble seat adequate for even .7 of a person?

Hiking Time

To our mind, this is the best time of all to go mountain hiking. The woods are at their loveliest—though there will be more wild flowers a month later. There is no danger of forest fires, you may smoke if you wish, and snakes are not out sunning themselves. The air is fresh and rain-washed and from the bottoms of deep canyons rise the murmur and prattle of running water. All the near-by mountain waterfalls are working, too, the loveliest we have discovered in the metropolitan area being the one on Sturtevant trail in Santa Anita Canyon. There is picturesque water, too, at Switzer-Land and lots of it on Old Baldy. And one can hike all day, at this season, without getting overheated. Indeed, in early morn or late afternoon one is quite likely to find himself underheated.

Where Pedestrianism Still Is Safe

We have told how an Angeleno, in a few hours, may drive from flowers up to snow at Big Bear, Lake Arrowhead or Big Pines, or can reach it by street car at Mt. Lowe. But we Angelenos who live out toward the foothills can beat that—we can walk to it. Sighting through the orange trees in our own back yard, our boys saw patches of snow on Mt. Wilson and challenged us for a hike. We were just starting for the office, but we never could take a dare which called for a holiday. So we let the street car go and started for Mt. Wilson trail.

We always have been fond of walking—and now the mountain trails are the only place where it is safe.

When We Must Take Pains, Let Us Choose the Place

We're not going in for description. Suffice it to say that we, who consider ourself almost a "typical Angeleno," had climbed from our own home to ice and snow within four hours, and could have made it much quicker if some of the boys hadn't been so short-legged, or had we ridden burros, as many hikers who passed us did. We never have cared much for burros, though, preferring to have our soreness in the calves. It's hard to sit at a desk, and keep your mind on your work, after riding a burro for the first time in years. And we never were a good burroman.

Sermons in Stones

We will say this, however: Mt. Wilson trail, from Sierra Madre up past Orchard Camp, is a sure enough trail. There are plenty of places along it which will give a tenderfoot a thrill—where a skidding foot would mean a nasty plunge. And some thoughtful person has gone along and, near each of those scary spots, has painted on the rock: "All have sinned." We don't know whether the painter was just somebody who wanted to cheer other people up, or one who had been out with a wild party of hikers and wanted to justify himself—as one might say, "All have sinned; why pick on me?" A mountain trail may be the poorest place to save soles. But somehow those signs make people slow up and move cautiously. We wonder how they would work as boulevard traffic signals.

Beats Mahomet's Mountain

Another sign, with a pointing arrow, reads: "Lookout Mountain." We were getting awfully hungry when we got that far, and we understood his logic when Henry, our 8-year-old, read it: "Lookout Mountain, here we come."

And apparently the mountain was duly warned, and moved, for the sign said "2 Mi.," and after we'd walked two miles, and were about ready to turn back in despair, another specious sign stuck itself out to flag us, proclaiming "1½ Mi."

We don't know who measures the mountain trails and puts up the signs, but if ever we are a juror and he is a witness we won't trust him a bit. We never have seen one of those signs, concerning the place at which we intended to stop for luncheon, which wasn't a lamb dyer.

Observation

After a day's mountain hiking, one understands why the shoe business appears to be so good in Los Angeles.

OUR EDITORS TO MEXICO

Mexico and California have many ties in common and of late years much has been done to strengthen these ties. School teachers and students have exchanged visits to and fro; chambers of commerce have sponsored special trips to encourage international trading; tourist excursions have been arranged at reduced rates; the youth of the two republics has engaged in a world-wide oratorical contest.

In these and other ways friendly intercourse has been bringing the neighbors on either side of the Rio Grande closer together. A still more practical scheme to introduce New-World America to Old-World Mexico—one on which former Gov. Richardson has worked for two years—will come to a head on March 7, when 120 California newspaper men will start for a seventeen-day tour to observe the ancient arts and modern developments of this most interesting and wonderfully endowed country.

The value to international understanding from reciprocal visits of the press representatives of the various nations is generally conceded. Newspapers exert a tremendous influence on the sentiments the people of one country feel for the people of another. Knowledge of foreign nations and sympathy with their aims and aspirations will spread from the writers to the readers of the day's news as the writers gather their material first hand and from personal contact with their subjects.

Between California and Mexico such an understanding is especially desirable. Both have inherited old Spanish traditions, grafted on a civilization that archeologists assure us antedates that of Egypt and Assyria. Mexico has preserved these traditions in a purer form than has more modernised and hustling California. Yet it is a part of our heritage that we, in California, should never allow to be lost to us entirely. For with it would go much of the charm and fascination that has been associated with the life of Southwest America.

The visit of these representative newspaper men from California, therefore, will serve among other purposes to save the charm of the Spanish and Aztec atmosphere for the home and city life which we are establishing on that older civilization.

They will see for themselves some of the remains of temples and cities built by the Mayas and the Aztecs, older than the treasures excavated in Egypt or Mesopotamia; they will learn the beauty of Mexican craftsmanship as it has been handed down from the Spanish occupation of Mexico in the sixteenth century when Spanish art was the finest in all Europe. They will note how from long experience the Mexican has adapted his architecture and his home surroundings to a climate such as we enjoy in California—and will see the wisdom of our following their example in designing and fashioning our homes in keeping with these traditions.

Many of these newspaper men have been late comers to the Pacific Coast and for this reason have somewhat failed to realize just what the old Spanish atmosphere signifies to a son of the Golden West. Their contact with the Mexican in his own home will help kindle that ardor for preserving the spirit of Spanish America so dear to the heart of the bred-in-the-bone Californian. For they will see how exactly it fits the conditions of a land that, like its Mexican neighbor, is a land of perpetual springtime.

The benefit of the visit planned by Friend Richardson will thus be as largely for our own people as for those of Mexico. Being inspired with an ardor for the Spanish side of our American Southwest, through their newspapers the returned journalists will spread that spirit to others of a later migration for the ultimate good of the whole State.

CHERCHEZ LA FEMME

By James J. Montague

Women have ruined the stage.—St. John Ervine

At first it was the playwrights,
They wrote such bally rot,
So little art did they impart
To action line and plot,
With such poor witless nonsense
Their puling plays were filled
That years ago, as well you know,
The theater was killed.

And then it was the actors,
They would not learn their trade,
So crude they were, so amateur
In everything they played,
So calmly the conventions
The pampered stars defied
That by and by, with one long sigh
The poor old drama died.

And then came the producers
And made the stage too rough.
In greed of gain they staged profane
And oh! such naughty stuff.
And though this base amusement
Seemed what the crowd desired,
Dramatic art, hurt to the heart
Remorsefully expired.

And now it is the women
As well might one expect,
By that complex and flighty sex
The stage once more is wrecked.
And as time journeys onward
New factors will appear
To rend apart dramatic art
And kill it every year.

LETTERS TO The Times

[Name and address of writer must accompany all letters for this column. Letters of a personal nature or involving contentious religious questions are not acceptable.]

Lafayette Park

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 22.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Our City Fathers decided in their infinite wisdom to destroy a part of Lafayette Park, bringing forward the altruistic motive of building a library there. If there is a need for a library near the park, why destroy trees, build public thoroughfares and rob our children of a rather reduced recreation place? I am pleading for more parks.

Not alone the children, but also every normal man and woman has a desire to spend a few moments near nature, even if it means only a brief space of seclusion from the ever-increasing noise and racket of modern city life. Instead of ruthless cutting down of trees, reducing our parks to a minimum, our wise city officials should buy the adjoining lots and give the people what they need. If not, why not build the library somewhere else?

A large sign, visible from a distance, conveys the wonderful tale to the small denizens of our parks that "ball playing is prohibited." The grass and the children's sand pile will suffer an infinite damage. A capital crime for our babies to amuse themselves with the dangerous game of ball playing. "Verboten," wherever one turns. No trees, no ball playing, but a tennis court is supposed to absorb the remainder of Lafayette Park. E. H.

Needs of the Body

GLENDALE, Feb. 20.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Referring to a recent letter in this column, entitled "Medium-Priced Hospital," I would like to say: "Them's my sentiments, too!" Many seriously needing hospital attention, but because of prohibitive rates, are compelled to live without relief as long as they can. Practically free endowment hospitals are much needed institutions throughout the country. Fewer educational projects, which are already well established in U.S.A., and something for suffering humanity is a crying need. E. A. W.

Knox Knocks

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 21.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Please allow me to present the man's side in this question of alimony to "One Who Knows." Does not man also grow old, feeble, incapable of earning a living? What are his chances toward getting alimony or even a property settlement?

What doe woman ever bring to the altar that man does not also bring? And generally he brings more.

Few women take on penniless, spendthrift men, but men often can seem to find no other kind of women. That there is a certain brand of women who make of marriage a means of financial gain for themselves through alimony is not to be denied.

Few men deny the rights of alimony to those women deserving it.

Woman has proven she can be self-supporting as man, yet while she is perfectly willing to be supported by him, she is most unwilling to support him even when her earning power outranks his.

Woman is no longer dependent upon man for her living, yet she demands he be the prop she leans on. It is for this reason we males are waking up to the fact that some (not all of you, bless you,) are working us to our financial limit. ROBERT C. KNOX.

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Art Needle Work?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address: Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

If you "sew your fine seam" with care and artistic skill, says Blanche Marie Carlson, you may truly expect to feast upon the proverbial "peaches and cream." Miss Carlson conducts the class in home making at the San Pedro Evening High School, 1221 South Gaffey street, San Pedro. The class meets Tuesday and Thursday evenings, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

The course trains for positions in the alteration departments of clothing establishments, and in hemstitching and art needlework shops, where women with a love for making pretty garments and household adornments may earn a living without the bustle and strain attendant on many other positions.

Beginning students gain an appreciation of color harmony by seeing the many possible combinations of colors used in class; while persons of experience profit by advanced work which this highly skilled instructor is able to direct.

There is absolutely no fee charged, and pupils may enter at any time.

The fare from Los Angeles is 40 cents one way and 70 cents round trip. By auto, Main street is the best route.

Those people who are unable to attend class, may write to the class for free advice, if a stamped, return addressed envelope is inclosed.

Don't worry about America. One generation works and makes money; the second generation spends it; the third lives on credit, and the fourth goes back to work again.

THE PENDING TAX BILLS

BY STATE SENATOR H. C. NELSON

The special session of the Legislature in December, 1[illegible] adopted a proposed constitutional amendment, which was approved in the November election, providing a method for taxation of State and national banks in conformity with methods prescribed by Congress, and also providing for a valid method of taxing intangible securities.

Decisions of the United States and California Supreme courts made such enactment imperative. Substantial amounts of State revenue were in jeopardy and California is particularly interested in having enacted laws which will place the taxation of intangibles upon a firm legal and certain basis. This is particularly true in view of two futile attempts by the Legislature, one in 1925, and again in 1927, to give a preferential tax on intangibles. The change of basis from the 1925 act to the 1927 act in taxing intangibles involved what many believed to be bad faith on the part of the State with those persons who had moved into the State relying upon the 1925 act.

State Supreme Court decisions involving both the 1925 and 1927 acts declared such laws unconstitutional. It left California without a valid tax law upon banks and upon intangibles. To remedy this situation the constitutional amendment of 1928 was adopted.

What is now necessary is legislation to carry the constitutional amendment into effect. Such legislation is now pending at Sacramento and should be enacted. The Senate Committee on Revenue and Taxation has reported out of committee the bank and corporation franchise tax bill and it will be voted upon this week. This measure, introduced by myself and known as Senate Bill No. 509, has been carefully considered by representatives and attorneys for banks and corporate interests affected. It has been checked and studied from every angle available and is believed to be constitutional within the requirements of our State constitution and Federal laws. It provides for a 10 per cent offset of real estate taxes paid with total offset on real and personal property taxes paid up to 75 per cent of the State tax.

Immediately upon the passage of this bill, it is proposed to enact the bill relating to taxation of intangibles. As both these measures affect State and county revenues for the current year action is deemed necessary before the first Monday in March, 1929.

These measures are not political in nature. The welfare of the State requires their enactment. Political considerations should be eliminated and obstructionist tactics discouraged. The bank tax bill and the intangibles bill are linked together in the sense that the intangibles bill cannot be passed until a valid bank tax law is enacted which will permit an intangibles bill. In other words, the matter of State revenue from banks comes first, having in mind also the taxation of intangibles, by local authorities, and when a valid bank tax law is enacted which will legally permit taxation of intangibles, then the intangible bill will follow. We by all means want measures that will stand the test of the courts. The legislative tinkering and uncertainty heretofore existing should be removed. This is particularly true with reference to taxation of intangibles. The best advice and legal thought available believe such a result can be obtained by adopting the legislative committee recommendations in the form of Senate Bill No. 509 as it now stands.

VICTIMS

By The Foothill Philosopher

She made a fine speech—a little foreign woman at the Biltmore Hotel—and then, in our opinion, spoiled the whole evening by allowing the chairman to announce that the speaker would graciously remain on the platform to meet any friends who might wish to greet her. And they all wanted to greet her, and did so, yet most of them, including the "gracious speaker," seemed to suffer from the wholesale handshaking—a tribute which egotism pays to folly. And we use the word "wholesale" advisedly, for it looked like a "sale" to the writer—who, however, also failed to resist the temptation to greet the gracious speaker.

"I am Mr. So-and-So of the Such-and-Such and your lecture was indeed inspiring," sounded to me like "I peddle books and if you ever come to live in Los Angeles I certainly shall call at your house because your lecture proves you are fond of literature." I was reminded of a service club where every man wears his name in black letters on a great white shield and where the president says, "Stand up, John, and let us have a look at you." Nearly everyone seemed to have something to sell—which is all right, of coruse, only why in the name of common sense do they have to sell themselves after a lecture?

If a speaker entertains an audience he has a right to a little relaxation after the speech and if he doesn't interest the crowd nobody ought to shake hands with him. He should pay for his boredom if he is an egotist, while if he is big enough to make a big speech he is glad for a little quiet after the address.

This is the day of protest and we must be in style. We hardly hope for any reformation in this line. In fact, we give fair warning here and now if we ever make a speech and no one congratulates us, we never again will be "pinch-hitter" for that particular club. JAMES WARNACK.

The Jewish rite of Chaltiza, by which a strictly religious widow has to obtain the permission of her dead husband's eldest brother before she may marry anyone else, was introduced in a court case in Shoreditch, Eng., recently.

Normal reaction to the ill fortune of a friend: "Well, I'm glad it wasn't I."

You can tell the new-rich at a winter resort. They didn't bring their overcoats.

What is a man worth? Well, if his income is $4000, that's a good return on a valuation of $100,000.

There are just two kinds of girls—and only one thinks it necessary to explain that she doesn't drink.

Perhaps the world just seems rotten because the happy and decent people are the kind you never hear about.

"How well you look." Always offends a woman. She knows it means: "How darned fat you are!"

Those Oklahoma legislators who oppose their Governor because a woman bossed him must be bachelors.

Chicago may be short of funds to advance aviation, but the lid done her share for high-flyers.

The West-to-East flight fiasco has been lowered again, but the most remarkable West-to-East movement was that of the tea-gun man.

Americanism: Feeling proud of your "hustle" because you flutter around for an hour to ten minutes' work.

Nations will be asked to define the rights of neutral ships. Two words will suffice: Leg hair.

Why does the Senate consider an appointment in secret session? "Men love darkness rather than light because their deeds are evil."

If man once had a tail as useful as a hand, it is obvious that Nature didn't foresee the long drummer of a jazz orchestra.

The [illegible] reached when a man no longer wonders or cares how he would look in a silk hat.

A high price may sell a setter one fake diamond, but the trick won't work twice. And that explains the slump in the New York theater business.

Early training counts. The tangled affairs of a nation are easily handled by a Mussolini raised on spaghetti.

You see, that money for cruisers must be spent quickly before the advance in aviation makes the things too obviously obsolete.

Correct this sentence: "I ponder over a thing for days," said he, "but I don't think my judgment superior to that of the man who decides quickly."

RIPPLING RHYMES by Walt Mason

THE HOPELESS

I read about a dismal goat who's lived for sixty years, and half that weary time he's spent in prison cells and tiers. He serves his term and when released the warden kindly cries, "Your happiness would be increased if you'd be sane and wise. Obey the law as others do, all vicious plans reject, and you'll soon feel as good as new, and have some self respect." Perhaps he has some worthy plans when he goes out of jail; but he rejoins the ales-rans, his purpose is so frail. Before he's breathed the atmosphere of liberty six weeks, he's pinched again and draws a year, or more, from frowning beaks. He might have made a second fine, the cops who know him say, but for a weak and wobbly spine that gives his life away. He has abilities superb, and many a noble gift, and might be great if he could cure his tendency to drift. How hopeless is the weary skate who lacks the force and grit to make a pledge and not abate his promise by one whit. The man of wisdom, when he's pinched, sets down a solemn vow; he's made a break and he is clinched by coils of justice now. But he will make no more mistake that retribution draw; he'll guard against the futile breaks that aggravate the law. The man of wisdom lives and learns as he pursues his way; he makes new findings and he spurns the breaks of yesterday. He may do something foolish once, but when he's paid the price he tells himself he'll be a dunce to make that error twice.

Slug Tolson Slated to Show Up Tomorrow

BY BOB RAY

With Marty Krug swinging the baton, the Angel quartet began practicing up on the familiar strains of "Hail! Hail! The Gang's All Here" out at Wrigley Field yesterday afternoon. The reason for the outburst of song was the arrival of Earl Webb, Wes Schulmerich, Wally Hood and Bobby Jones in the Seraph training camp. The only Angel regular not working out yesterday was Charles "Slug" Tolson, the slugging first sacker, who arrives tomorrow from Chicago with the second section of Chicago Cubs.

After warming up his arm waving the baton Skipper Krug changed over from a musical director to a ring master and, with the air of a loud-cracking whip, snapped his training athletes through a three-hour workout that is going to leave tired muscles in its wake for the newcomers.

Krug is anxious to get the Angels in top shape for their series with the Cubs, which gets under way March 5, just about

WHITTIER TO SELECT NEW COACH

Expect Chief Newman to be Named as Head Grid Mentor

Wallace (Chief) Newman, former football and baseball star at the University of Southern California, or Verne Landreth, Huntington Park mentor, will probably be named head grid coach of Whittier College today, according to reports from Ye Friendly Towne last night. The athletic board of control at Whittier is slated to meet and release the name of the new mentor.

Newman and Landreth are said to be the leading candidates. The former has had signal success coaching football at Covina High Sch... and has been highly recommended to Whittier officials. He is an Indian.

ZERO HOUR FOR GLADIATORS

Sharkey, Stribling Ease Up in Training as Bout Time Near; Shooting Confined to Dempsey

BY EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH (Fla.) Feb. 25. (AP)—The lull that precedes the zero hour settled over the training camps of Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling today as the preliminary cannonading of the Battle of the Everglades died away. The shooting, if any, appeared confined to the mysterious early morning pot shot at Jack Dempsey.

The plump sixteen-ounce training mittens of the Boston sailor were packed away for other days after a desultory five-round session that included two rounds of boxing, the last Sharkey will get before he faces the southern pride in the ten-round embroglio in Flamingo Park Wednesday night. Stribling tacked his sparring gloves to the wall yesterday and his drill this afternoon consisted only of setting up exercises, shadow boxing and bag punching.

Both fighters worked under the tension that has gripped both camps since Stribling injured his side. If

WALKER ON HIS WAY TO WINDY CITY

Middleweight King and Kearns Depart to Keep Loughran Date

Mickey Walker and Jack Kearns departed last night for Chicago, where Walker is scheduled to open Paddy Harmon's new $7,000,000 fight arena in a bout with Tommy Loughran on March 28, next.

Loughran's light - heavyweight title will be at stake. Loughran has agreed to the match, but there are several wrinkles to be ironed out before the Illinois Boxing Association will permit Walker to meet Loughran.

One of these has to do with the posting of a $25,000 forfeit by Walker that he will defend his middleweight title against Ace Hudkins at Las Vegas. However, since the sky has fallen out of this promotion, Walker probably will evade posting of such a big forfeit.

Kearns said he would send Walker against Bert Colima in a championship bout here soon after the Loughran fight, and this match may put Walker in good graces with the Illinois organization.

VITT USES PARING KNIFE BUT STARS STILL GROW

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 25.—Hollywood's baseball squad refuses to diminish in numbers, Manager Oscar Vitt released four players this morning, but by practice time tomorrow that many regulars and possibly more are expected to be in camp and fill the list once more.

Infielders Gordon, Jackson and Dick Tallamante and Recruit Pitcher John Kestler, a left - hander, were the four let go. The boys were tried out in the games of Saturday and Sunday, but need more development before they will be ready for the Stars. Vitt and Owner William H. Lane, decided.

Regulars expected in camp tomorrow morning are Dudley Lee, shortstop; Thomas Holley, third baseman; Mickey Heath, first baseman; Hensel Hulvey, pitcher, and Cleo Carlyle, outfielder.

Nothing has been heard from Leo Ostenberg, third baseman; John Couch, pitcher, and Tony Boroja, outfielder. Lane said yesterday, but they are expected to report.

A third contingent of players, this band from Tucson, is expected in camp March 1, Friday. This band will be a small one, it is understood. When Lane offered to back the Tucson club in the Arizona State League, he ordered any players that the club owners selected for this season, to report March 1. It is understood that but three or four of the team which finished in third place last season have been signed for this year.

Lane will provide the rest of the

SQUAD OF BUT 25 MEN OUT FOR FRESHMAN TEAM

New Educational System Said to be the Cause of Poor Turnout by Cardinal Pea-greeners

BY BUD SPENCER
Captain of last year's Stanford championship track team and holder of the world's 400-meter record

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25.—The freshmen track situation at Stanford University is in a deplorable state. There is a turnout of about twenty-five candidates, some who can run and others who cannot. Frantic appeals are being made for class meetings, bulletins and pep rallies to make a last stand for a sport that has ranked high in Cardinal history.

The reason for this sad state of affairs probably lies in the new educational progress system started by President Wilbur last fall. This idea has been raised, scorned and crated at by the alumni of Stanford. They see in it the elimination of the freshman class, the making of a graduate school and possibly a disappearance of athletics. Probably not a complete desolation of sports, but at least a time coming when the radio chess match and a new kind of forensics will replace the stadium contests.

SOMETHING WRONG

The whole-hearted discussion of this question is a topic for debaters, alumni and so-called progressive educators and could be printed on the educational page. However, the fact that there is such a small turnout for a popular sport at Stanford is a bit of news for the sport page. Everybody acquainted will know that something is wrong, and just what remains the question. It does not seem that the "new learning" has the death clutch, at least a choking grasp, on Stanford athletics.

This is the first appearance, and now it becomes an interesting subject, bearing great discussion and investigation. The pedagogic intelligentsia is sending, or rather drawing, a curious bunch of antiquities to the university. Just a week ago a practice mile run was called for the freshman team. Lo and behold! Happy, happy intelligence! After great shouting and expostulating by track managers there appeared two ruffled-haired wonders in tennis shoes. Two new disciples of newer learning came, more or less reluctantly, to accept the universe

POLO STARS IN MIDWICK CLASH

Sands Point and Greentree Riders Tangle Today

BY FRANK ROCHE

The famous Sands Point polo four, a team that numbers among its trophies an open championship cup, will gallop into the polo spotlight today at the Midwick Country Club in a game with Jock Whitney's Greentree horsemen. The Sands Point riders, Winston Guest Laddie Sanford Cheever Cowdin and Charles Schwartz, rate at 28 goals. The Greentree polo-ists with Whitney, Capt. Walford, Elmer Boeseke and Eric Pedley in the saddle, will rate at 22 goals. The game may be played on a handicap basis, although this has not been definitely decided.

With the exception of Cheever Cowdin and Charles Schwartz, the rest of the players in today's game have performed for Midwick fans this season. Cowdin, an international star, rates at 8 goals. Schwartz rates at 4 goals. He is one of the best mounted men in polo. Schwartz will match his string against some of Sanford's great ponies in today's game.

Winston Guest will probably captain he Sands Point four today. Guest is the second highest rating polo player in the world. Only Tommy Hitchcock tops him in polo. Guest succeeded Devereaux Milburn as back on the American Big Four. In his two performances here Guest

First 18 Holes of Midwick Play Completed

Ridgeway of San Diego Best of Class C Players

BY EDWARD LAWRENCE

It was "youngster's" day at the Midwick Country Club yesterday, when the first eighteen holes of medal play in the annual Pacific Coast senior championship "silver putter tournament" were completed. The second eighteen holes are scheduled for today and the best medal score for thirty-six holes will win the championship.

Three 50-year-old neophytes were initiated into the senior championship yesterday, W. W. Scott of Hacienda, T. W. Domine of Pasadena and Dwight Hamlin of Flintridge, the youngest of the trio.

Competition is in four divisions, as follows: Class A, 50 to 55 years; Class B, 55 to 60 years; Class C, 60 to 65 years, and, Class D, 65 years and over. There are 125 entries, according to A. H. (Ollie) Painter, who is in charge of the tournament.

George Toozer of the Hollywood Country Club turned in an 80 to lead in Class A yesterday. He was 2 down to par with his handicap and 7 down without handicap. He took thirty-one putts going around.

Besides the "silver putter," emblematic of the championship, their are numerous prizes and trophies. There will be a trophy awarded in each class for the player who is least down to par without handicap and one for the player who is least down to par with his handicap for the thirty-six holes. There will also be a trophy in each of the above classes for the player having the fewest number of putts for thirty-six holes.

The J. D. Cox trophy will be awarded to the player over 70 years of age least down to par at the end of thirty-six holes without handicap.

TRAINING CAMP GOSSIP

CUBS EXPECT HORNSBY TO ARRIVE TODAY

AVALON (Catalina Island) Feb. 25. (Exclusive) — Conversation on Catalina Island today has veered almost constantly from the sunshine to Rogers Hornsby, who with an event dozen other Cubs will land at tomorrow's boat, which is scheduled to dock at high noon amid the tooting of a band, the hoots of the Avalon carillon, the roar of a Spanish-American and the impolite slapping of Trainer Andy Jordan Lotshaw's fleet of trained sea gulls. Jack Keen, Catalina's giant seal—the gal has a streak of a ball player himself, it is the only prominent resident who will not be at the dock according to current plans. Everyone here, it seems, wants to see Hazah in a baseball uniform.

Manager Joe McCarthy is ready to start tearing down on the bare bent as soon as they have their lunch tomorrow having ordered a regulation practice session for 1:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Although Joe has fifteen pitchers of high repute in camp, only nine counting the absent President J. H. Fowler of the Los Angeles Angels, for his two first-string pitchers to assist him over the rigors of the practice. With fifteen pitchers on tap it is obvious that the power-house gang will be called to virtually forsake their stoves for their bats.

When the second squad gets here and the excitement about Hornsby subsides somewhat interest in the detachment of Cubs already here will turn to Danny Taylor, the only rookie considered to have a chance to break into the regular line-up. By virtue of batting .374 for Memphis in the Southern Association last year Taylor is counted upon to give Clyde Beck a battle for the third-base job.

Aside from the Beck-Taylor duel there seems no competition in the immediate offing. There won't be even a second string candidate for any position in the infield. Norm McMillan, holed behind Hornsby as a utility man, it would not take a shortstop to make the personnel of the infield "the utility order—that's still something else.

Manager McCarthy still is packing grapes for next Saturday and Sunday, when he cannot be bothered by practice those dates, however. Some tourist plans to arrange regulation games between two picked teams.

NO QUARTER FOR HOLDOUTS, SAYS PIRATES

PASO ROBLES, Feb. 25. (AP)—A stern attitude toward holdouts was adopted by the Pittsburgh Pirates today as the players who came here resumed their spring training.

The first stand of holdouts was announced by Sam W. Strayhorn, club secretary, who said Kiki Cuyler, star outfielder, had advised that the Waners "will play with the Pirates this year, or they won't play at all."

The brothers, Lloyd and Paul, have failed to sign contracts.

Strayhorn also intimated that drastic action might be taken against Fred Fussell, left-handed pitcher, who failed to report at all. Fussell returned his contract and was due here last Thursday, according to training camp said he was in San Francisco when he left the cause of his tardiness unexplained.

Bonnie Bush put the Pirates to work Tuesday instead of giving them the usual holiday, because the weather was warm.

The pitchers spent most of the time shagging batted balls. They threw a few real straight balls, only Ray Kolp (Ray) among the regulars from Brooklyn.

Manager Bush started twisters the first day of training, only said he will continue curving the ball until his arm lumbers up.

WANERS ARE STILL HOLDING OUT

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 25. (AP)—The Pittsburgh National League club must accept Paul Waner's demand contracts calling for substantial salary increases or the 1929 baseball curtain will go up on the Pirate stage without big now-famous Waner combination. Paul Waner, voted the most valuable player in the league in 1927, says here today. His younger brother, he said, also is asking for a sum greater than he received last year.

The older Waner said he had returned three unsigned contracts to Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club, and that the next move in the hold-over game would be made by the Pirate magnate.

"I know of several good fishing places around here and it is my intention to spend days until they finish the figure on my contract that I consider I am entitled to," Paul said.

Paul would not divulge how much either he or his brother received last year but would be glad to tell the amount they were holding out for. Current rumors have had it that they were asking for $30,000 together.

The first contract sent both was for an increase over last year's salary, Paul explained, and it was returned without either's signature. Mr. Dreyfuss then asked Paul to give him a reason for his demand. "His Poison" in a letter cited his record for the last three years. In answer to this the Pittsburgher owner accused Paul of becoming egotistical.

LIGHT PRACTICE FOR DETROIT TIGERS

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Feb. 25. (AP)—Light practice and a long hike is the diet of the Detroit Tigers of the American League, in spring training here.

Stanley "Bucky" Harris, the club's new manager, has announced a light program for the Tigers during the first day or two of training camp here. Yesterday the squad went to the Riverside Park diamond—the first day ever to be used for training camp here in spring training quarters at Arizona.

Observers who witnessed the Tigers' work out for two hours and a quarter wondered what Harris meant by his use of the word "light." The individual Bengals went at their training in a manner which pressed sore muscles and aching backs for the rubbing table tomorrow. They went through batting, fielding and fussing the ball with considerable vigor.

Every member of the advance guard was in uniform, some played about the outfield, taking fielding practice and getting their arms into shape for the more strenuous days of the American League pennant race. Others devoted over the grass infield.

Harris was here and there about the field, giving an occasional bit of advice to veteran and rookie alike and seeing that the show went off properly.

PORTLAND BEAVERS TAKE EASY WORKOUT

SANTA ANA, Feb. 25.—Light infield practice and a hitting session marked the opening at the Orange County Fair Grounds today of the Portland Pacific Coast League training camp.

New arrivals today included Curtis Fullerton, pitcher; Fritz Knothe, infielder; Ben Cronin, infielder; Flea Kenney, first baseman; Art Jahn, outfielder; Benny Williams, outfielder; Dale Staley, second baseman.

Fred Oyman, left-handed pitcher, with Portland the last two years, showed well on the mound along with Jack Knight, Fullerton. Manager Mike Kreevey, Catcher Hank Severeid, Coach Bob Shanklin and Guy Cooper.

Bill Brauer, recruited from the Portland sand lots, pitcher, started with an innocent lineup, cuffed by a batted ball. Turner looks for big things from Brauer.

The catchers in action were Johnny Saunders, Charley Hales and Hal Warren. Saunders was third-string catcher last year. Tony Rego, regular catcher, has not yet reported. Bill Tosh, pitcher, is still a holdout in Portland.

John and Staley looked very good with the stick today. Other heavy hitters were Saunday, Jack Knight and Hugh Joe Nash. The three-hour workout was considered the snappiest since the Beavers began dribbling into camp and Manager Bill Rogers was full of confidence and enthusiasm.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 25. (AP)—Following an 11-to-2 walk-away over the Chico Colts yesterday the Sacramento Senators looked today like a winning ball club.

The Solons entered the game without any fielding practice and stiff limbs and early-season slowness should have contributed a large quota of boots, but errorless ball was the order. Several old standbys, the two lone Golden ninepins combly from pennigan ranks.

Manager Egan sent twenty-one men into the fray, four of whom were pitchers. The Valley leaguers did not score until the eighth and had collected five hits up to that frame. Wildcats of Don Osborne, fleet-ranseate winter leaguer, who walked three men, counted with a single and double, contributed the two runs.

Virgil Osborne, Mickel and Pfeffles shared the pitching burden for the Senators. The Reds collected eleven hits, Osborne and "Lucky" Harris, youthful catcher-utility man, contributing two each.

The Senators will confine their first practice here today to fungo batting and setting up exercises.

INJURIES SLOWING UP SEATTLE INDIANS

SAN CLEMENTE, Feb. 25.—The Seattle Indians are afflicted with injuries that seriously hampered the first day of their workout here today. The Rainmen bottle and adhesive tape were much in evidence and Ernie Johnson took official cognizance of the situation and let his men down easy.

Clarence "Tal" Heatherly, third baseman, developed a sore throwing arm, "Chick" Gilbreath, sporting a bad hip. Slinger in the game with Hollywood, Joe Chamberlain, second baseman, is recovering from a mastoid operation and was not in uniform today.

The outfielders, however, were in fine fettle today and cut loose with some lively antics. Oscar Eckhardt, Dave Barbee, Louie Almada and "Red" Robertson, the latter of Fullerton, looked and felt fine.

The pitchers were under wraps, only Carl Graham cutting loose. Johnson has scheduled another workout tomorrow on the stand for the week-end. He feels that forty-eight men in camp are too many.

The whole camp is pulling for "Chief" Meyers to succeed to the mound and Walter Mueller has taken Meyers under his wing. Meyers is the boy who walked to San Clemente from his mountain home. McCredie is also giving lessons in hurling to Lefty Gillick, formerly of Sacramento.

Seattle plays Hollywood Saturday and Portland Sunday, both games on the home scene.

WASHINGTON TEAM TAKES INITIAL WORKOUT

TAMPA, (Fla.) Feb. 25. (AP)—Manager Walter Johnson of the Washington American League club had seven pitchers and a catcher out to Plant Field today for the first workout of the spring training season.

The first contingent, accompanied by three coaches and William Smith, a club official, arrived yesterday. Another squad was expected today.

Johnson said he was in good health and expected to appear now and then as a relief pitcher.

"A bit of golf and light work will put me in condition, but I don't expect to hurry things," he said.

GIANTS TAKE OFF ALL BANDAGES

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Feb. 25. (AP)—The New York Giants were minus all bandages today.

Pitcher Joe Genewich who injured a knee in a practice session Saturday, was ready to return to the field. Jack Cummings spiked Singer and Rookie Pitcher John Scott's hog-killing wound had disappeared.

Roy Schalk, assistant manager, said Andy Cohen, Andy Reese, Travis Jackson, Bill Terry, Freddie Lindstrom, C. W. Stanford and Herbert Thomas, all infielders, and Outfielder Fred Lindstrom, Mervin Ott, Jimmy Welsh, Tony Kaufmann and Charles Fullis would arrive this week.

BLACKBURNE REPORTS TO WHITE SOX

CHICAGO, Feb. 25. (AP)—Russel "Lena" Blackburne, manager of the Chicago White Sox, reported today at Comiskey Park to arrange the railway trip of the club for their spring training camp at Dallas, Tex., Thursday. A short conference with Secretary Harry Grabiner and Blackburne went through the preliminaries of signing his 1929 contract.

FOURTEEN CINCINNATI PLAYERS LEAVE

CINCINNATI (O.) Feb. 25. (AP)—Fourteen of Cincinnati's prime baseball performers made up the contingent of Reds joining other actors in the greatest show on earth down south today. Most of the players arrive at Orlando, Fla., after the long ride, the spring training camp will house the club's prindpain in the 1929 pennant drive.

Players going are Fletcher Harris, Harrington, Johnson, Kolp, Oliver and Smith; Catchers Scott, Wilson and Dixon; Infielders Leiber, Fitz, Shaid and Johnson, and Outfielders Crabtree and Henline. Manager Hank Sevdeikes and Business Manager Frank W. Bohle are the bosses on the trip.

New players in the club are Pitcher Joe Smith, purchased from the Fourth Place club; Walter Lutzke, drafted from Newark, and Victor Shiell, first sacker from Memphis. Veteran players of the camp include Pid Purdy and Ethan Allen, fielders, and Pitchers Knox Elzey, Pete Donohue and Red Lucas.

CONNIE MACK DRILLING PITCHERS HARD

FORT MYERS (Fla.) Feb. 25. (AP)—Two drills a day, particularly for the young pitchers, was Manager Connie Mack's order today for the Philadelphia Athletics at their spring training camp here. The tall leader said he would not insist on the veterans practicing so long and intensively.

"The youngsters in the main," he said, "are big and strong and I am confident will be ready to do their bit of pitching for batting practice when the full squad arrives in camp."

Ossie Orwell, southpaw pitcher, who is expected to be stationed at first base this season, is the latest arrival. He got in last night three days earlier than he had planned. He said bitter cold weather and four feet of snow had driven him from his home in Decorah, Iowa.

MISSION BELLS START WORK IN EARNEST

STOCKTON, Feb. 25. (AP)—Training commenced in earnest today in the camp of the Mission Bells when a flock of regular infielders and outfielders reported. Among the arrivals were Eddie Mulligan, "Ike" Boone, Fuzzy Huffe, Mickey Finn, Gordon Slade and Bill Hodde.

Pete Scott, who winters here, came to terms with Manager "Red" Killefer yesterday and turned out for practice this morning. Herman Pillette and Walter Christensen are due at any time.

Harry Kramer was here yesterday and was given permission to remain away until the end of the week. He is suffering from an injured hand.

Games between the regulars and Yannigans start Wednesday.

The ace will on three rookies, namely, Pitchers Eddie Clark and Sutherland Scott and Outfielder Joe Tharp.

OAKLAND WINS HOCKEY CLASH

Hollywood Pucks Defeated in Overtime Game

BY RALPH HUSTON

A sensational shot, from an impossible, from the stick of Ross Miller, after six minutes of play in the extra period, gave Oakland a 1-0 victory over the Hollywood Millionaires in a sensational game at the Winter Garden last night, and put the hard-charging Sheiks just one point behind the Oakland squad in the battle for California professional league honors.

Miller's shot at the Hollywood goal, from the wall of boxes, slid by Tommy Carrigan's outstretched leg and into the net for the victory. Up to that particular minute Miller hadn't been a particularly prominent figure, but when the puck sailed into the net he was the most popular man in the house. The crowd, which was with the battling Oakland team from the opening face-off, cheered the victors until the ice cracked, while his teammates swarmed all over him.

SLOW START

Starting the game three points behind the league-leading Millionaires, the Oaks seemed to try for a score for a short time, but then laid back in a strong defensive game, as the tilt seemed headed for a scoreless tie. A knotted result would have gained them nothing in particular, but the Oaks didn't seem especially anxious to score.

Hollywood bombarded the Oakland goal furiously in the first five minutes of play, and then retired to play defensively. "Lefty" Comber featured all through this period with his fine defensive work, and some spectacular dashes down the ice.

Oakland passed up a chance to score in the second period, when Dave Smith was penalized. Manager Joe Ganguish sent in a trio of new forwards, but the Sheiks didn't even try to score, for some mysterious reason, despite the 5-3 advantage in players.

The third period was fairly rough, with Hollywood threatening most of the time, but Phil Stephens and George Bond, who played sparkling games throughout, broke up every rush.

The extra period was going the same way as the other three when Miller's impossible shot slashed into the net.

NEW FORWARD

The Oaks uncovered a sensational new forward in Ed Vokes, a youngster, who had a bit of trouble keeping his feet now and then, but who none the less played in spectacular fashion. "Peaches" Headley, the star Hollywood defense man, didn't get into the play much last night, but when he did, he was effective, as usual. Dale Wells played a great game at right wing for the Millionaires. Hec Fowler, Oakland goalie, was invincible last night, with Ralph Ellis and Duke Riley featuring on the offense. The league standing:

	W.	T.	L.	Pts.
Hollywood	13	0	6	26
Oakland	12	2	6	26
Los Angeles	10	3	6	23
San Francisco	9	0	11	18

LA NATIVIDADS, SCOTS PLAY TIE GAME

The La Natividads and the Clan Scots battled to a 3-to-3 tie last night at the Palais De Glace rink. The Scots led up until the last period when the La Natividads came from behind with a rush to score three goals and tie the game.

LULL SETTLES OVER FLORIDA

anything, the Sarkey entourage was the more upset and from all parts of the dog track where the Boston assembly holds forth came loud and vehement cries that Stribling was merely preparing his alibi in advance.

After "Pa" Stribling, father of the Macon slasher, explained Stribling's injury to the Associated Press the physician in charge of the boxer announced that the injury consisted of a dislocation of the fourth rib on the left side, followed by traumatic neuritis.

"Young Stribling came to me with a side injury Wednesday night," Dr. Cecil B. Ferguson said. "The fourth rib was dislocated. I put the rib back in place. Traumatic neuritis developed, which has responded to treatment. The boxer is not yet entirely well but there is no reason why he should not be in perfect condition Wednesday night."

Following five rounds of exercises, Stribling went through his paces for newspaper men in his dressing-room, bending, flexing his back and shoulder muscles with ease and with no indication of pain. The boxer said that the trouble had disappeared, that he was in perfect condition, and would not even take his clothes off tomorrow after dressing in the morning. He weighs 183 1-2 pounds in his ring togs.

Sharkey worked easily and with no effort to do more than sharpen his punching equipment. Against Paul Hoffman, the first opponent, the Boston tar "pulled" many of his punches and was content to shoot easy, but accurate straight right-hand shots to the heart. Jack worked faster against Johnny Grosso and hurt his New York sparring mate, although he made no effort to do so.

With the battle only two days away, Miami Beach strove to house the visitors pouring into town on every train. Hotels are crowded with fistic and society celebrities and the newcomers were forced into adjoining towns for accommodations. Ticket sale was reported well past the $300,000 mark.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray will spend their honeymoon at Catalina Island, the bridal suite of the St. Catherine Hotel having been reserved for the newlyweds.

Compston Golf Style Shown

BY SOL METZGER

The star golfer's skill rests upon his ability to strike a ball along an imaginary straight line to a given point, whether he be putting, approaching or driving. To accomplish this end in so far as direction is concerned two things must be done.

(1.) The face of his club must be at right angles to the imaginary line at contact. (2) To avoid curving the ball (slicing or hooking) the face of his club must go through the point where the ball rests without deviating from this line.

Bob Macdonald, a most successful golf teacher, instructs his pupils to swing the club so that its shaft and his hands at contact are on a plane at right angles to the line to the hole. This means that the contact of clubface with ball will be true.

Archie Compston, the big British pro who beat Hagen so badly last summer, strikes the ball on all shots with his clubhead moving through it both before and after contact on the line the ball is to travel. This is the sole way one can avoid slicing or hooking. There is another point about contact that will be dealt with tomorrow.

Should one putt off the left or right foot? One of the many interesting questions answered in a leaflet on Putting, which Sol Metzger will gladly send to any reader sending him a stamped, addressed envelope.

POOR TURNOUT FOR CARD TEAM

of sport. One had a book in his hand, "How to Keep Fit." The other had less than that, but a smile of determination. As simple as this story seems to be, it is a fact.

This is only a sport page, and according to educators sports writers are only hydrant headed, so we should mind our own business. Maybe we should, but this present outlook at Stanford is a topic of great sporting interest. If Stanford was to drop down the ladder in the field of college athletics, it would be a chance for great headlines, and columns of publicity. Maybe this will be so. At any rate, there is some sort of a Petrarchial octopus with its long arms chokin g the most popular spring sport at Stanford to death.

ALL IN VAIN

The large group of alumni, sport coaches, sport fans, and many others closely interested have a firm reason to limp and rattle their chains—in vain. The midnight oil, the so-called perennially fresh knowledge have quickened the pulse of education. An indoor Quaker society is already under organization at Stanford, and the clutch is firm, and will become concrete, as long as President Wilbur continues his high-scholarship plan.

There is a happy medium somewhere. Too much athletics or too much crouch shouldered concentration over books is bad enough, but there is no reason why pep rallies have to be held to continue a sport. This alone shows that the elite of so-called genius has flooded a school. The man is discarded for the fact-monger and another victim of higher education will go out into the world.

There are Lombardi, in the sprints; Grey in the weights, Cadell in the high jump, Mables in the 440 and 880, and Johns in the pole vault, all of whom seem to be fairly capable performers. Outside of this group and a few more unmentioned, there are no track performers in the freshmen class at Stanford worthy of appearing on a high school track.

That is the situation, and people can figure it out to suit themselves. Imagine a school with great track teams turning out a list of less than twenty-five names for yearling track, and the argument becomes gigantic. What is the matter? It is time for the alumni to take notice.

WILDS TO LEAD BRUINS

Star Forward is Elected Captain of Basketball Team by U.C.L.A. Players for 1930

Larry Wilds, fast forward on the basketball team of the University of California at Los Angeles, has been elected to captain the Bruin cagers through the 1930 casaba season, it was announced yesterday by athletic authorities at the Bruin institution. Wilds, who is one of the steadiest forwards U.C.L.A. ever had, is a good leader and should pilot the Bruins to a high ranking in the Pacific Coast Conference next year.

Larry Wilds is one of the highest point scorers on the local team, and is a dead shot for the basket when he is in top form. During the past season he netted 94 points, running second on the Bruin team only to Dick Linthicum, sophomore flash forward, who marked up 112 digits the past court season.

SAMMY SALTER.

Wilds, who is a former prep star in Grand Rapids, Mich., succeeds Sammy Salter, guard, who led the locals through the worst season ever encountered by a team coached by Caddy Werks. The Bruins only took one victory in nine Pacific Coast Conference games, winning from Southern California, 44 to 33, last Saturday night in the Olympic Auditorium.

CLAREMONT, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Clarence Bishop, rangy center on the Pomona College basketball team, was re-elected captain of the Sagehen quintet by his mates here today. He is a Pomona High School boy and plays football and baseball as well as basketball. In addition, Coach Bob Strehle may be able to use him on the Pomona track team this year. Varsity letters will be voted to Bishop, Walt Shannon, juniors, and Harold Hadfield, Al Putnam and Owen Kelson, sophomores.

KING TUT FINISHES HERMAN IN FOURTH

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 25. (AP)—Eager to make an impression in his new home town, King Tut, using a barrage of right uppercuts, knocked out Babe Herman of New York in the fourth round of their ten-round, no-decision fight here tonight. Immune to punishment, always on the aggressive and landing terrific blows with either fist, the King shaded his opponent in the second round and took the others by a wide margin.

TWO ROUGH FINISH MAT BOUTS ON OLYMPIC CARD

Two rough finish mat battles have been lined up for Lou Daro's wrestling show at the Olympic March 6. With Stanley Stasiak, Polish heavyweight champion, and known as a rougher grappler than any seen here in recent months, scheduled to meet Pete Sauer, the pride of Glendale, and with Dick Daviscourt, the Kansan headlock artist, signed to clash with Paul Jones in the special event, the card at the present time appears more attractive than the one held here last week, mat veterans declare.

These four mat stars, it was reported yesterday, are the only ones who will compete here at this time for a bout with Champion Gus Sonnenberg. Promoter Daro is in Chicago trying to get the champion's signature to a contract calling for his appearance here about April 3, if possible.

Daviscourt, the tough Kansan, is being given another chance to get back into the main-event class. He claims that he failed to get an even break from the referee in his recent bouts here because the official, he stated, was swayed in his decisions by the crowd's animosity toward him. He points to the ruling which cost him his match with Sauer several weeks ago. The referee gave Sauer the bout when it was declared Daviscourt was out of the ring more than twenty seconds. Last week John Spellman was awarded a technical victory over Daviscourt when the latter was ruled against because he insisted upon hanging on to the ropes.

Jones, who will meet Daviscourt in a one-fall-to-a-finish bout, gave Sauer a terrific battle here last week. This meeting with Daviscourt is expected to be rougher than their last one.

EMANUEL IN TRAINING FOR BOUT WITH SERATTI FRIDAY

Armand Emanuel is training just as hard for his fight with Larry Seratti Friday night at the Hollywood American Legion stadium as he did for Tommy Loughran. The Jewish fighter is working on the basis that there is no such thing as a sucker in the heavyweight ranks and he got that tip from Jack Dempsey.

Any day Emanuel expects to come to terms for a fight with Paulino Uzcudun and he is taking good care that nothing happens to spoil that match. Fighting is the best way to keep fit, Emanuel has been told and he will probably have another fight later on to be right when he fights the Basque at Wrigley Field.

Larry Seratti doesn't rate with the top-notch heavyweights, but he must get a start and one way he believes he can break into the limelight without any delay is to fight Emanuel. Seratti is game and tough and it wouldn't be much of a surprise if he stayed the full ten rounds Friday night.

The preliminaries will feature small fellows but they are fast and the best of the lot is the fight which brings out Raymond Lugo and Tommy Liberto in the semi-wind-up. Lugo is well known as a club fighter and in the past has been a great crowd pleaser.

Wide Sprains His Ankle, but Captures Race

ELIZABETH (N. J.) Feb. 25.—(AP)—Edvin Wide of Sweden, and Eino Purje, of Finland, outdistanced handicap fields to win their events at the Warinancoa games in the Elizabeth armory tonight.

Over a poor track, Wide won the mile and a half event in 6m. 46 3-5s., compared with his own world's record of 6m. 37 4-5s., made in New York in 1927.

The Swede's victory, however, was a costly one. As Wide began his closing spurt, his right toe struck a board and an examination after the race revealed he had strained his ankle. Although Wide finished the race with no more than a slight suggestion of a limp, the ankle was swollen to nearly double its normal size.

Wide finished more than half a lap ahead of Ove Anderson of Finland, with Clarence Jensen of Newark Prep, third. Anderson was given a fifty-yard handicap and Jensen one of 100 yards.

Purje ran the three miles in 13m. 3 3-5s., compared to Willie Ritola's world record of 13m. 56 1-5s.

DOUBLE-HEADERS FOR SOCCER FANS SUNDAY

League fixtures on two fields will be Sunday's program in the Los Angeles City League. An interesting double-header has been arranged for Loyola Field with Scots meeting Maygars in the 1 p.m. game followed by a Sons-L.A.C. struggle. These four teams are now closely bunched in the league race behind the Hollywood men and the games should bring out some interesting competition. Maygars and Mercury must win to keep on the Movie Men's heels, while Scots and Sons are anxious to force a four-cornered tie for second place with victories.

Two fast games are slated for the Rose Bowl with Richfield meeting Vikings while Pasadena will attempt to hold Ernie Copeland's Movie City team from increasing their lead in the nightcap affair.

MRS. BURROWES STARS

DEL MONTE, Feb. 25. (AP)—Mrs. F. C. Burrowes, crack Long Island (N. Y.) golfer, won low net honors in the annual Pebble Beach women's golf tournament with a score of 96-4-92 here today. Low gross medal honors were divided between Mrs. Burrowes and Mrs. C. K. Riegels of Spokane, Wash., Pacific Northwest women's champion, who also turned in a 96.

Mrs. Joe Mayo, Northern California champion, was third with 102 and Miss Katherine Christie of Toronto fourth with 104. Other scores turned in on the wind-swept course ranged from 106 to 146.

Variable winds wrecked many medal scores today, nearly every competitor being forced to take penalties and sacrifice distance as a result of the ocean breezes. Women golfers agreed that without winds the revised Pebble Beach course would prove a severe test in the national amateur championships next September.

Other scores: Mrs. A. W. Clapp, St. Paul, 106-11-95; Mrs. F. M. Hodges, New York, 109-5-104; Mrs. Howard Keefer, San Diego, 110-8-102; Mrs. J. M. Yount, San Francisco, 111-6-105; Mrs. Robert Roos, Burlingame, 112-4-108; Mrs. Phil Wand, San Francisco, 112-10-102; Mrs. J. J. Valentine, San Francisco, 115-13-102; Mrs. Frank More, San Francisco, 117-13-104; Mrs. M. Kelleher, Pasadena, 119-8-111; Mrs. George Davis, Belvedere, 122-14-108; Mrs. Lew Ploda, San Francisco, 123-14-109; Mrs. A. S. Lee, San Francisco, 125-10-115; Mrs. George Mullen, Pebble Beach, 129-18-111; Mrs. George Sykes, San Francisco, 146-18-128.

First rounds of match play will be held tomorrow, with pairings as follows: Mrs. Riegels vs. Mrs. Meefer; Mrs. Letts vs. Mrs. Valentine; Mrs. Clapp vs. Mrs. Kelleher; Mrs. Taw vs. Mrs. Roos; Mrs. Burrowes vs. Mrs. Yount; Miss Christie vs. Mrs. More; Mrs. Hodges vs. Mrs. Davis; Mrs. Mayo vs. Mrs. Wand. Second flight: Mrs. Ploda vs. Mrs. Mullen; Mrs. Lee vs. Mrs. Sykes.

SAWYER IS WINNER OF "TIMES" TOURNEY

John M. Sawyer with a 101-32-69 card was the winner of the February tournament of The Times golfing Association. The play was held over the Sunset Field's layout. A large field competed.

RABBIT PUNCHES

by PAUL LOWREY

GOOD-BY, LAS VEGAS

GEORGE WINGFIELD'S statement from Reno vindicates one rather general suspicion—a suspicion that a Walker-Hudkins bout for the middleweight championship will not be staged in Las Vegas, Nev., this summer.

Mr. Wingfield gives the bout two swift kicks. He says he won't be an "angel" for it, and that he can't see any future for it if held in Nevada.

The capitalist should know whereof he speaks. He dabbled in Nevada fight promotion in the old days when there was some excuse for fights being staged in out of the way spots like Las Vegas.

And he knows the same excuse does not exist today. Practically all big cities are located in States which now have boxing commissions. The Jeffries-Johnson fight for the heavyweight title was taken to Reno, Nev., back in 1910 because Gov. Gillette of California refused to permit it to be staged in this State.

Las Vegas is not a center of population and probably never will be in spite of the fact that the land sharks are trying to boom it into something big on the strength of construction work at Boulder Dam when is not likely to start for two years at the earliest and probably five years.

ENTER MR. HOFFMAN

SO WHEN Mr. Wingfield, who has been approached by the promoter-to-be, announces he will not be an "angel," that handwriting is good enough for me.

In addition there never was any very good reason to suspect that a Walker-Hudkins bout in the desert on the hottest day of the year would be any terrific attraction.

Fight fans don't have to suffer hardships these days to be served their favorite dish.

And I am inclined to believe that the astute Mr. Jack Kearns had this in mind when he signed in San Francisco with Promoter Aneil Hoffman for a thirty-day option on Walker's services.

Mr. Hoffman's option calls for a Walker-Hudkins bout to be staged "anywhere in California."

That's where Mr. Hoffman has the drop on Big Tom Kennedy, who has an option for but ten more days" on a Walker-Hudkins bout to be staged in Nevada.

If Mr. Kennedy can't promote any "angels" by the time his option expires then Mr. Hoffman goes to bat.

And Mr. Hoffman has another edge. Not only is he a wealthy man himself, but he proposes to align himself with another wealthy individual—Jack Doyle.

Now, neither Mr. Hoffman nor Mr. Doyle cares to be an "angel" to Mr Kearns, and both are very shrewd business men.

Mr. Hoffman promotes in San Francisco and Sacramento, but he is smart enough to sense that a Walker-Hudkins bout belongs in this city, and he believes that proper promotion and intelligent ballyhoo will make it the biggest thing ever staged in California.

At any rate he is willing to make a stab at it—in California.

A NEW RECORD?

AND Mr. Hoffman has guaranteed Walker the same amount as the middleweight king was to be guaranteed for a bout in Las Vegas—$150,000.

That's a lot of money when the record high "gate" in California was $125,000 with a pair of heavyweights as the attraction.

However, Mr. Hoffman believes that with a world's title at stake and a challenger who is almost a native Angeleno—Ace Hudkins—considered likely to lift it there will be no trouble in establishing a new record.

TRAUNG TO EUROPE

CHARLEY TRAUNG, the fight commissioner of the San Francisco district, is leaving with Mrs. Traung for a five-months tour of Europe this week, and during his absence Bill Hanlon of Sacramento will handle the details of both Traung's sector and his own.

The Governor wasn't quite sure Traung could take such a long leave of absence, legally speaking, but when the commissioner offered to resign, the Governor told him:

"I won't let you do that. I've heard too many good reports about your work. If I have to relieve you during your absence I'll reappoint you when you return."

Traung is taking the European trip for the sake of his wife's health.

electrified the fans with his great playing.

The Greentree team is a fine combination, Whitney at No. 1 is a splendid horseman and exceptionally well mounted to boot. Capt. Walford at No. 2 won fame while playing with the Seventeenth Lancers, a famous British army four. Elmer Boeseke and Eric Pedley, the other two members of the team, are old Midwick favorites. Young Pedley is looked upon by the experts as the best on the Coast. He is already slated for a chance at the next international game, so dame rumor says. Boeseke played on the American Olympic team and is one of the most daring riders in the game.

The game today will be the fourth on the Midwick Country Club's high-goal program. The ball will be tossed in at 2:30. Capt. Wesley White, international referee, will officiate.

The line-ups:

Sand Points		Greentree
Sanford	No. 1	Whitney
Guest	No. 2	Walford

two weeks away. Marty has a sneaking hunch that his Seraphs will be able to take the Cubs into camp and is going to have all his athletes ready so he can fire both barrels into the McCarthy menage.

Webb said that he welcomed a chance to come out with the Angels and once more play regularly. Webb is a slugger par excellent and Marty Krug believes that his big bat will win a lot of ball games for the Cherubs. Krug's present plans are to use Webb in left field against right-hand pitching.

Schlumerich, who drove down from Corvallis, Or., reported in good shape, tipping the beam at a mere 215 pounds, so he hasn't much weight to work off. Wes just started to come along in a baseball way during the second half of last season's race and ought to prove quite a performer this year. Krug will give Schulmerich a chance in right field this spring for "Jigger" Statz has the call on the center-field berth, which spot Wes filled last year.

Bobby Jones and Wally Hood also showed up all set to go. Jones started working out last week down at San Diego with the Stars and is out to give Johnny Butler a battle for the third-base job.

The Angel officials also announced yesterday that they had scheduled a couple of games with the Detroit second team for March 23 and 24. The games will take place at Phoenix, Ariz., and Krug figures the contests will put his athletes in condition to open the Coast League season on March 26.

EXPECT FINN TO BE REINSTATED

Local Officials Hope Nurmi Will be Cleared

Going Right Ahead With Plans for Coliseum Meet

Quist Wires That Cold Kept Paavo Off Track

The status of Paavo Nurmi, the well-known black bread-and-fish man from Finland, isn't bothering the Los Angeles Athletic Club officials a whit as they continue to prepare for their invitational track and field meet in the Coliseum March 23. They do not hope to run Nurmi eligible or no, but they are confident that the popular Phantom Finn will be reinstated long before his local appearance is scheduled.

PAAVO NURMI

Nurmi was barred from further competition in this country by the registration committee of the A.A.U. following his failure to appear in the steeplechase of the national indoor championships Saturday night at New York. Subsequently it was stated that Nurmi would be reinstated if he had a sufficient reason for his absence.

Charley Keppen, L.A.A.C. official, said yesterday that he received a telegram from Hugo Quist, Nurmi's American representative, Saturday afternoon to the effect that the Finnish runner was suffering from a heavy cold, and that he probably would not appear in the championships. Quist, in another telegram later, said that Nurmi was feeling better, and that he intended to try for the five-mile record this week, indicating that evidently there would be no trouble in gaining the reinstatement of the Finn.

Nurmi is scheduled to make his first outdoor appearance of the year here, running against the best available opposition in a try at his own world's record of 4:10.8 in the mile run.

PAAVO NURMI PLEADS ILLNESS

NEW YORK, Feb. 25. (AP)—Two letters written in Finnish were received at the headquarters of the Amateur Athletic Union today from Paavo Nurmi in which the Finnish runner declared that his failure to appear as scheduled at the national indoor championships in Madison Square Garden Saturday night was due to illness.

MERCURIES TO FACE SAGEHENS

when the Mercuries will be represented by an even stronger squad than the one which captured the national title at Boston last year.

Saturday's meet at Claremont will find the majority of clubmen competing, although the affair is not billed as an official meet. Herman Brix, the Washington giant, who tossed the shot over fifty feet at the Coliseum Saturday after only three days of practice, will again face his club rival, Johnny Kuck, Olympic champion and world record-holder. Bud Houser, discus champion, hopes to be able to leave his dental practice for the meet.

Club officials are now predicting a new Coast javelin record for Jimmy De Mers soon. Jimmy tossed the spear 205 feet Saturday with only one practice behind him and in addition had been through a tough basketball game the night before. He now holds the Coast mark at 213ft. 9in.

Although no official score was kept Saturday the L.A.A.C. team scored the majority of points in the open events, rolling up nearly 30 points on the field alone.

club of fourteen players in the D circuit from those in camp here. Cliff McCarl, who will manage the Tucson club, will handle the Arizona contingent when it arrives in camp.

Mike Mahoney's hitting against Seattle Sunday has just about earned him a chance to try out at second base for the Stars during the regular season. His fielding has been brilliant right along in practice and in the two exhibition games.

Russell Rollings, infielder obtained by purchase from the Fort Worth club of the Texas League, will be tried at third base. Rollings hits well and was used as a utility infielder by the Boston Red Sox for three seasons.

Vitt started intensive drill for the squad today, lengthening the period for exercise and all practice. By the end of this week the squad should be in fair condition, he believes, under the program outlined now.

OXY TENNIS DUO WILL TAKE ON BEARS, CARDS

Capt. Ben Gorchakoff and Arthur Kussman, leading Occidental tennis stars, will journey north tomorrow for the annual dual meet with Stanford and California on Friday and Saturday afternoons, respectively.

The matches are two-man team affairs. The return matches in Los Angeles will be four-man team events. Featuring the Stanford-Oxy meet are the two singles tilts in which John Doeg, eighth ranking player in the United States, and Ben Gorchakoff, twice college national finalist, and John Wheatley and Art Kussman will do battle.

Less Nerve Strain in Night Driving

A NEW LAMP has been invented that turns automatically with the wheels of your car and lights each turn before you make it.

Instead of your headlights shooting off into space leaving you temporarily helpless in the dark, this lamp illuminates each curve brightly. It detects for you any obstruction that might cause an accident and possible injury to yourself and others with you in your car.

This lamp, called Pilot-Ray, is endorsed by safety engineers both in America and abroad. It is considered the greatest advance in safe night driving since the discovery of the storage battery.

See Your Car Dealer

There is only one Pilot-Ray. No other lamp operates on this safety principle. No other lamp guards your life so faithfully.

Once you have driven with it, we believe, you will never consent to go back to the old unsafe way of night driving.

SCIENCE GAUGES VOICE'S EMOTION

New Sound Device Developed as Aid to Talking Pictures

Test Under Way With "Tono-Phonograph"

Dr. Arnold Wagner, inventor of scientific instrument that records vocal emotion, tries it on Jean Hodgson.

CO-EDS at the University of Southern California are having their voices measured for emotion. Sopranos and contraltos are discovering scientifically whether they have the correct emotional tone quality to impart plausibility when they say, "This is so sudden" or "I will be a sister to you." Emotion of the voice now can be measured to the decimal by a newly invented scientific instrument called the tono-phonograph. Dr. Arnold Wagner is the inventor.

By means of this device, emotional qualities are measured and pictured on a motion-picture film. This will enable a director to determine scientifically whether a leading woman he is about to cast has "it" in her voice. This means another mechanical advance produced for the talking pictures.

STORAGE SCHEME HITS SNAG

Pasadena Plan for Utilizing San Gabriel Dam Declared Illegal by County Counsel

Two obstacles to the efforts of Pasadena and other cities to use the $35,000,000 San Gabriel Dam for water-storage purposes developed at a meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday.

One was the acceptance with the apparent approval of the board of Special Counsel Morgan's opinion that the new 428-foot dam could not be used for anything except flood control without a special act of the Legislature.

The other was the expressed disapproval of the amendment to the Flood Control Act proposed by W. B. Matthews, counsel for the City Board of Water and Power. This amendment, according to Supervisor McClellan, chairman of the board, would take the administration of flood-control projects from county authorities and place it in the hands of a separate commission.

ATTORNEYS AGREE

County Counsel Mattoon and Flood Control Counsel Dowds concurred in Attorney Morgan's opinion, which was written after an exhaustive study of Pasadena's suggestion that the foothill city be allowed to lease space in the reservoir to store a water supply. It was suggested that a considerable return on the country's investment in the dam could be obtained by renting surplus space as a storage reservoir.

The opinion given the Supervisors held that the uses of flood-control and water storage were so diverse that an act granting powers for one purpose would conceivably be in direct opposition to the other purpose.

Attorney Morgan, who collaborated with Counsel Matthews in drawing the proposed amendment, said that it would make Pasadena's participation in the benefits of the San Gabriel Dam possible.

RIGHTS NOT CONFIRMED

It was pointed out, however, that Pasadena's rights to San Gabriel water by no means have been established and that other cities, notably Long Beach, are contesting the foothill city's claim.

Engineers of the city metropolitan district have long been of the opinion that the San Gabriel Dam or another structure to be located in the canyon below would be an ideal place to store the water that is to be brought to the coastal area from the Colorado River. It was to permit this storage to be legally possible that Counsel Matthews and officials of other cities interested in the Colorado River metropolitan district collaborated to draw the amendment to the flood-control bill that was discussed at a meeting of the board yesterday.

Although individual members of the board expressed unfavorable opinions of the amendment, the board officially took it under advisement.

PINE CANYON DAM PERMIT GRANTED

PASADENA, Feb. 25.—This city's application for a permit to store water on 600 acres of land at the proposed Pine Canyon dam site in San Gabriel Canyon has been granted by the General Land Office, according to word received today by Samuel Morris, Municipal Water Department superintendent.

The favorable action is expected to hasten the solution of the question as to whether Pasadena will erect an independent dam behind the County Flood Control dam or effect an arrangement whereby this city would use the county dam to store the water granted this municipality by the State Division of Water Rights.

In granting the permit, William Spry, Land Office commissioner of Washington, D. C., dismissed the protests against Pasadena's project lodged by Long Beach, Whittier and the San Gabriel Valley Protective Association. Supt. Morris is of the opinion that the protestants have thirty days in which to carry an appeal to the Secretary of the Interior.

On July 9, 1928, this city received a permit from the State Division of Water Rights to store 65,000 acre feet of water in San Gabriel Canyon on the basis of prior rights and to divert from storage, not to exceed eighty cubic feet of water per second.

"The permits from the State and the United States Land Office place the city in a favorable position to proceed with its dam project," declared Morris.

In an effort to obviate the necessity of duplicating the County Flood Control dam at an expense to Pasadena of $7,000,000, the Board of City Directors recently sent a communication to the Board of County Supervisors, asking if the county would agree to an amendment to the Flood Control Act that would permit Pasadena to use the forks dam that is in process of construction north of Azusa. The County Supervisors have not answered this communication regarding the joint storage of water.

LOCAL MOTOR GAINS PLACE IN AIR RACES

Following an official check-up yesterday of the summaries in the week-end air meet at Oakland, it was announced that a Los Angeles-made motor gained a place in each of the four races. LARGE CITY WATER MAP COMPLETED

Permanent Exhibit to be Placed in City Hall Today With Dedication Thursday

Installation will be completed today by the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power of the huge relief map and permanent exhibit being placed in the City Hall to show the source of the city's water supply and the wide territory covered in the distribution of municipal water and power.

Formal dedication of the map and exhibit has been set for Thursday, Mayor Cryer, John R. Richards, president of the Board of Water and Power Commissioners, and other city officials will participate.

The purpose of the exhibit is to give a comprehensive view of the city's water and power system including the source of supply, the supply system reaching from the Sierra Nevadas to the city and the vast metropolitan area served by the city, it was stated yesterday by H. A. Van Norman, chief engineer and general manager of the Bureau of Water Works and Supply.

Requiring more than four months to build, the map was designed and built under the direction of the Department of Water and Power. It was made by Rodolph Little, Los Angeles artist.

The map, which is fourteen feet square, occupies a space on the Spring-street level of the City Hall between the offices of the Mayor and the City Clerk. On either side of the map is a large diorama.

New Record Set in Flight From Bay City

Establishing what is believed to be a record for any regularly scheduled transport airplane, a plane of the Western Air Express yesterday flew from San Francisco to Los Angeles in two hours and five minutes. The plane, a trimotored Fokker, took off from the northern terminus at 9:15 a.m., and landed at Vail Field at 11:20, averaging 178 miles an hour for the 365-mile trip.

The ship carried seven passengers and about 300 pounds of cargo. It was piloted by Capt. Hal Holloway, with Gilbert Clarke serving as second pilot.

The previous best time by a Western Air Express plane in San Francisco-to-Los Angeles flight was two hours and ten minutes.

LOS FELIZ AREA WILL GET SCHOOL

New Senior High to be Built in Near Future if Funds Materialize

Los Feliz residents were assured of a new senior high school in the near future if sufficient funds can be arranged for. This was the assurance given last night by Jonathan B. Beman, president of the Board of Education, to a delegation from that section.

"It may not be necessary to wait for another bond issue," Mr. Beman said, "especially in view of the fact that the site already has been provided and the expense will be for the buildings only."

The nearest senior high schools are Belmont, on the south, and Hollywood High School to the west, and residents of the Los Feliz section have been petitioning for a high school since the last bond issue, which was voted on in 1924. The present site of the school, to be known as the John Marshall High School, is situated at Mona, Price and St. George streets.

Contracts for the new Audubon Junior High School, for which bids were submitted, also were let last night. Garver & Zoss, contractors, were the low bidders for the building, their price being $379,000 with the physical-education building omitted. Hickman Brothers were awarded the contract for plumbing, their figure being $17,944. The structure is to be completed in not to exceed 180 calendar days, according to the terms of the bids.

Henderson Will Be in Charge of Air Races Again

Cliff Henderson, managing director of the National Air Races and Aeronautical Exposition at Mines Field last year, has been named to fill the same post at the 1929 event in Cleveland, according to telegraphic advices received here yesterday.

The races will be held August 24 to September 2 at the Cleveland Municipal Airport simultaneously with the aeronautical exposition in the new $10,000,000 Civic Auditorium. The races will include air derbies and nonstop flights from various points in the United States and an elaborate racing program at the airport. Cash prizes and trophies totaling $100,000 will be offered.

SENSIBLE YEAR-OLD BABY REFUSES HER BOTTLE

Mrs. C. W. writes: "Please give me some advice on the following: My baby is almost a year old and weighs twenty-one pounds. I still put a food with her milk formula and have tried it without but it doesn't seem to agree with her. She won't drink more than four ounces every four hours. At noon I give her mashed potatoes and peas, carrots or spinach. Otherwise she has nothing but her bottle. She loves to eat, but doesn't like the bottle. She does have orange juice and cod liver oil. She has no teeth. She walks by holding onto things."

Answer: Here is a great big husky girl of good weight and you are trying to keep her on a bottle formula at 1 year of age. She is a sensible baby when she refuses it. She should be having plain milk now, entirely by cup, and three meals a day, and if she won't take a quart of milk by cup, then give only two or three cupfuls of milk daily and incorporate the rest of the milk in her food. One quart of milk a day is all a child needs. Some mothers give this much to drink and then use milk in lots of other ways and wonder why the child has no enthusiasm for his milk feedings.

There seems to be a pretty general agreement among feeding experts these days that the quart of milk "rule" can be overdone. Many children will not eat enough solid foods if they are forced to drink a quart of milk either by bottle or cup. In that case, the wisest thing to do is to offer the solid food and give less milk to drink; if possible, use more milk in the diet. In your case, the child should have cereal in the morning and the four ounces of plain milk that she will accept. Vegetables and perhaps egg or some scraped meat and rwelback at noon and again her four ounces of milk by cup. At 3 or 4 o'clock a cracker and her four ounces of milk. At 6 or 6:30 at night cereal and milk again. The orange juice can be given with breakfast or between meals, and the cod liver oil one-half hour or so after any meal. Three small doses a day are better than one large dose and not so upsetting to the child.

Your are fortunate that the baby is willing to eat and likes to eat. Don't make the mistake of holding onto that bottle thinking it has some magic property to prevent illnourishment. After baby is 1 year of age bottle days are past and it is essential that other foods be added to the milk diet.

HEALTH and DIET ADVICE

By Dr Frank McCoy

author of "The Four Jews to Health"

Dr. McCoy will answer personal questions on health and diet, addressed to him, care of The Los Angeles Times, inclosing stamped, addressed envelope for reply.

SOFT DIETS

While fasting must not be considered a "cure-all," it is indicated at the beginning of the treatment for any disorder, as practically any patient is benefited by an exclusive fruit, vegetable or milk diet for a time.

I do not advocate the ordinary soft diets sometimes given in hospitals, which consist of a mixture of milk custards, gruels and soups. This diet is sometimes given after an operation by the doctor, who believes that these foods are more readily digested than the ordinary food served in the hospital. This assumption is a serious mistake, and I am sure that some of the complications from operations arise because of the wrong diet.

If custards are properly made without the addition of sugars and starches they will be quite readily digested and not produce unpleasant disturbances in the alimentary canal.

Milk requires much time for its digestion and unless used in the right way more harm can result from the thickened curds than if ordinary foods were used. It takes from four to six hours for a glass of milk to leave the stomach and if other foods are used at the same time it may take longer.

Mushes of all kinds are inclined to cause digestive disturbances because of the large amount of starch they contain. Oatmeal mush or gruel, which is commonly used, is irritating to the stomach and should be used only by those who are in good health. There is no reason for giving this highly starchy food to a patient who is confined to bed. One of the greatest difficulties after an abdominal operation of any kind is to avoid excessive flatulence, and for this reason starches and sugars should be avoided.

If there is a reason for using a soft diet, it is far better to use a soft cooked egg combined with some of the nonstarchy vegetables, such as spinach, summer squash, string beans, etc. These vegetables should be cooked in a small amount of water, mashed and seasoned with cream, if desired. In place of the egg it is all right to substitute Salisbury steak to a limited amount.

Occasionally, I still advise an exclusive water fast, but only for a few days to assist in flushing the system. This is sometimes advisable at the start of the treatment for arthritis, rheumatism, cystitis and various toxic diseases. The best method is for the patient to drink one or two glasses of distilled water every half-hour during his waking hours. In this manner from three to four gallons of distilled water can be consumed daily. Enemas should also be used because of the lack of solid matter for the bowels. This is also true of all liquid diets.

I rarely have a patient continue an exclusive water fast for more than a few days without changing to some of the other liquid diets or to the solid foods.

In tomorrow's article I will describe the method which I have found most suitable for using the milk diet.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Indigestion and Magnesia

Question: Mrs. R. V. asks: "Is constant indigestion a cause of thinness? Will milk of magnesia if taken after every meal correct this condition?"

Answer: Milk of magnesia will sometimes give a temporary relief, but cannot be considered a cure. Constant indigestion undoubtedly would tend to keep one thin. You would have to have a diagnosis to determine the cause of your indigestion.

Stimulation

Q.: K. J. A. asks: "Why is it that I do not feel strengthened or energized after a meal which does not contain starchy food? I am much underweight."

A.: All highly starchy or sugar foods tend to produce a quite rapid stimulation within a short time after they are eaten. We are uncertain as to whether this comes entirely from the food value contained in these foods or from some influence made upon the digestive organs—possibly the effect upon the secretion of digestive fluids. It is quite certain in any case that the stimulation does not indicate real strength and that there is no food which actually produces a better muscular tone in a short time after it is eaten. Real strength must come from muscular training and the use of foods containing the proteins and the organic minerals.

Snoring

Q.: Mrs. C. M. writes: "Please tell me what makes people snore. My husband snores so loudly he keeps me awake nights. Is there a cure?"

A.: Snoring is usually caused by some obstruction of the nasal passages. Most cases can be benefited by following a fasting and dieting regime for colds and catarrh.

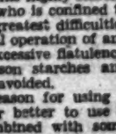
CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES



Every Tuesday and Friday at 1:30 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

WELSH RAREBIT

Two tablespoonfuls of butter, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of mustard, a few grains of cayenne, one cupful of grated cheese, two tablespoonfuls of flour, half a teaspoonful of salt, one cupful of thin cream, one egg. Melt the butter, add the flour, mustard, salt, cayenne and mix well, slowly add the cream and bring to the boiling point, stirring constantly. Add the cheese, and stir until it melts. Remove from the fire, beat the egg well, add a little of the hot sauce to it then stir the remainder into sauce. Mix well and pour over hot toast.

PECAN SALAD

One tablespoonful of gelatine, three-fourths of a cupful of grapefruit juice, four tablespoonfuls of sugar, twelve stuffed olives, cut in half, two tablespoonfuls of cold water, one cupful of boiling water, one-half a cupful of chopped pecans, one-half a cupful of chopped celery. Soak the gelatine in the cold water and dissolve in the boiling water; add the sugar and grapefruit juice and mix until the gelatine is thoroughly dissolved. Fill wet molds one-fourth full of the mixture, allow to cool, add a layer of the pecan meats, then add a little more of the jelly, allow that to harden then a layer of the halved olives, another layer of the jelly and a layer of the chopped celery, halving the last layer of the jelly. Turn out of the molds on a bed of lettuce, garnish with mayonnaise.

CARROT SOUFFLE

Peel and slice and place in a saucepan one bunch of carrots, and cook until soft, drain and press through a colander, heat in a saucepan two tablespoonfuls of butter, and mix with it six tablespoonfuls of sifted flour, and work until smooth. Add one and one-half cupfuls of milk, stir and cook for five minutes. Remove from the fire, add four tablespoonfuls of sugar, and the well-beaten yolks of six eggs, add the carrot puree, mix well, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the six eggs, pour into a buttered souffle dish and bake until slightly browned, and firm. Serve immediately with cream and powdered sugar.

SPANISH MEAT DISH

Take half a pound each of raw lean beef, and the same amount of raw pork, run twice through a meat grinder, add half a teaspoonful of salt, two teaspoonfuls of chili powder that has been dissolved in a little cold water, one slightly beaten egg, blend well, add half a cupful of dry bread crumbs, form the mixture into small balls, then flatten out and place in the center one-fourth of a hard-boiled egg. Cover the egg with the meat mixture, make a chili sauce, drop into it the meat balls when boiling hot; reduce the fire, cover and let simmer gently for half an hour. Just before serving remove the meat balls to a platter, thicken the sauce slightly with a little flour or cornstarch, pour the sauce around them and garnish with chopped parsley.

FRENCH COOKING TO BE EXPLAINED TODAY

La Belle France seems to predominate in the recipes which Mrs. Mabelle (Chef) Wyman has chosen to demonstrate this afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock in the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway. The list follows: French layer cake with cream butter frosting; French apple pie; ground artichoke salad with avocado dressing; crab a la Louis and prune parfait.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Practical and Dainty

The nicest covering for pantry shelves is white oilcloth or shelf oilcloth with a tiny dainty colored edge. It can be wiped off when dusty and presents such a clean appearance when the doors are opened. It pays for itself, too, in the long run as it lasts indefinitely.

Careless Habits

Don't drift into careless habits at the table. Every now and then listen and see if you are eating silently, chewing with your lips closed and not by any chance smacking those same lips. Beware of large mouthfuls. They make nice eating very difficult.

Peel Your Skin To Natural Beauty

To give your skin that natural appearance of clear, unblemished loveliness, use daily a little pure mercolised wax. Procure an ounce from your druggist and use as directed. The wax gradually absorbs the coarse, faded or discolored film skin in almost invisible particles. Soon the tender skin is revealed clear, velvety-soft and girlish. Mercolised wax brings out the hidden beauty. To quickly remove wrinkles and restore facial contour, use as an astringent, 1 ounce powdered mazellite and 1 half pint witch hazel.—[Advertisement.]

Alhambra Bank Bandit Convicted

Joseph Perlito yesterday was convicted by Judge Aggeler of first-degree robbery in connection with the daylight hold-up, December 5, last, of the First National Bank branch of Alhambra.

Perlito was accused of taking $2864 from Clarence L. Woehhols, a teller, while other employees were out at noon. Under the court's decision Perlito faces a penitentiary term of from seven years to life. He will come before the court Friday for sentence.

Heinz Tomato Ketchup outsells all others, regardless of price.

Have you noticed how much thicker Heinz Tomato Ketchup is . . . how slowly this wonderful flavor pours from the bottle?

Here is the reason:

It is thick because it is all tomato . . . all surplus water cooked away . . . just the thick boiled-down essence of vine-ripened tomatoes spiced to the tantalizing point. You'll like it a lot . . . and you'll like a lot of it.

For the few cents extra you pay you get the extra food value that Heinz quality always gives—in Heinz Oven-Baked Beans, Cooked Spaghetti, Rice Flakes, Peanut Butter, India Relish or any of the 57 Varieties.

Fat Comes at 40

to most people—for this reason

At about the age of 40 most men and women take on fat. Medical men know the reason. At that age the thyroid gland often loses power. That gland largely controls nutrition. One of its functions is to turn food into fuel and energy. The food goes to fat when it weakens.

The modern method of treating obesity aims to correct that deficiency. Physicians the world over employ it.

That is the method embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for over 20 years. That is one reason why excess fat is far less common than it used to be.

The Marmola prescription has been perfected by one of the greatest medical laboratories in the world. It is used by countless people to bring weight part, day by day. You will be surprised. Don't delay. Get Marmola and see what this famous prescription will do for you.

CHEF WYMAN'S ANSWERS

PHILADELPHIA SCRAPPLE

A. R. T., Los Angeles, Cal.: Have the butcher clean and cut in quarters a young pig's head, remove the brains and the eyes, place in a kettle, cover with boiling water and cook until the meat leaves the bones. Allow to stand in the water until cold, remove the grease cake, remove all the bones from the meat and cut the meat in small pieces. Strain the liquor, add the meat, bring to a boil and stir in enough corn meal, gradually, until it makes a thick mush, season with black pepper, salt and powdered sage. Place the mixture in oiled bread pans and allow to stand in a cold place for twenty-four hours. Cut in slices, roll in corn meal and fry in hot shortening. Serve hot with slices of fried apples.

FINNAN HADDIE SOUFFLE

Mrs. M. T., Glendale, Cal.: Two cupfuls of flaked finnan haddie, two cupfuls of milk, six tablespoonfuls of oil, five tablespoonfuls of flour, two stiffly beaten egg whites, one tablespoonful of lemon juice, one teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one cupful of soft bread crumbs, heat the milk, mix the oil and flour and gradually pour into the milk, mixing until smooth. Add the seasonings, finnan haddie and the bread crumbs, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs, place in a well oiled baking dish, sprinkle with a few buttered crumbs and bake for fifteen minutes in a medium oven.

CHIFFON LEMON PIE

E. H. R., Los Angeles, Cal.: Line a deep pie dish with rich pastry and bake. For the filling use one and one-fourth cupfuls of sugar, the grated rind of one lemon, one and one-half cupfuls of boiling water, one-half a cupful of flour or corn starch, one-half teaspoonful of salt, grated rind of one orange, the yolks of three eggs, one-half a cupful of lemon juice, mix the sugar, flour and salt together, place in a double boiler and add the boiling water, and add the grated rind, lemon juice and cook slowly for fifteen minutes, stirring occasionally to keep it from lumping. Then add the well-beaten yolks of three eggs, adding a little of the hot mixture to the yolks before mixing them in it. Cook until thick, pour into a baked pie shell, make a meringue of the three egg whites beaten until stiff and dry, adding six tablespoonfuls of sugar, beat again until stiff, then add three more tablespoonfuls of sugar and beat again until stiff and dry. Place on the pie in a slow oven until it is lightly browned. Turn off the heat and allow to cool in the oven.

CANNING AVOCADOS

H. A. F., Oceanside, Cal.: There has been a premium offered for anybody who can successfully can avocados and the Bureau of Agriculture has been working on it for several years; but so far to my knowledge have not met with any success. I am sorry that I cannot be of any assistance to you.

CHEESE CAKE

C. M., Los Angeles, Cal.: Cream one-half a cupful of butter and beat into it one-half a cupful of sugar, working it in a little at a time, add to this mixture one slightly beaten egg, sift two cupfuls of flour with one and one-half teaspoonfuls of baking powder, add to the butter mixture alternately with sufficient milk to make a stiff dough, about three tablespoonfuls, turn out on a floured board, knead, place in a bowl, cover with oiled paper, place in the ice box for one hour. Roll out the pastry, line a deep dish with it.

For the filling place three and one-half cupfuls of dry cottage cheese through a ricer or colander, then add one-fourth of a cupful of cream and one cupful of sugar, add the beaten yolks of five eggs, add to them two tablespoonfuls of corn starch and one-half a teaspoonful of salt. Mix with the cheese, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the five eggs, add two teaspoonfuls of vanilla extract (seedless raisins can be used if liked,) pour into the pastry-lined shell, sprinkle with cinnamon. Bake in a hot oven for the first fifteen minutes, then reduce the heat gradually and finish baking in a slow oven.

HOT CHOCOLATE

L. K., Los Angeles: For each cup of chocolate to be made use two level teaspoonfuls of chocolate, one-fourth of a cupful of boiling water, one cupful of scalded milk, and a few grains of salt. Mix the chocolate with the boiling water and allow to boil for three minutes, stirring all the time. Add the scalded milk, and cook in a double boiler for ten minutes, add the few grains of salt, and sweeten to taste. Some cream may be used in place of all milk. Beat well just before serving and add more sugar if necessary when combining with the scalded milk.

PRUNE WHIP

M. T., Pasadena: Take one cupful of prune pulp that has been rubbed through a coarse sieve, beat the whites of three eggs until stiff, add three tablespoonfuls of sugar and beat again. Fold in carefully the prune pulp and one teaspoonful of vanilla extract, and half a cupful of chopped walnuts may be added if liked. Pour into an ungreased baking dish, set in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven until firm in the center. Hope you will meet with success with this recipe.

XXXX SUGAR AND ICINGS

N. H., Los Angeles: XXXX powdered sugar and XXXX confectioner's sugar is the same thing and you can get it at any grocery store. An icing usually used for angel food cake or sponge cake is made with the unbeaten white of one egg and enough sugar to make of a consistency to spread. Flavored with any desired flavoring.

CHOCOLATE FROSTING

Three and one-half squares of unsweetened chocolate, two cupfuls of powdered sugar, five tablespoonfuls of milk, the yolks of two eggs, one teaspoonful of vanilla. Cut the chocolate into small pieces, place in a pan and melt over hot water. Add to it one cupful of sugar, and the milk. Then add the remaining amount of sugar; add the well beaten yolks of the two eggs. Place in a double boiler and cook until it thickens, stirring constantly. Remove from the fire, cool slightly, add the extract and spread on the cake.

MARSHMALLOW FROSTING

Melt half a pound of marshmallows that have been cut in small pieces in a double boiler, boil one cup of sugar, with three tablespoonfuls of water until it will spin a thread when a little is dropped from the tip of a spoon. Beat in a thin stream into the stiffly beaten white of one egg, add the melted marshmallows and beat until thick enough to spread.

Throng Attends Funeral Service of Fred Butler

Hundreds of floral offerings placed yesterday on the coffin and adorning the chancel of Pierce Brothers chapel bore silent evidence of the esteem in which friends hold the memory of Fred J. Butler, veteran actor and producer, who died last Friday at Good Samaritan Hospital.

More than 500 men and women, hundreds of whom had known and worked with Mr. Butler in the theatrical world, attended the Christian Science funeral services. Interment was at Forest Lawn.

In respect to the memory of Mr. Butler the Belasco Theater, with which he long had been associated, was dark last night. Mr. Butler was 60 years of age. Besides his widow he leaves his son, David W. Butler, of Los Angeles.

Mental Patient Escapes Custody

After threatening the psycopathic ward warden of the General Hospital with an iron pipe yesterday, Percy H. Baker escaped, according to report made to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital from which he had been sent. Baker is 28 years of age and lived at 1062 Bixel street. He was transferred to the psycopathic ward of General Hospital yesterday, and was being taken to a room when he ran to the basement.

Warden Johnson chased him until Baker grabbed a piece of iron pipe and brandished it. While Johnson went to get reinforcements, Baker crawled through an air intake, scaled a twenty-foot wall and vanished.

Inquest Slated This Morning in Death of Wood

An inquest will be conducted at 9:30 a.m. today to determine officially the cause of the death of John Wood, Long Beach oil worker who, police say, was shot to death by Waldo E. Nixon during an asserted hold-up in Wilmington early Sunday morning.

Following the Coroner's inquiry, in the Wood's funeral parlors, Wilmington, the facts found by investigators will be placed in the hands of the District Attorney to determine whether a murder complaint shall be filed.

Nixon was arrested by detectives Sunday upon a description furnished by W. E. Powe and Miss Virginia Hill, who were with Wood at the time he was shot.

Remember the FACTS about used car allowances

MOST new car sales now involve the trading-in of a buyer's used car. More and more people are asking: "Why should my used car seem to have several values? ... Why should dealers in different makes of cars offer me allowances differing materially? .... Does the largest allowance offered mean the best deal for me?"

Here are basic facts:

1 Your used car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.

2 Your used car has only one fundamental basis of value: what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.

3 The largest trade-in allowance which is offered on your used car is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; sometimes it is not.

4 An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.

COURT SET FOR SHULER'S TRIAL

Preacher Will Face Criminal Libel Charge Today

No Special Prosecutor to be Used in Battle

Judge's Quarters Made Ready for Large Crowds

No special prosecutor will be used in the trial of Rev. Robert P. Shuler on criminal libel charges, scheduled for 10 a.m. today, City Prosecutor Nix declared yesterday. He said that the case will be handled by Chief Trial Deputy Claire Eberhard of his office, assisted by Deputies Claude Morton and Paul Hornaday.

Selection of a jury, which will be the first thing taken up when the case is called in Judge Sheldon's court this morning, will occupy more time than the trial itself, Paul Barksdale D'Orr, defense attorney, predicted yesterday. Eberhard declares that he will be satisfied with any twelve men or women selected.

EVIDENCE DOCUMENTARY

Both prosecution and defense state that the evidence will be largely documentary, although Eberhard said that he has subpoenaed ten witnesses, most of them members of the Knights of Columbus, whom Shuler is accused of libelling.

Aside from Bishop Cantwell of the Los Angeles-San Diego diocese of the Catholic Church, whom he subpoenaed last Saturday, D'Orr declined to name his witnesses. He said that it is uncertain whether he will call Shuler to the stand, as he does not yet know any evidence that the accused pastor could give in the case other than the documents which will be introduced. Bishop Cantwell, he said, will be asked to identify the works of numerous ecclesiastical authorities whom he desires to introduce.

READY FOR CROWDS

The case will start promptly at 10 a.m., according to both sides. Both D'Orr and Eberhard state that they are ready to go to trial and will not ask for further continuances.

In preparation for the trial, a large force of carpenters yesterday installed a new partition and door in the hallway leading to Division 7 of the Municipal Court, where the case will be tried, in order to allow police officers and bailiffs to handle the crowds, which at the preliminaries threatened to swamp the court where Shuler appeared.

JURY WILL GET STORY OF KILLING

Woman's Account of Old Murder of F. Lewis Clark to be Retold in North

Maraget Kelly will be taken to Santa Barbara tomorrow morning to appear before that county's grand jury to tell of her self-confessed knowledge of the asserted robbery and murder of F. Lewis Clark there in January of 1914.

Captain of Police Burnam and Detective-Lieutenant Cuit, who have been here investigating assertions made by the woman to the effect that a mob with whom she was aligned at that time made away with the Spokane (Wash.) retired millionaire, said that Mrs. Kelly, booked at the County Jail here as Marie Ella Allen, will be taken to the fashionable resort city by automobile to recount to officials there her story of the asserted mysterious disappearance of Clark.

Detective-Lieutenant Sanderson, assigned by Captain of Detectives Bean to aid northern officials in checking Mrs. Kelly's fantastic story, said today he will question a man now held in the City Jail on a Wright Act charge as the result of the murder tale related to the police department by Mrs. Kelly.

In her narration of events that are said to have led up to Clark's asserted slaying, Mrs. Kelly named a man who is known to police as a "racketeer."

When calling at his residence last night officers learned that he now is held in City Jail on a Wright Act charge. A check of the records as to his identity verified their information and a lengthy interrogation of the man is planned for today. Officials refused to divulge his identity.

EXHIBITION SHOWS ART OF CAMERA

English Photographer Has Pictures of Europeans of World Fame

Portraiture exemplified by the camera lens drew more than 1000 visitors to the Biltmore Ballroom yesterday for the opening of an exhibit brought here from Europe by Richard N. Speaight, F.R.P.C., London court photographer, and sponsored by the Eastman Kodak Company. The exhibit will be open again today from 9 a.m. until noon.

The exhibition is said to be the most complete display of photographic portraiture ever shown, containing some 200 pictures which include crowned heads of Europe, other prominent personages and studies notable for artistic merit.

Mr. Speaight spent a long time making the collection and he will take the exhibit to about twenty of the cities of the United States before returning to Europe. His purpose is to acquaint the American public with the photographic art of Europe and to show the high state of development it has reached there.

About forty photographers from England, France, Germany, Italy, Austria, Switzerland and Denmark are represented. Among the pictures are those of the King and Queen of England, Miss Helen Wills, the King and Queen of Italy, Mussolini, Henry P. Fletcher, American Ambassador at Rome; the Sultan of Morocco, the Swedish royal family and many other prominent persons.

It is said Mr. Speaight probably has photographed more famous Europeans than any other person, beginning with the time he took a picture of the Prince of Wales in a pinafore. His own collection includes about thirty persons of world fame.

Last evening Mr. Speaight lectured at the Biltmore. He discussed European photographers and their methods and illustrated his talk with pictures.

BISHOP SAYS MAN'S NEEDS UNCHANGING

Lenten Sermon Points Out Need for Love and Faith on Part of Humanity

Discussing "This Changing World" in his Lenten sermon yesterday, at St. Paul's Cathedral, Dr. L. C. Sanford, Episcopal bishop of San Joaquin, told his audience that, in spite of the countless innovations of modern times, human nature is practically the same today as it was 2000 years ago and that the one permanent feature of humanity is the never-ending need of food and raiment, mental nourishment and spiritual progress.

"We live in a changing world," said Bishop Sanford. "Population, especially in the United States, is constantly increasing. The fever of activity, of accomplishment is a sign of the times. Our civilization has become mechanized, our society standardized and it is difficult to keep up with the swift trend of events. However, in all this flux and change there remains the changelessness of human nature, beneath and behind all movement there is the permanent and the eternal.

"In this day of doubt, of skepticism and questioning, when noted writers and speakers are publicly attacking morality and religion, there is greater need than ever before for the realization of man's need for love and faith and hope for duty, responsibility and for God."

Bishop Sanford will speak at St. Paul's Cathedral at noon every day this week, excepting Saturday.

ARMY AVIATORS TO GIVE CIRCUS

Flyers Plan Demonstration for Graduation

Elaborate Exercises Fixed for March Field

New Government Airport Rapidly Developing

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 25.—In addition to watching the budding war pilots "on parade," persons attending the third graduating exercises at March Field Wednesday morning will be given their first glimpse of the rising Greater March Field, a project on which the government is spending approximately $2,500,000 now and contemplates expenditure of almost double this before completed.

Some of the post buildings, a survey showed today, are completed to the furnishing point and several other units are rising rapidly. The eight huge hangars fronting the landing field already have been placed in use.

With the Mediterranean-mission architecture already "showing through," the construction project at the post is believed certain of surprising Southern Californians with its extent. A group of attractive Spanish bungalows for the officers is nearing completion as also are the barracks for the enlisted men.

Army authorities, after seeing the building plans, have predicted the post will be the most beautiful of any in the world. In another year or two the army plans to station here a bombing unit with huge bombing ships.

The aerial parade of cadets which attracted more than 2000 persons to each of the preceding graduations, is scheduled to open at 9 a.m. when a huge squadron of planes will take to the air. Exact number of graduates yet has not been made known and for this reason how many student flyers will participate in the "circus" is uncertain.

The fledgling birdmen will tip their wings in formation flights before Commandant Millard F. Harmon, Jr., members of the school staff and visiting army officials.

Two Suspects Held for Theft at Golf Club

SANTA ANA, Feb. 25.—Two suspects were under surveillance today by the Sheriff's office in connection with the theft of an unknown number of golf clubs and balls by burglars who forced a window to the caddy house at the Santa Ana Country Club early yesterday.

Reaching through the bars that protected the window, the burglars are said to have taken everything within arm's reach. The full extent of the theft will be known club officials said, only when outraged golfers find their clubs missing on their next visit to the course.

Deputy Sheriff Harry E. Carter and Herman Zabel, fingerprint expert, announced today, following a visit to the premises, that two persons are under suspicion.

The Sheriff's office today was also investigating a burglary at the service station of W. J. Hales at Orana, where a quantity of candy, gum, cigarettes and other supplies was taken. Deputy Sheriff M. E. Jemison is working on the case.

SAN FERNANDO, Feb. 25. (AP)—Rev. M. J. Joseph of the Mexican Catholic Church here, today was saved from possible death by the discovery of two sticks of dynamite under the floor boards of his automobile before starting the engine.

Investigation showed that a wire connecting with the spark plugs was fastened to the concussion cap of the improvised bomb.

A young Mexican, whom Joseph refused to marry to a Mexican girl last week, was being sought by officers for questioning. It was said that the youth had threatened Father Joseph's life.

Sister Sues Brother Over Their Mother

SANTA ANA, Feb. 25.—Brother and sister were arrayed against one another today in a lawsuit over guardianship of their mother and her estate.

The petition of Mrs. Bernice E. Moore of Orange for appointment as guardian of the person and estate of her mother, Mrs. Lilla Camfield of Orange, was being contested by her brother, Raymond Romaine Camfield of Buttonwillow, in a hearing before Superior Judge E. J. Marks.

Behind the court action another prospective legal tilt between the brother and sister awaited in the form of a petition filed several days ago by Mrs. Moore to probate the will of her deceased father, E. W. Camfield.

The brother, R. R. Camfield, was named in the will as executor, but, although nearly three years have passed since the father's death, he has failed to petition the court for probate of the will, his sister asserts. For that reason, she claims, he has renounced his legal right to act as executor of the estate. So she filed her own petition for appointment.

The Camfield estate is valued at approximately $6000.

Husband Jails Wife Over Child

ONTARIO, Feb. 25. — A. M. Crosslin is carrying a bitter fight against his divorced wife, Viola Crosslin, and has filed complaint for her arrest on charge of stealing her own son, Mack, aged 6 years, who is said to have fled from Ontario with the boy and is held in the Oakland Jail in lieu of bond of $5000. She was arrested Sunday on a warrant sworn to by her husband in San Bernardino Saturday. When the woman was arrested, her son declared firmly that "I'm going to jail with mama."

The son had been given into the custody of the father.

Mrs. Crosslin, it is charged, came here the 14th inst., and took the boy from South Euclid school, where he is enrolled. She had been given permission to have him this summer, but instead of waiting, stole the child, according to the complaint.

Mrs. Crosslin in her story to police said that her husband had agreed to let her keep the boy during his childhood, but later changed his mind and placed him in school. She readily admitted stealing the child, police aver.

Crosslin followed her to Oakland and pleaded with her to return the boy. Upon her stern refusal he secured the warrant for her arrest.

CITIZENS WANT PARKS RETAINED

San Diego Boulevard Plots Arouse Controversy

Injunction Sought Against Mayor and Council

Assertion Made Executives Acted Minus Authority

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 25.—Protest against removal of the seventeen center park plots along El Cajon avenue from Park Boulevard to Boundary street, was registered in Superior Court today when two property owners, Lee A. Cass and John A. Flint, brought suit for injunction against the Mayor and City Council.

The injunction action follows a recent order of the council when it was determined to remove the park spaces as "traffic menaces." The Council overruled protests of many citizens and the City Park Commission in so determining.

Cass and Flint declare the Council acted without law or other authority in voting to destroy the center parks. When the project for paving the thoroughfare was first broached in September, 1913, an ordinance was enacted setting aside the seventeen plots, forty feet wide and about 300 feet long each, as permanent parks, the property owners contend. There was no provision in the ordinance for removal of the parks.

If the Council should be allowed to remove the parks, the protestants assert, irreparable injury will be worked on the general public. The Council has not considered the general public welfare, but has heeded "a portion of property owners who seek to convert the avenue to a commercial line for private gain." Cass and Flint declare. They add that to remove the parks will cost money that should not be used for the purpose.

The Council was to receive bids today for cost of removing the parks, and the court is asked to restrain the city governing body from award of contract pending trial to make the injunction permanent.

It was founded before the present town of Tujunga was subdivided.

As the result of a straw vote at the last assembly period, the students expressed themselves as opposed to the inclusion of prayers, talks on morality and religion and hymns in future assembly programs.

EXPLOSION WRECKS HOUSE

Man Severely Injured in Ventura Blast Which Shows That Gas Has Escaped Throughout Building

VENTURA, Feb. 25.—E. G. Montgomery was lying near death at the Big Sisters' Hospital today as a result of third-degree burns over his entire body, received in a terrific gas explosion this morning in a rooming-house at 185 South Figueroa street. Seven other persons sleeping in the house escaped uninjured or with minor burns. One fireman burned his hand in helping to carry Montgomery from the burning room where he was imprisoned by a fallen wall.

The blast occurred about 5:20 a.m. It is the opinion of investigators that the explosion occurred in the upper northwest bedroom, where Montgomery was sleeping. The exact cause of the blast has not been determined. The indications were that gas had escaped from a hose in this bedroom and had leaked throughout the night into most of the rooms.

The major explosion was in this bedroom, as shown by the fact that it was the worst damaged. The outside wall was shoved several inches from the floor and the inside wall was blown in the opposite direction. The bed in which Montgomery was sleeping caught fire.

An insurance investigator who went over the house told Mrs. Harry Peck, the owner, that the damage was almost entirely from explosion and not from fire, and said that the $4500 fire insurance carried on the house would not cover the loss. The building was shattered from top to bottom and City Building Inspector Johnson has marked it for condemnation. Practically every window and door in the house was blown out.

The rooming-house has been operated by Mr. and Mrs. J. Manchego, parents of Mrs. Peck. Besides them, sleeping in the house, were the following roomers, known to Manchego only by their surnames: Sullivan, Murphy, Ortiz, Norguez and a youth named Pete Delgado.

Income Taxes Increase for Fruit Grower

REDLANDS, Feb. 25.—Uncle Sam is expecting to get quite a large sum out of the orange growers this year, according to John P. Ward, income-tax expert, sent here by the government to help Redlands people in filing their income-tax returns.

"The government has figured that every orange grower owning eight acres or more of oranges last year should make an income-tax return," Ward said. "It is figured that every grove of that size has paid more than $5000 gross income to the owner which requires a tax return."

Ward says that there will be a great increase in income-tax returns in Southern California for the past year because of the high prices obtained by the orange growers, other good crops and because of the increase in population, general business and building.

PENCILS CAUSE ARREST OF BOY

Robbery of Cash Register Behind Action

Tell-Tale Clews Found in Schoolroom

Juvenile Authorities to Handle Case

MONROVIA, Feb. 25.—How a few yellow pencils untangled a burglary mystery was disclosed at the police station today when Chief of Police Frank Scott traced the robbery of Blick's Grocery yesterday to Edward L. Tillman, 14-year-old negro boy.

The youth entered the store yesterday afternoon by a small window in a closet room at the rear of the store and robbed the cash register of its contents, which amounted to about $10 in change, according to Scott.

First clews to identify the burglar were uncovered this morning when Scott found several yellow pencils bearing the signature of a local lumber company on some sacks of sugar at the rear of the store. Upon investigation, Scott found that the lumber company had missed several dozen pencils.

Working on the theory that some school child had taken the pencils unwound the mystery at noon today when Principal Danneberger of the Huntington grammar school notified police that he had located two of the pencils in question on the desk of the Tillman boy.

Brought before Chief Scott for questioning, the boy confessed to the burglary of the store and that he had stolen the pencils. The boy lives with his parents at 232 East Walnut avenue. He will be given over to juvenile authorities, Scott said.

MARICOPA ROAD PLAN ADVANCED

State Highway Department Sends Check for Final

Supervisor Obtains Deal for Seventeen Miles

County Contributions Project Anticipated

VENTURA, Feb. 25.—Signs of construction of the Maricopa road came two steps closer today with the receipt of a check for $60,000 from the State Highway department and the signing of that deeds have been obtained for seventeen miles of the Ojai valley rights of way.

The $50,000 is the first payment of what is expected to be a distribution of at least $200,000 from the State within the next two years. It was added to a fund of $100,000 already in the treasury of the tricounty board, Another $100,000 from the counties of Ventura, Santa Barbara and Kern is due this summer, making more than $225,000 available for construction this year.

Supervisor T. S. Clark has put in weeks of effort and traveled the length of the State in reaching owners for signatures on deeds for the 100-foot rights of way that the State insisted on having in place of the old eighty-foot right of way. As a result, the district now has the entire seventeen miles in hand, with the exception of one signature, in one case Clark had to make a mountain trip to an almost inaccessible cabin to find a woman who owns a parcel of land the road will traverse.

Arrangements are now being made for a conference with Federal authorities regarding participation in the road construction.

AUSTRALIAN ARRIVES TO BUY FILMS

Theatrical Owner Will Introduce Talkies in Far-Off Antipodes

American motion-picture productions in South Australia are the acme of cinema art. The far off country "down under" enjoys the newest and best of Hollywood's efforts, but the "talkies" have not as yet reached there, according to L. Percival, head of a chain of fifteen South Australian theaters, a guest of the Clark Hotel.

Mr. Percival, here with his wife and daughter on a tour of the country, is combining business with pleasure, and before his return to his Australia home, will have perfected arrangements for the era of talking pictures in that far-off land, he said yesterday.

"We of South Australia believed that Americans who visit us were given to braggadocio. They told us of America in such glowing terms that we were sure they were relying on their imagination. But since my arrival here from Honolulu yesterday, on my first trip to your country, I have come to believe that, instead of being braggarts, Americans who visit us are entirely too modest. You have a wonderful country here and I am in love with it," Mr. Percival exclaimed.

With his family, the Australian head of the Glenelg Theaters, Inc., of Adelaide, will leave for New York within a few days.

BILL SENT TO COUNCIL

A bill of $1502.18 for improvement assessments for Monterey Road and Hardison Way, adjoining the Arroyo Seco parkways, presented by the Securities Corporation to the Park Commission, was referred by that body yesterday to the City Council for payment on the ground that the assessment dates prior to the time the parkways went under jurisdiction of the park department.

GAS STAYS AT ELEVEN CENTS

Efforts to End Price War Futile Yesterday; Association Plans Mass Meeting

Gasoline prices are scheduled to remain around 11 cents a gallon for the next two days, according to service station operators and officials of major oil companies. Efforts to bring an end of the price war were made yesterday but an agreement could not be reached.

Major oil companies made no move toward raising the wholesale cost and continued to deliver gasoline at 9½ cents a gallon. A large number of service stations sold gas as low as 8½ cents a gallon in connection with an oil change, and some maintained a flat rate of 10 cents a gallon.

Only a few of the stations held the price at 12½ cents a gallon. Not many neighborhood stations agreed on prices, and in every section of the city where two or more stations were at the same street location the prices were different. Officials of the Superservice Station Association plan a mass meeting this week in an effort to fix a uniform scale of prices. The independent station men have organized with several independent oil producers for their own brand of gasoline, and almost 600 dealers began the sale of this product yesterday morning.

The independents say they will be able to meet any price offered by the larger corporations and still make a profit. The situation in other parts of the State is similar to that in Los Angeles. In San Diego the prices posted are several cents lower than the average in Los Angeles, but a meeting will be held there tonight in an effort to stabilize the price, it is said.

DEALERS IN NORTH PLAN PLEA TO LEGISLATURE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25. (Exclusive)—Although there was no change here in the gasoline price-cutting situation, East Bay retailers prepared to carry a plea for investigation of the matter to the State Legislature.

W. F. Ostrander, attorney for the dealers and spokesman for the garage owners, the two groups recently having joined to the extent of an agreement on prices in the retail field, announced that the two groups are getting together a demand for legislative investigation and will take it to Sacramento as quickly as it is completed.

"We will ask," he said, "that one of the Legislature's present committees, or a new one, be assigned to the investigation. The public is entitled to know what is behind the gasoline war because the public will have to pay the cost when the gasoline market, retail and wholesale, is stabilized.

"If 15 cents, the wholesale price quoted by the companies until the 'war' started, was a fair quotation, then the prevailing price of 10 cents is unfair to the public holding oil company securities. If, on the other hand, 10 cents is a fair wholesale price, then during the long period the 15-cent quotation prevailed, the companies have bilked the public of millions of dollars."

WAY CLEAR FOR WORK IN VALLEY

Report on Improvement Bond Vote to Council Last Legal Preliminary

With the announcement in the City Council yesterday of the results of the election last Thursday in Municipal Improvement District No. 61, the last legal step was taken which was necessary for the beginning of the largest street-improvement project ever undertaken in the San Fernando Valley. By a vote of 289 to 31 the voters of this district approved a bond issue of $670,000 to pay for its portion of the improvement program.

The project as a whole contemplates the improvement of Ventura Boulevard from Lankershim Boulevard to Sepulveda Boulevard, and the improvement of South Sherman Way from Ventura Boulevard to Beverly Glen Road, which means the widening and paving of nine miles of roadway. The territories embraced in it were divided into three municipal improvement districts, and the bond issues voted by these districts total $1,360,000.

The district which approved the $670,000 issue on Thursday comprises that section of Ventura Boulevard from Sepulveda Boulevard to Pacoima avenue. On Tuesday the district covering the remainder of the Ventura Boulevard improvement, fom Pacoima avenue to Lankershim Boulevard, voted the issuance of $315,000 bonds, and the district covering South Sherman Way approved a $375,000 bond issue.

RITES FOR HUBBARD'S WIFE TODAY

Funeral Services Will Be Conducted for Pioneer of San Fernando Valley

Last rites for Mrs. Henry C. Hubbard, pioneer resident of the San Fernando Valley, who died Friday night as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident on the 2nd inst., will be conducted today at 2 p.m. at the W. G. Noble chapel, Second street and Brand avenue, in San Fernando, Burial will follow in Forest Lawn Cemetery at Glendale.

Mrs. Hubbard, who was 66 years of age, was injured when an automobile in which she was riding skidded on a wet pavement on Ventura Boulevard near Girard and crashed into a telephone pole. She died at the San Fernando Hospital. Mrs. Hubbard was but a few years old when she came to the valley and for several months lived at the mission there while her father established a home for his family. She took an active part in the affairs of the valley as a regent in the Daughters of the American Revolution and as president of the San Fernando Woman's Club.

Besides her husband, Col. Hubbard, she leaves a son, Wright Hubbard, a daughter, Mrs. H. H. Dace, and a grand-daughter, Catherine E. Egbert.

mained fairly good until the final attack.

The desire to settle here came to his father, George Kerckhoff, in 1875 when he came here on a camping trip from Indiana. Three years later the father brought his family here. The son was educated in the public schools and at Lingen, Germany. He married Miss Louise Eshman in Terre Haute in 1883 and brought her to California.

Mr. Kerckhoff and his associates established the first lumber wharves at San Pedro and later acquired timber lands and mills.

GAVE CITY ELECTRICITY

In 1897 Mr. Kerckhoff was the guiding hand in giving Los Angeles its first electrical current from hydroelectric power through the construction of a power plant on the Lower San Gabriel River. This venture led to the establishment of plants in San Antonio Canyon and on Kern River.

The San Joaquin Valley from Merced to Bakersfield received power through an organization directed by Mr. Kerckhoff and his associates when the Kern River plants developed 182,550 horsepower.

Mr. Kerckhoff had held the presidential chairs of the Southern California Gas Company, San Joaquin Light and Power Company, Kerckhoff-Cuzner Mill and Lumber Company, Fresno Farms Company, and the South Coast Land Company.

Honorary pallbearers included W. L. Valentine, M. J. Connell, J. E. Sartori, J. E. Cook, E. E. Millikin, James Cuzner, A. C. Balch, J. J. Mausar, H. W. O'Melveny, Judge Charles Monroe, J. Editor Leaves Paper to Aide

The California Voice, prohibition publication, was bequeathed to Ethel G. Hubler, who helped edit the publication, by its owner, Wiley J. Phillips, it was revealed in Probate Court yesterday.

At the request of Mrs. Mary O. Phillips, the widow, Mrs. Hubler signed the petition to probate the will, which left property worth more than $10,000 to Mrs. Phillips.

It was Mrs. Hubler's "loyalty, faithfulness, ability and Christian character" that induced Phillips to leave her the property, according to the phrasing of the will, which was drawn June 16, 1911.

SECRET MARRIAGE PLANS FRUSTRATED

Olga Baclanova

Action Against Willard and Wife Begins

More testimony will be taken today at the hearing on the suit against Jess Willard, former heavyweight champion, and his wife, Hattie B. Willard, on a promissory note, brought by John A. McCabe. The action went to trial yesterday before Superior Judge Downs. Willard did not appear in court.

The note involved in the action is one for $3000 executed by the Willards on November 3, 1925, to run for three years. It was made in favor of Fred H. Luth and was secured by a deed of trust to certain property. Later Luth transferred the note to McCabe.

According to Attorney David J. Chapin, for the plaintiff, $2232.10 is still due. Represented by Attorneys McKenna & McKenna, the Willards assert that when the property that secured the note was sold the note obligation was canceled.

Olga Baclanova Fails in Plan to Marry Soussanin Without Publicity

Olga Baclanova, Russian actress, and Nicholas Soussanin, actor and scenarist, may or may not be married this morning. Their intention had been to get married yesterday when they obtained a marriage license from the County Clerk in Riverside, apparently in an attempt to keep the wedding a secret.

But the plan miscarried when they bumped into several obstacles, both legal and religious. Evidently they had planned on obtaining the license in Riverside county and then coming to Los Angeles to have the ceremony performed by a Greek Catholic priest. But when informed by the license clerk that the ceremony had to be performed in Riverside county they changed their plans and sought a priest of the orthodox Greek faith of Russia.

But none could be found in Riverside county as a hasty check of religious organizations was made. The actress and her groom-to-be left the Courthouse with some display of chagrin and refused to discuss what they intended to do about it.

Unless an orthodox priest will journey to Riverside county it will be necessary for them to take out a new license in Los Angeles county.

Miss Baclanova recently received her divorce decree from Valdimir Zoppi, a Russian lawyer in Moscow. Soussanin first knew her in Moscow, when they both played there.

Both Miss Baclanova and Soussanin gave their address at 5322 Hampton Court, Los Angeles. He gave his age as 40 years, and she stated hers as 29.

BANANA TRAFFIC GAINS FORECAST

Cuyamel Fruit Planning for New Improvements

Will Expend $3,000,000 on Oaxaca Plantation

Rail Line and Terminal at Coast Projected

Upward of $3,000,000 is to be expended immediately along the Mexican west coast by the Cuyamel fruit interests in the development of a new banana trade, whereby a minimum of 20,000 stems per week will be received at Los Angeles Harbor for distribution throughout the Southwest, it was learned at the port yesterday following dispatch of the first 1000 tons of equipment to Mexico aboard the Panama Mail liner Corinto.

Material for construction of a brand-new deep-water port at Puerto Vallarta, a new harbor on the Oaxaca coast north of Salina Cruz, is being assembled at San Pedro for the enterprise, which will also include building of a thirty-mile standard-gauge railroad to the immense Cuyamel banana plantations in the Oaxaca hinterland, as well as complete villages both at the rail head and tidewater. The equipment includes 200,000 feet of lumber, two locomotives, cars, steel rails and ties, knock-down houses, cranes and hoists.

The Panama Mail liner Guatemala will take out next Saturday a large consignment of the material for the new terminal and railway, with actual export of bananas to commence within the next three months. Plans are now under way whereby vessels of the Panama Mail intercoastal and Central American fleets will make regular calls northbound at the new Puerto Vallarta.

Mexican officials at the harbor said yesterday that the new railroad and port will likewise result in development of the potentially rich agricultural lands of Tepic and Oaxaca, which have for years been retarded in growth by lack of rail and water transportation.

The new banana trade is expected to increase by approximately 50 per cent the annual banana imports at Los Angeles Harbor, now second only to New Orleans as a national distributing center.

WESTON SILENT ON SAILING FOR CHINA

Auras of mystery always hover over plenipotentiaries and they clung thickly to John Weston, departing for the Orient on the G.E.K. liner La Plata Maru yesterday. Weston, true to type, was modestly reticent to talk about his "mission." He admitted being made a rear-admiral in the British navy from civil life during the World War and is now serving the admiralty. He is bound for China and that's about all. What kept him here more than a month—he came unheralded from South Africa on a Japanese ship—is also left to surmise.

He did talk, however, and fluently on his projected family tour on a motor land yacht the length of Africa to start in March 1931, and to consume eighteen to twenty-four months. Since The Times' recent story on this trip he has been deluged with applications from persons in many States, inquiring how they can make the trek.

The story, he said, indicated all who accompanied his family would need children along. He asked a correction. Because his training theories have made his children resourceful in the wilderness, he is taking them, but he wanted no weaklings, either adults or youths. Each bears his own expense. Inquiries will reach him at National Bank of South Africa, London Wall, London.

Prospects again are bright for establishment of a cotton fumigation plant at Los Angeles Harbor, and overtures have been made to the Harbor Commission for a site. Names so far are in the background.

A building and equipment for such a plant would cost $30,000. It would, it is said, receive at least 5000 bales annually to start, and diversions from other ports rapidly would increase imports of the foreign fiber to treble that amount. Bales would enter a retort to be vacuumed and treated with poisonous gases to kill pests, and made available for mattress and furniture factories and such in two hours.

At present foreign cotton for here goes to San Francisco's plant and thence is transhipped here, requiring extra handling.

Intercoastal shipping interest turns on San Francisco today where the eastbound lumber conference is to get under way. Several lines already have served notice of intentions to withdraw, but their representatives will attend the meeting and peace yet is hoped.

As lumber is regarded as the basic item on which prosperity of the lines eastbound depends, the outcome is awaited with anxiety. Luckenbach, Nelson and Williams lines have announced intentions to withdraw, while American-Hawaiian, Munson-McCormick, Arrow and Transmarine lines have not.

The Quaker Line's status is in doubt, and it is the chief worry, with its expansion by Kenneth D. Dawson's acquisition of many more ships in recent weeks. Meanwhile the market is firm with bookings at $14 through March.

Seven liners representing five nations departed port yesterday with passengers and freight. Japan was represented by the Osaka Shoshen Kaisha motor liner La Plata Maru smearking 138 travelers for the Orient. American flags flew from the Dollar steamer President Grant, carrying fifty passengers for the Orient, and by the Panama Pacific steamer Mongolia sailing with 176 fares for New York. Two German motorships were the Osiris and the Hamburg-American motor liner San Francisco, each carrying two score travelers for Europe. The Italian motor liner Feltre of the Liberia line took forty for the Mediterranean and the Mexican steamer Washington embarked a dozen for Salina Cruz.

'PIRATES OF PENZANCE' CAPTIVATES

Double Bill, With 'Trial by Jury,' Shows Quality of Operetta Troupe

BY EDWIN SCHALLERT

The buccaneers are here, and they are a gay band! You can see them in "The Pirates of Penzance!"

The d'Oyly Carte Opera Company sponsored their ter-r-r-ible depredations last night at the Mason Theater, but the plunder that they secured was mostly an interested audience's pleasure and laughter.

"The Pirates of Penzance" is the second operatic offering of the English company of singers, which dazzlingly invaded the theatrical sector last week with "The Mikado." The new piece is being given in conjunction with "Trial by Jury"—this other work as a sort of brief curtain-raiser. Both are Gilbert and Sullivan operettas.

It is many years since "The Pirates of Penzance" has been performed here at all—with what adequacy no one now perhaps remembers. In its present performance it is, indeed, like a new experience.

There are not the familiar tunes, of course, that one knows and loves in "The Mikado," but there is music that is unquestionably enchanting. The second act of the work particularly yielded a fascination that one attuned to the novelty of these d'Oyly Carte productions will scarcely want to miss. Though "The Pirates" is less well known here than "The Mikado," it can without hesitancy be said that in this second act especially the work is hardly less charming.

One of the surprises of the evening musically was to hear the familiar strain of "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," and learn its rightful place and lineage. The melody originates in the Pirates Chorus toward the end of "The Pirates," and goes with the words, "Come friends, who plough the sea,
Truce to navigation,
Take another station,
Lo us vary piracy.
With a little burglary!

A snatch of this tune is played in the overture to the operetta, and brought applause when it was rendered. Harry Norris, who directed the orchestra, slyly smiled at the effect. Verily, the Gilbert and Sullivan creation is as much a household word as Shakespeare!

The d-Oyly Crate company gave a splendid account of themselves in both "Trial by Jury" and "The Pirates." The former presents a burlesque in miniature, when a man comes to court with two women whom he has promised to marry, to settle the resultant dispute, and is obligingly relieved of one of them by the judge.

Virtually, "The Pirates'" every musical number brought an encore. The audience was warmly enthusiastic over the talents of Blossom Geisthrone the alternate soprano of the "Mikado," who was by way of being a surprise star of the evening. She scored a decided hit by the lyrical sweetness of her voice, its remarkable trueness.

The tenor, Charles Goulding, made an even more favorable impression than in "The Mikado," notably in the duet with Miss Geisthrope, "Leave Me Not to Pine." This episode has the true Arthur Sullivan quality of beauty.

Henry A. Lytton, the redoubtable veteran of the company, who proved such a successful Ko-Ko was cast as the pleasantly hypocritical Major General, and with his magnificent assurance was a special conqueror. That fine basso, Sydney Granville, as the Sergeant of Police, the superb Darrell Fancourt as the Pirate King, and the vocally-efficient Bertha Lewis as the pirate maid-of-all-work, Ruth, garnered constant plaudits.

One can hardly imagine a more capable organization than these people compose, with the excellence of the ensemble of masculine and feminine choristers who assist them. There is a distinguishing buoyancy to the work of the entire troupe, which gives life and interest to whatever they do, and promises to make each of their productions eagerly anticipated.

RACHMANINOFF IN RECITAL

The Russian school of music is today regarded by many as the most important and original, and Sergei Rachmaninoff, who appears tonight in concert recital at the Philharmonic Auditorium, has exercised a great influence in building up its structure.

Of Russian music Rachmaninoff says:

"The Russian is the greatest musical school today. I marvel that Americans do not know more of it, for it has the universal emotional appeal which none can resist. It is regrettable that you do not know more of our operas, for they are as rich and marvelous as anything in modern music, and nowhere in the world ar ethere fuller opportunities for producing great new works than in America."

Rachmaninoff is now in his early forties, and at the height of his power. Not only is he justly regarded as one of the foremost living composers, his magnificent playing stamps him as a distinguished pianist as well. Tall, rather broad of shoulder, and with a sober face, he sits at his instrument and plays upon the emotions of his hearers. A wonderfully clear and certain technique is at his command, and through it he speaks the language of the heart, for Rachmaninoff believes that in music "the heart is all."

Tonight's program follows: "Sonata," Opus 109, Beethoven; "Papillons," Opus 2, Schumann; "Sonata," Opus 35, Chopin; "Barcarolle," No. 5, Rubinstein; "Fairy Tales," Opus 51, Medtner; "Etude Tableau," Rachmaninoff; "Toccata," Ravel; prelude, "La petite fille aux cheveux de lin," Debussy; "Jardins Sous la Pluie," Debussy, and Scriabine's "Etude," D-flat major, Opus 8; "Prelude," F-sharp minor, Opus 12; "Etude," D-sharp minor, Opus 8.

HODGE WILL PERFORM IN NEW PIECE

"Straight Thru the Door" Announced for Staging at Mason Theater

William Hodge, the inimitable comedian of essentially American character types, is engaged on another artistic pilgrimage which will take him to the Pacific Coast and extend until early summer, affording local playgoers an opportunity of seeing him in his latest and reportedly most popular play, "Straight Thru the Door." Hodge describes his present offering as a smart mystery comedy and the favor with which star and play have been received in the other important theatrical centers is an indication that the Hodge opus has been rightly characterized.

"Straight Thru the Door" provides William Hodge with such a typical Hodge role that this distinctive actor will be doubly welcome when he begins his engagement at the Mason Theater on March 11.

REPERTORY PLAY WILL GO NORTH

"Escape" Moves Saturday; Next Local Offering's Date Changed

The Los Angeles Repertory Theater's third offering, Galsworthy's "Escape," will be sent with the present cast intact to San Francisco for an engagement at the Geary Theater, following its close at the Figueroa Playhouse on Saturday evening.

The next attraction of the Repertory Theater organization, Louis Bromfield's play, "The House of Women," will have a change of opening date from Monday to Tuesday evening. The change is made because Eugene O'Neill's "Strange Interlude" is listed for opening at the Biltmore Theater Monday evening, this being a production of the New York Theater Guild, with which the Repertory Theater is allied.

MAJESTIC INDEED!

House Provides Appropriate Setting for Molnar's "The Swan"

Majestic suggests an appropriate regal atmosphere and setting for "The Swan," Molnar's rollicking royal romance now playing to capacity audiences at the theater of that name. Being a comedy much concerned with royal majesties and royal highnesses "The Swan" really strikes an imperial note in play production. And the connotation of majestic is ideal for the fun piece. All the effects, including the gowns, uniforms, furniture, sets and characters are consistent therewith.

Presenting a humorous expose of one royal family's efforts to ensnare the prince of another European household into matrimony which, if successful, would re-establish the dethroned family, "The Swan" offers many amusing highlights on the methods utilized by the families in the process of throne juggling.

TOMORROW'S MUSIC PLAYED YESTERDAY

Hungarian Extremist Interests Musical Cognoscenti by Progressions

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

A piano program of Kodaly, Bartok, Lajtha, Szabo, Kadosa and Weisshaus was delineated by the intense young ultramodernist from Hungary, Imre Weisshaus, at the Walmsley studio in Hollywood yesterday evening. It was music in an idiom we know little of, but it was compelling, arresting music for the most part and commanded the undeviating attention of the small but distinguished audience of ultramodern sympathizers who were in attendance.

It was not my privilege to hear all of the program, but a fair judgment of most of those present seemed to give the most approval to Bartok's "quartre neules" and "for children." Kadosa's sonata attracted much favorable comment also. The presto-allegretto, which I heard, was a rhythmical delight and was as rigidly contained in the ultramodern sonata form as any classic is bound by its classical form.

I concluded after hearing the three piano pieces and two sketches by Mr. Weisshaus, that this young man had far more to give his listeners than was apparent during his first recital in this city two years ago under the auspices of the Los Angeles chapter of Pro-Musica. His work has grown more intelligible since then or else we have become more accustomed to his genre. It is now clearly illustrative of the common life of this mechahistic, intellectual age.

The only way, those of us who have learned an earlier music language, can ever expect to understand, enjoy or even be "at home" with the music of angles, crashes, reverberations and reiterations of sound, is to hear it again and again until we can think this music. Until more of the ultramoderns care to become teachers the public will go on scoffing to hide its bewilderment.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Weisshaus will give a more public recital of his countrymen's work in Los Angeles in the near future. He is an excellent pianist, but rightly enough he is not concerned with pianism, but with music.

Foiling Shears an Easy Task

Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur, authors of "The Front Page," now at the Belasco Theater, were recently asked how they expected their successful play of newspaper life ever to be screened in such a way as to pass the censors, since it is teeming with dialogue and expletives certain scissor-wielding folk might think offensive.

"It's all in how it is adapted," they are reported to have answered.

"There is plenty of plot for the movies, but it will have to be handled by someone who knows his stuff.

"That is why we have recommended to Howard Hughes, who has bought the film rights, that Wallace Smith be assigned to write the screen story.

"Not only was Smith a buddy of ours in Chicago newspaper circles but he sat in with us as we wrote the play, and is one of the characters depicted. No—we shan't tell which one."

"UNBORN" PRESENTED BY LINCOLN ACTORS

"The Unborn," a drama in which modern birth-control practices are fiercely attacked, had its first Los Angeles showing at the Lincoln Theater last night.

Charles Olden gives a characterization of Lennox, the weak, erratic son, in the second and third acts.

Evelyn Preer plays Katherine Hartman, the wife, and mother of Lennox. In the principal male role Edward Thompson, as usual, gives a worthy performance. Laura Bowman plays Sarah Hartman, mother of the distraught young husband, and Lawrence Criner is seen in the role of the physician.

A convincing characterization is also offered by Bebe Townsend as Ruth, the pretty fiance of Lennox.

TITLE CHANGED

The title of Irving Cummings's current vehicle, "The Grouch Bag," has been changed to "Empty Arms," which is much more appropriate considering that June Collyer, heroine of the production, is anything but grouchy. Miss Collyer's costumes in this picture are said to be extraordinarily beautiful, having been made by one of Hollywood's most famous modistes.

CHERCHEZ LES FEMMES

The essentially masculine picture of aviation, "The Conquest," now running at Warner Brothers Theater, is the creation of two women. Mary Imlay Taylor wrote a novel called "A Cradle in the Wind." Her work was adapted by Eve Unsell, who wrote the screen version and gave the picture the title it now bears.

Single Monday Performance of Play Arranged

The Theater Guild of New York announces that after the premiere of "Strange Interlude" at the Biltmore Theater on Monday night there will be no further Monday performances of that play. Realizing that there are thousands of Los Angeles theatergoers who cannot leave their businesses conveniently in time for the 5:30 curtain time, the guild will present the play on Sunday nights all through the engagement here, as well as on the other nights of the week excepting Monday.

So long and exhausting are the principal roles in this nine-act drama that lasts over four hours, that the actors cannot give more than six performances a week. In order to give Sunday night shows they had to decide upon some other night of the week for a rest night, and Monday was selected. This is the first time in local theatrical history that such a policy of playing Sundays and closing Mondays has been instituted.

Jane Laurell Out of Show

Illness has forced the withdrawal of Jane Laurell from the feminine lead in "Squawk" and brought replacement by Elizabeth Allen, New York actress, to create the role in the world premiere at the Mayan Theater Saturday night, the management reports.

Miss Allen, remembered by Los Angeles theatergoers as the ingenue in Morosco productions several seasons ago, has achieved a reputation on the Broadway stage in recent performances. She followed Sylvia Field as lead in the New York production of "Broadway," and then undertook a part in "Revolt." Numbered among some of her other Gotham appearances are "Dawn," "Handy Man," "Crashing the Gate" and "Holy Terror."

Nancy Carroll Theme Popular

"Precious Little Thing Called Love," theme song of "Shopworn Angel," Paramount sound production now playing at the Million Dollar, is proving an overnight sensation, rivaling the early success of "Ramona," "Sonny Boy," and other songs identified with pictures. The lyrics are by Fred Coots and the music is by Lew Davis.

Only off the press six weeks, sales have already passed the 200,000 mark, according to reports just received by Bobby Gross, local representative for Jerome H. Remick, publishers.

In the final sequence of the picture, Nancy Carroll sings "Precious Little Thing Called Love," in a chorus rehearsal setting of a Broadway musical show. This part comes quite natural to Miss Carroll, as she began her career in the chorus of "The Passing Show of 1923" at the Winter Garden, and afterward graduated into Al Jolson's "Big Boy."

HATTON'S FIRST FOR FOX

Raymond Hatton has completed work in the first Fox production in which he has ever appeared. He played the role of an amateur detective in the Howard Hawks production, "Trent's Last Case." Incidentally, it is reported that officials of the Orpheum circuit have approached the actor with a view of his appearing in a sketch which was given recently at the Writers' Club.

PLAYS AT SANTA MONICA

Four one-act plays will be offered by the Santa Monica Community Theater Guild this evening at the Uplifters' Club Auditorium. These are authored by Anton Chekov, Dan Totheroh, John Singe and Robert Benchley—a diversified group! Among the performers are Zasu Pitts, Ann Rork, John Byers, Jean Leslie and Virginia Sale.
